

Ace of Clubs Constitution and Bylaws

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be “Ace of Clubs”

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of The Ace of Clubs shall be to bring together a variety of students who enjoy playing non-electronic games: board games, card games, word games, strategy games, etc. and provide a space for them to meet new people, learn new games and have a great time away from the stresses of school.

Article III: Membership

Section I. The club will be open for any Furman student who pays the student activities fee to join

Section II.

1. “General Members” will be defined as anyone who has attended one Ace of Clubs event
2. “Voting members” will be defined as members who have attended at least 50% Ace of Clubs events in a year and will have the ability to nominate and vote during officer transitions

Article IV: Officers

Section I. Positions and Duties

1. President
 - a. Lays out a vision and plans for the future of the organization
 - b. Organizes and manages club events
 - c. Oversees other officers and steps in to perform their duties as needed if they are unable
 - d. Leads meetings and events
 - e. Manages finances and budget for the club
 - f. Handles disputes between members at club meetings regarding gameplay rules and sharing of games
2. Vice President- Planning
 - a. Works with the president to schedule and plan events
 - b. Handles the logistics of event set up
 - i. Room reservation
 - ii. Food coordination
 - iii. Dates and times
 - iv. Other logistics of event planning
3. Vice President- Communications

- a. Maintains contact list of members
- b. Communicates information to members
- c. Finds ways to recruit new members

Article V: Meetings

The club will meet once a week for a game night event.

Game nights should be planned by the officers at least two weeks before the target date.

Voting members must attend at least 50 % of meetings to have voting power.

Article VI: Finance

Section I. The organization will request funding from SGA and member donations.

All funding for the organization will be devoted to the purchasing of games for the club use and supplies such as food, drinks, nametags, etc. for club meetings.

Members will be encouraged to bring games, but this is not required. The club is responsible for providing games to be played. Games purchased with club funds are club property and will not belong to any one officer or member and should be labeled as such.

Article VII: Advisor

Section I. The advisor will serve as a resource for advice on management of club affairs and will hold officers accountable to the execution of the club purpose.

Article VIII: Amendments

Section I. Members and Advisor may propose amendments to the constitution through a written or typed message to the president

Amendments to the constitution will be made through unanimous agreement of club officers.

Bylaws

Article I: Membership

Section I. Membership types

1. General Members. Defined as any student who has attended at least one Ace of Clubs event
2. Voting Members. Defined as members who have attended at least 50% Ace of Clubs events in a year and will have the ability to nominate and vote during officer transitions

Section II. Removal of Members

If a member repeatedly violates any of the guidelines stated in Article IV of the Bylaws, he or she will not be permitted to attend future club events.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Section I.

1. Initial officers will be appointed by the founder/president. Officers will serve a term of two semesters, Spring to Fall. There is no limit to the number of consecutive terms an officer may serve. At the end of every Fall semester, voting members can make nominations for officer positions. Only voting members are eligible to become officers. The vote at the end of the Fall semester will determine the officers for the following year. The vote will be conducted through an electronic ballot. Voting members will have a week to cast their votes. For each position, the nominee with the most votes wins.
2. In the event of a tie, there will be a re-vote. If a tie still exists, the current President will make the final decision.
3. Seniors on track to graduate in the Spring are ineligible for officer positions.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

Section I. Officers will come to a consensus on a faculty member they wish to ask to advise the organization. This process will continue until the officers have found an advisor

Article IV: Member Guiding Principles and Rules

1. Respect all members. Harsh words, bullying, and hazing will not be tolerated.
2. Play the games according to the rules and with integrity.
 - a. Rules should be agreed upon before play begins.

- b. If a dispute arises during a game over a rule, reach a group consensus before continuing to play.
 - c. Play fair and honest.
- 3. Play to win and have fun. No gambling or wagering of any kind on the outcomes of games is allowed.
- 4. Keep use of electronics to a minimum.
- 5. Be willing to learn new games, meet new people, and have fun!

Article V: Amendments

Section I. Members and Advisor may propose amendments to the bylaws through a written or typed message to the president

Amendments to the bylaws will be made through unanimous agreement of club officers.