

Furman University Alpha Phi Omega Proposed By-Laws

Last Updated February 9th, 2022

Article I. Name

The name of the Furman University Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega National Service Fraternity is Alpha Eta Nu.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of Alpha Phi Omega shall be to assemble college students in a national service fraternity in the fellowship of principles derived from the Scout Oath and Law of the Boy Scouts of America; to develop leadership, to promote friendship and to provide service to humanity; and to further the freedom that is our national, educational and intellectual heritage.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. Open Membership.

Membership in Alpha Phi Omega shall be open to all students, solely based upon the approval of the Furman University's Chapter and the fulfillment of the membership requirements prescribed by the National Fraternity and by this chapter.

Section 2. Eligibility.

Membership in this Fraternity shall be open to all undergraduate students that are in good standing with Furman University as defined and governed by the policy of the University without regards to age, ethnicity, gender, disability, national origin, race, religion, sexual orientation, or veteran status.

Section 3. Types of Membership

- A. Pledge Membership
- B. Active Membership
- C. Associate Membership
- D. Inactive Membership
- E. Advisory Membership
- F. Honorary Membership
- G. Alumni Membership
- H. Suspended Membership

Section 4. Pledge Membership

Pledge membership shall be conferred upon an enrolled Undergraduate student of Furman University who is selected by the chapter to participate in a period of preparation and training in the ideals and purposes of Alpha Phi Omega, and is seeking active membership in this Chapter. All Pledges are installed as Pledge members in accordance with the regulations and policies of the Fraternity.

Section 5. Active Membership

Active membership shall be conferred upon enrolled undergraduate students who abide by the principles of Alpha Phi Omega; who are encouraged, but not required, by their chapter to be a registered member of any Scout movement; who have successfully completed an approved membership education program provided by the Chapter; have been initiated as a member in accordance with the regulations and policies of the Fraternity; are in good standing with this Chapter and the Fraternity; have paid applicable dues for the current academic term; and fulfill the Chapter's requirements for active membership. Active membership shall carry all rights and responsibilities in this Chapter. Proof of good standing with the academic institution is required by showing proof of matriculation for all active members. The requirements for Active Membership shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Chapter at the first Chapter meeting of each academic year. Active brothers are eligible to receive a senior cord paid for by the chapter if the following criteria have been met:

- A. The brother must be active the semester before and during which they will graduate.
- B. The brother cannot have it paid for if they are in bad standing, inactive, or haven't completed a full active semester.
- C. The brother must have completed the Launch course at some point in their membership.
- D. All of this comes out of the VPM budget.

Section 6. Associate Membership

Associate membership may be conferred upon an active member who finds it necessary to cease full involvement in chapter affairs due to other commitments, and who petitions the chapter for associate membership. Said membership will be granted at the discretion of the Chapter Executive Board. The rights and privileges of an Associate Member (Associate) shall be defined by the Executive Board on an individual basis. Every case will be recorded for the Executive Board to reference for later cases, in order to maintain consistency. An Associate Member may regain Active status by fulfilling requirements of Good Standing in the Chapter and petitioning the Chapter for a change of status. Associate members paying dues will have their cords paid for so long as they have met the stipulations in Article III, Section 5.

Section 7. Inactive Membership

An Active or Associate Member who leaves the Chapter but remains an enrolled student at Furman University and has not been suspended by this Chapter or the Fraternity is an Inactive Member (Inactive). An Inactive member can regain Active or Associate status by completing the requirements for that membership category and petitioning the Chapter for a change of status. The rights and privileges of an inactive member are all those of active membership, excluding the right to vote, hold office, participate in chapter fellowship events, to take a little brother, and participate in fraternity rituals. Brothers cannot hold an inactive status for more than two consecutive semesters. Should this occur, the brother will be required to go through the rush process again. Brothers who study abroad are not considered in inactive status but are not required to fulfill any membership requirements.

Section 8. Advisory Membership

Advisory Membership may be conferred upon an individual meeting receiving two-thirds affirmative vote of active members present and voting at a regular meeting.

These individuals are required to participate in the Advisor training, as given by the chapter, within a month of gaining Advisory membership. Those advisory members who have not previously held active or advisory membership shall be initiated according to the official Initiation Ritual of the Fraternity. These Advisors shall have all rights and privileges of active membership, except those of voting, holding student office, directing the supervision of pledges, and directing the establishment of pledge or active membership programs and policies. Such membership may not be conferred upon undergraduate students. Advisory Membership may be removed by request of that individual or by a two-thirds vote of the chapter. Following the removal of Advisory membership, the individual is granted Alumni Membership.

Section 9. Honorary Membership

This Chapter may confer Honorary Membership upon people who have contributed significantly to the ideals and purposes of Alpha Phi Omega. Persons so honored shall have all rights and privileges of advisory membership. Such membership may not be bestowed upon undergraduate students. Selection of honorary members by the chapter shall require the approval by vote of at least three-fourths of the Chapter's active membership.

Section 10. Alumni Membership

Upon leaving this chapter, if the individual has not been suspended or expelled by the chapter or the National Fraternity, all who have held active or advisory membership in this Chapter shall be recognized as Alumni Members of this Chapter. Alumni Members shall have all rights and privileges of active membership, except those of voting, holding student office, directing the supervision of pledges, and directing the establishment of pledge or active membership programs and policies.

Section 11. Suspended Membership

A member who has been suspended by this Chapter and/or the National Board of Directors shall be considered to have suspended membership. A member with this classification has no rights within this Chapter other than those specified in the National Bylaws of Alpha Phi Omega.

Section 12. Transfer of Membership

A duly initiated brother of Alpha Phi Omega may petition this Chapter at Furman University for Membership provided the brother is in good standing with the National Fraternity and is a regularly enrolled student at Furman University.

Article VIII. Advisors

Section 1. Advisory Committee

The Advisory Committee of this Chapter shall consist of four or more advisors including, at minimum two (2) advisors from the University Faculty, administration or staff, one (1) advisor representing scouting or other youth services, and one advisor from the community. For information on the roles of the Advisory committee see Article VII, Section 5.

Section 2. Chair of the Advisory Committee

- A. One of the advisors shall be elected by the chapter as the chair of the Advisory Committee at the first Chapter meeting of each school year.
- B. The Advisory Committee chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Advisory Committee,
- C. Serves as a non-voting member of the Chapter's Executive Board,
- D. Provide assistance and guidance to the highest extent possible as requested by the Chapter.

Section 3. Duties and Privileges of Advisors

Advisors shall:

- A. Encourage the development of high fraternal and scholastics standards.
- B. Assist the Chapter in planning and carrying out its various programs and initiations.
- C. Help to ensure that all events and activities are conducted in adherence with Chapter, school and Fraternity risk management policies and procedures, and that all members are aware of said policies and procedures.
- D. Advisors shall have all rights and privileges of Active membership except those of voting, holding office except for the Chair of the Advisory Committee, directing the supervision of pledges and directing the establishment of pledge or active membership programs and policies.

- E. Each advisor is responsible for keeping in contact with the Chapter and the Chapter Advisory committee, and being a positive presence within both entities.

Section 4. Selection Procedure

Advisors shall be approved by a two-thirds vote of the Active Members present and voting at a chapter meeting. Advisors shall serve until the first meeting of the Fall Semester following their approval. At the first meeting of the fall semester, the Chapter shall vote on whether or not to approve each Advisor for an additional term of office. Advisors shall be eligible for an unlimited number of terms. Advisors can be removed from office by requesting the termination of their position or an advisor may be impeached by using the same method to impeach members of the Executive board as found in Article VI, Section 4.

Article IX. Meetings

Section 1. Meetings

Regular Chapter meetings are held every week during the regular School Semesters, at a location as specified by the President. All meetings of this chapter shall be open only to chapter members, advisory members, and pledge members. Should outside individuals wish to attend a Chapter meeting, that person must request permission from the Chapter President with a reasonable cause.

Section 2. Additional Meetings

Additional meetings may be called by the Chapter President or by the vote of a supermajority of the Executive Board members as needed. These extra meetings will be announced at least 24 hours ahead of time and will not be included with the absence policy of this Chapter, as they are not regular meetings.

Section 3. Voting

Only Active members shall be allowed to vote in meetings of this Chapter. No Proxy or absentee voting will be allowed in matters of Regular Chapter business. Unless otherwise noted in these bylaws or the prescribed parliamentary authority of the Chapter, a simple majority (fifty percent plus one of the Active members present and voting) shall be required to pass any motion or resolution. During any special motion requiring more than a simple majority vote, the chapter reserves the ability to "Bar the doors," meaning roll will be called at the beginning of the motion and at the conclusion of the motion. During such no voting brothers may leave or enter the room, so that there will be no change in quorum for said vote.

Section 4. Parliamentary Authority

The rules contained in the latest edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern all meetings of the Furman University Chapter, in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with these Bylaws, the policies of this Chapter, those of the Fraternity, or those of Furman University.

Article X. Finances

Section 1. Dues

Dues shall be paid to the chapter on a semester basis, excluding extra semesters such as May and summer semesters. The Chapter dues must be paid prior to the eighth scheduled Chapter business meeting of each semester, unless specified otherwise by the Executive Board at the beginning of each semester. The cost of dues are determined by the Executive Board during the Chapter Annual Planning Session prior to each fall semester for that academic year, based on an amount recommended by the Chapter Finance Committee. All members will receive sufficient warning prior to the deadlines for due payment.

Section 2. Budget

The Chapter Treasurer with the Finance Committee shall develop a budget for each regular academic term, with the exception of summer term and May term, and present that budget to the Executive Board for approval no later than the second week of the academic term. Approval of the budget requires a two-third vote of those present and voting at the Executive Board meeting, provided all members of the Executive board are notified one week in advance. The Budget is then presented to the Chapter no later than the fourth regular Chapter business meeting of the Semester.

Section 3. Unbudgeted Expenditures

Any expenditure over $50 that is not part of an approved budget must be approved by a majority vote of the Chapter President, the Chapter Treasurer, and the relevant Vice President. The term "relevant Vice President" is described in Article X. Section 4.

Section 4. Disbursements

All disbursements from Chapter funds shall be approved by two of the three following: President, Treasurer and the relevant Vice President.

- A. The Relevant Vice President refers to which aspect of the fraternity is receiving disbursement. Meaning:
 - a. If it is a service related disbursements: Vice President of Service;
 - b. If it is a fellowship related disbursements: Vice President of Fellowship;
 - c. If it is a membership related disbursement: Vice President of Membership;
 - d. If it is administrative related disbursement: Vice President of Leadership.

Section 5. Prohibited Expenditures

Under no circumstances shall chapter funds be used to purchase alcohol or any illegal substance.

Article XI. Risk Management Policy

The Furman University Chapter shall have a risk management policy. The risk management policy shall be created and amended following the procedures defined in Article XIV. A copy of this policy shall be distributed to all Pledge, Active, Associate and Advisory members each semester during the fourth regular chapter business meeting of the semester. This Chapters Risk Management Policy can be found in the document Policies of Alpha Eta Nu Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega.

Article XII. Hazing

There shall be no hazing or informal initiation in connection with the functions of this Chapter. Any mistreatment of pledges, members, or other persons at any time shall be considered a violation of the purposes of this Chapter and of the National Fraternity.

Article XIII. Policies

Section 1. Chapter Policies

This Chapter may adopt such policies, rules and regulations not in conflict with these Bylaws, the rules and regulations of Furman University or the governing documents of the Fraternity as necessary. Chapter Policies shall be maintained in writing and in a single document or other repository which shall be made readily accessible to all interested parties. All Policies of the Furman University Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega can be found in the document Policies of the Furman University Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega.

Section 2. Adoption Procedure

A motion to create, alter, or remove a chapter policy must be brought at one regularly scheduled Chapter Meeting and voted on at the following regularly scheduled Chapter business meeting. A simple majority is required to create, alter, or rescind any Chapter policy unless otherwise specified in these bylaws.

Section 3. Duration of Policies

Chapter policies, once adopted, shall remain in effect until amended or rescinded.

Section 4. Review of Policies

Each new Executive Board member shall review policies pertaining to their duties and the general operation of the Chapter at the beginning of their term of office. Additionally, each semester a copy of the policies is provided for all Active, Pledge,

Associate, and Advisory members during the fourth regular business meeting of that semester.

Article XIV. Amendment

Any Brother of this Chapter may move to amend these Bylaws. To do so, that brother must submit a written proposal to the Executive Board, at least three (3) weeks prior to the business meeting where the amendment is to be voted upon. The Executive Board then distributes the proposal to the Active, Pledge, Associate and Advisory members of the Chapter no later than two (2) weeks prior to the vote. Two-thirds (2/3) of the present active Brotherhood, with a quorum set of two-thirds (2/3) of the active Brotherhood, must approve any amendment before such a proposal will become effective.

Article XV. Superior Authority Clauses

Section 1. List of Superior Authority Clauses

- A. The Superior Authority of National Fraternity Bylaws
- B. The Superior Authority of University Policy and Bylaws

Section 2. The Superior Authority of National Fraternity Bylaws

The aforementioned bylaws of the Alpha Eta Nu Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega are meant to be the ruling documents of the organization. However, in the event that there is a difference between the National Bylaws and these Chapter Bylaws, the National Bylaws have superiority over the aforementioned bylaws unless it violates university policy.

Section 3. The Superior Authority of University Policy and Bylaws

Additionally, should there be a case where these Bylaws of the Alpha Eta Nu Chapter of Alpha Phi Omega or the National Bylaws of the Alpha Phi Omega Fraternity disagree in anyway with the Policies and Bylaws of Furman University, those of Furman University have superiority over the other two (2) ruling bodies.
