

Bylaws of the Furman University Chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society

Last Updated: January 9, 2018

Article I. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Furman University chapter of Student Affiliates of the American Chemical Society (ACS).

Article II. Objects

The objects of this Chapter shall be to afford an opportunity for students of chemistry to become better acquainted, to secure the intellectual stimulation that rises from professional associations, to obtain experience in preparing and presenting technical material before chemical audiences, to foster a professional spirit among the members, to instill a professional pride in the chemical sciences, to promote science education in the local community, and to foster an awareness of the responsibilities and challenges of the modern chemist.

Article III. Membership

The membership of this organization shall be composed of student members of the American Chemical Society. Students who are not ACS student members may be chapter members but may not hold office. To earn membership, students must also earn four points as described in Article X.

Article IV. Officers.

The officers of this Chapter shall be a President, a Vice-President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and a Publicity Chair, who shall constitute the Executive Committee. The officers shall be nominated by nominations from the floor or a nominating committee at the first meeting in March or at a time decided upon by majority vote of the previously elected officers. Officer candidates must have earned the appropriate number of points as described in Article X prior to nomination. The candidates for the positions of President and Vice President must have earned membership the previous year in addition to meeting the requirements to run for President or Vice President (described in Article X) in the year in which they run for office. During the week of Spring Break, voting members will be notified of their eligibility and be able to nominate those they would like to elect to office. Elections shall take place via online poll that will open in the week following Spring Break. Voting members will have one week to make their selections, after which the new officers will be announced. The officers shall take office in April and shall hold offices for one year or until their successors are duly elected.

Article V. Duties of Officers

1. The President shall oversee all meetings and the delegation of responsibilities for the year he or she is in office.
2. The Vice President shall function in the President's stead in his or her absence and shall coordinate the CATALYST program and outreach events.
3. The Treasurer shall be responsible for all financial transactions that occur while he or she is in office as well as the chapter roster and the addition of new members.
4. The Secretary shall be responsible for the recording of minutes at all meeting, the recording of events planned by the Chapter and the recording of attendance at events.

5. The Publicity Chair shall be responsible for publicizing events and maintenance of the Chapter website, as well as the maintenance and update of Chapter social media accounts.

These responsibilities are intended as a broad concept of the powers of the officers and are not limiting. A majority vote of officers may add or detract from the stated responsibilities. It is also the case that new officer positions may be created to meet the needs of the chapter with a majority vote of all chapter members.

Article VI. Faculty Advisor

The Chapter officers at their discretion shall elect as the Chapter Faculty Advisor a Furman faculty member who is a member of the American Chemical Society, whose duties shall be to advise the Chapter both in its local activities and in its relations with the Society. The Faculty Advisor may also be appointed by the chemistry faculty of Furman University at their discretion. The Advisor shall be kept informed of all Chapter activities and shall advise the Chapter on any policy matter. Additional expectations of the advisor may be found on the annual Advisor Expectations form.

Article VII. Professional Advisor

The Chapter at its annual election may select as its Professional Advisor a non-faculty member of the American Chemical Society. This person shall assist the Chapter in its relations with the Local Section of the Society and with the industrial community.

Article VIII. Meetings

Regular meetings shall be held at least five times per year. Special events may be arranged through the Executive Committee. There shall be at least two activities per year.

Article IX. Dues

National membership in the American Chemical Society is not required to participate in the local student chapter, however, students may elect to earn points for the student chapter by becoming a national member. Two points will be given for the student member that becomes a national member through the Member-Get-A-Member program. Local dues shall not be collected.

Article X. Points System

Membership shall be limited to those who have earned at least four points. Members shall be allowed to vote in elections, be eligible for periodic table blanket raffles, and be eligible for certain merchandise discounts as agreed upon by the Executive Committee. One point may be earned per meeting or event attended and two points may be earned per hour of volunteer work at certain events. Two points are also granted to those who become National ACS members through the Member-Get-A-Member program. Those who desire to run for the offices of Secretary, Treasurer, or Publicity Chair must earn six points prior to nomination. Those who desire to run for the offices of President or Vice President must earn ten points prior to nomination. In addition, those who desire to run for President or Vice President must have been a member the previous year OR have received fifteen points prior to nomination.

Article XI. Annual Reports

Annual Reports shall be written by the President and Vice President and shall be submitted to the American Chemical Society Office of Student Affiliates each May. Additionally, these reports shall be preserved in the Chapter records.

Article XII. Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of the members, provided that the amendments shall have been proposed at least one meeting previous to the time of voting. These bylaws may also be amended by a majority vote of the Executive Committee. Such amendments shall conform to the ACS regulations established for Student Affiliates Chapters.
