

Furman University Anthropology Club Constitution 2024-2025

Article I: Name

“The formal name of this organization shall be the Furman University Anthropology Club.”

Article II: Purpose

“The purposes of this club are as follows:

1. To promote campus awareness and interest in the field of anthropology and its many subfields;
2. To give students an opportunity to meet other like-minded individuals;
3. To give students educational opportunities outside of the classroom to learn about humans and various cultures;
4. To give students access to networking events with other professionals in the field of anthropology”

Article III: Affiliations

This organization shall be affiliated with the Furman University Department of Anthropology. This organization is not affiliated with any local, state, national, or international organizations.

Article IV: Membership

“In keeping with Furman University’s non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.”

Students of any major are eligible for membership.

Article V: Officers

- The officer titles shall be President, Vice-President, and Historian.
- Officers must be full-time undergraduate day students of Furman University.
- The officers shall each serve for one academic year (fall and spring semester) and their term of office shall begin at the commencement of the fall semester.
- The officers shall be elected by secret ballot at the end of each spring semester by a majority of the votes cast for each office.
- If a vacancy occurs in the office of President, the Vice-President shall assume the office for the remainder of the term and vacancies in any other office shall be filled by a special election.
- If removal of an officer is ever felt necessary by the members of the Furman University Anthropology Club, they may address this concern within a regular meeting. Alternatively, concerns may be emailed to the Club President or Vice-President. The Officer to which the complaint is concerning will be notified and have until the next meeting to fix the concern. If the members are still unsatisfied with the actions of the Officer, a 2/3 vote will remove the Officer from their position.

The President shall:

- a. Prepare the agenda and facilitate club meetings;
- b. Be responsible to the university and the club for all club-sponsored functions;
- c. Have the authority to delegate assignments and / or responsibility as seen fit;
- d. In conjunction with the Vice-President, arrange speakers and activities;
- e. Vote on club issues where a tie occurs;
- f. In conjunction with the Secretary, manage club funds and make approved purchases.
- g. Assist all other officers as needed.

The Vice-President shall:

- a. Assist the President and assume the President's duties in case of absence;
- b. In conjunction with the President, arrange speakers and activities;
- c. In conjunction with the Secretary, make and distribute advertising materials for club meetings and activities;
- d. Fulfill other duties as assigned by the President.

The Secretary shall:

- a. Act as the scribe for the club: record minutes of the meetings;
- b. In conjunction with the Vice-President, make and distribute advertising materials for club meetings and activities;
- c. Create and maintain an accurate listing of club members and contact information;
- d. Handle correspondence for the club, both between club members and with other clubs;
- e. Keep track of club SGA funds as well as make purchase approved by the Office of Student Involvement and the President
- f. Fulfill other duties as assigned by the President.

Article VI: Advisor

- The advisor shall be selected by the President at the start of each academic year.

Advisor duties shall be as follows:

1. The advisor must oversee and represent the club and its interests;
2. Aid officers with finding solutions to issues that may be outside of the Furman University Anthropology Club constitution;

Article VII: Meetings

- Regular meetings shall be held monthly during the academic school year. Special meetings may be called by the President with the approval of the Vice-President and Historian.
- Events (such as, but not limited to, guest lectures or debates) shall be held regularly throughout the academic school year.

Article VIII: Finance

- Funding shall be received through donation.
- Funding may also be obtained through applying for and receiving funds from the Furman SGA

Article IX: Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the chapter membership. All members shall receive notice of the proposed amendment at least five days before the meeting