

DINS VOTE CONSTITUTION

26 August 2021

The mission of Dins Vote is to gather Furman students together in order to provide all relevant information, facilitate meaningful discussion, and consider all opportunities that would allow their fellow peers to be informed voters in American society

Article I Title

The title of this organization shall be Dins Vote.

Article II Membership

Any undergraduate student at Furman University who is currently registered may be a member of the organization. Membership does not guarantee a leadership position. Committee membership is reviewed by the president and vice president by considering all members' committee preferences. All leadership positions—the president, vice president, and treasurer—shall be chosen by an election of all registered Dins Vote members and the input of the faculty advisor.

Article III Functions

Section I. Dins Vote shall make links between the Greenville community and Furman University.

Section II. Dins Vote shall promote dedication to providing students with thorough information and opportunities to become informed voters.

Section III. Dins Vote shall promote the development of interpersonal skills that are required to work effectively as a team.

Article IV Elections

Section I. Elections for officers shall take place in April or May.

Section II. After Elections, outgoing members are expected to meet with rising leadership in order to provide relevant and helpful information about his or her position to ensure a fluid transition.
