

Furman DREAM Chapter Constitution

Article I: Name

- This organization shall be known as Furman DREAM Chapter. DREAM stands for Disability Rights, Education, Activism, and Mentoring.

Article II: Purpose

- The purpose of this organization shall be as follows:
 - To establish a group that will promote awareness of disabilities on campus through hosting special events, bringing in guest speakers, and providing students support and information.
 - To advocate for a safe environment for those who are disabled.

Article III: Affiliations

- Furman's DREAM chapter will be associated with the Student Office of Accessibility Resources (SOAR).
- DREAM is a national organization for and by college students with disabilities.
- DREAM is associated with the National Center for College Students with Disabilities (NCCSD).

Article IV: Membership

- Membership will be open to all currently enrolled students who want to join.
- In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

- The Executive Committee will consist of the DREAM advisor (i.e. the current SOAR director) and these five officers:
 1. President
 2. Vice President
 3. Treasurer
 4. Secretary
- The term of office for all officers shall be one (1) year, beginning the day after Furman commencement. All training will take place before this time.
- Newly-elected officers will assume their offices on the first day following Furman commencement.

Article VI: Advisor

- The Testing and Accessibility Coordinator for the Student Office for Accessibility Resources (SOAR) serves as advisor to Furman DREAM chapter. They are the liaison between Furman University and the DREAM members.

- The advisor to DREAM is responsible for providing guidance and support in our chapter's mission on campus. The advisor will serve as an advocate for students with disabilities, and help promote a more inclusive, diverse, and accessible campus.

Article VII: Meetings

- General Meetings
 - Meetings shall be held at least once a month.
 - Executive Committee officers will report their progress and activities at this time.
 - Any concerns by membership, officers, or advisor shall be addressed.

Article VIII: Finance

- DREAM will receive funding primary through Student Government Association (SGA) and the Student Diversity Council at Furman University

Article IX: Amendments

- Any member can propose amendments and/or revisions to this constitution and its bylaws during a meeting. Amendments and/or revisions shall become part of this document after a 2/3 vote of approval by its present members.
- The Bylaws and Constitution must be updated by the new Executive Board at least once a year.

Bylaws

Article I: Membership

- Categories of membership include officer and active member.
- Active members will be any member of the student body who attends at least three meetings each semester.
 - Proper advertisement of the DREAM chapter should be made available to the student body through several forms to include but not limited to:
 - The Student Involvement Fair each fall.
 - Chalkboard advertisement in the Trone Student Center.
 - Flyers on campus.
 - Tabling events and activities open to the entire campus.
 - The Paladin (student newspaper) advertisement.
 - Social Media advertisement.
 - Word of mouth advertisement from current members.
 - Emails from academic departments, including but not limited to the education department, the psychological department, the health science department, and the sociology department.
- Membership Requirements:
 - Students must attend at least three (3) meetings per semester to be considered a member.

- Meetings can be attended virtually or in person
 - The Executive Committee, along with the DREAM chapter Advisor, will give final approval to all new members.
- Membership Responsibilities:
 - DREAM members are expected to adhere to Furman Student Code of Conduct.
 - DREAM members are expected to adhere to the attendance policy. Members must be able to attend three (3) meetings a semester to be in good standing.
- Removal of Members
 - Members who do not adhere to the constitution will be evaluated by the executive committee.
 - The executive committee can proceed with the following actions based on a unanimous decision:
 - Warning.
 - Formal meeting and discussion.
 - Immediate removal of member from the organization.

Article II: Selection of Officers

- Officer Elections
 - Elections will be held in the spring semester each year.
 - All Executive Committee candidates will apply by filling out an application form.
 - An Election Committee will be formed and will include the following members:
 - All Executive Committee members who are not up for re-election.
 - One senior class representative, if applicable.

- One junior class representative, if applicable.
 - One sophomore class representative, if applicable.
 - Class representatives will be selected by general nomination and voted on at the DREAM meeting prior to elections.
 - All applications for the Executive Committee will be reviewed by the Election Committee.
 - A slate of members selected for the offices will be selected by the Election Committee and presented to the members for approval.
 - The slate will be presented to the DREAM community at large.
 - The president will present the slate and will field only general questions.
 - The slate must approve $\frac{2}{3}$ majority vote of the membership in good standing.
 - In the event the slate is not passed, the Elections Committee will redo the slating process in its entirety.
- Officer Duties:
 1. President
 - a. Preside over all DREAM meetings.
 - b. Serve as a representative of the organization to all formal functions and to the administration as well as to the Student Diversity Council.
 - c. Be present at all DREAM events.
 - d. Main communication with organization advisor.
 - e. Delegate any task and oversee its completion.
 2. Vice President
 - a. Preside over DREAM meetings in absence of the president.
 - b. Schedule meetings and events with appropriate university offices.
 - c. Coordinate with president in the promotion and publicity of the club sponsored events.

3. Treasurer

- a. Work with the Student Government Association and Student Diversity Council to annually request funding and subsequently submit proper paperwork and receipts for reimbursement.
- b. Develop a budget.
- c. Maintain accurate record of organization transactions.
- d. Cosign organization check with the advisor.

4. Secretary

- a. Take minutes during all meetings and make it available to the executive board.
- b. Keep a record of attendance for meetings and of members' participation.
- c. Maintain member directory.

- Vacancy of Offices

- In the event of a vacant office (due to resignation or inability to serve), the process of filling the vacancy shall be as follows:

- Office of President

- The Vice-President assumes the post of President.
 - The Executive Committee appoints a new Vice President.

- All other offices

- The Executive Committee will appoint a member to fill the position.

- Removal of Officers

- The Executive Committee is responsible for discerning if termination is necessary for those who do not fulfill their responsibilities as a DREAM officer.

- In this case, the committee must come to a unanimous decision to terminate the officer with the advisor providing the vote in place of the officer in question.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

- The advisor is the current Testing and Accessibility Coordinator for the Student Office for Accessibility Resources (SOAR).

Article IV: Committees

- Executive Committee
 - The Executive Committee is responsible for planning and arranging all meetings and events.
 - The Executive Committee must meet monthly, at minimum, and as needed in addition to the required member meetings.

Article V: Rules of Order

- General Meetings
 - Anyone is welcome to offer their suggestions and ideas at any point.
 - Decisions that require a vote will be done through online means.
- Executive committee meetings
 - Most major decisions require a majority vote.

- Removal of a member or officer requires a unanimous vote from the executive committee.
- Internal conflicts
 - If an internal conflict cannot be resolved by the parties involved, it will be brought to the attention of the executive committee and discussed in a formal setting.
 - If an internal conflict cannot be resolved through meeting with the executive committee, the issue can be brought to the attention of the DREAM advisor.

Article VI: Amendments

- Any member can propose amendments and/or revisions to this constitution and its bylaws during a meeting. Amendments and/or revisions shall become part of this document after a 2/3 vote of approval by its present members.