

Constitution of Furman Fanatics

Article I. Name

The formal name of this organization will be “Furman Fanatics”.

Article II. Purpose

Furman Fanatics will serve as an official student "spirit" section. The group's goal is to increase student attendance and participation at all Furman sporting events, improving the atmosphere and student involvement.

Article III. Affiliations

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV. Membership

Furman Fanatics is open to any member of the Furman community. In keeping with Furman University’s non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V. Leadership Team

Section 1. Executive Board

The executive board will consist of the following offices: President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. All positions have a yearlong term. Officers will be required to have been a member for at least one year and have proven their involvement and dedication to the organization.

Section 2. Representatives

Along with these executive board members, the Furman Fanatics leadership team may consist of at least one representative from every class and a number of representatives from other spirit organizations. These include: Furman Cheer, Furman Dance Team, Furman Bands, and Purple Diamonds. These organizations will be at liberty to determine their individual level of involvement, but we hope that inclusion of these groups will allow for joint collaboration at Furman sporting events.

Article VI. Advisor

The executive board members will select the advisor of the Furman Fanatics. Our advisor will guide us as an organization and aid in discussion and collaboration with the Furman Athletics Department.

Article VII. Meetings

The leadership team, which consists of the executive board and representatives, will meet once a month to discuss upcoming events and address any concerns. This time can also be used to plan ahead and develop new ways we can garner student involvement at athletics events. The time, date, and location of these meetings will be determined by the executive board every semester.

Article VIII. Finances

The Treasurer shall submit a budget request, approved by the Executive Board, to SGA during the end of the school year. We will not charge dues to our members. Our funding will be used to fund purchases for member apparel and incentives for students to attend athletics events.

Article IX. Amendments

The Executive Board may amend the Constitution as seen fit through a majority agreement. This includes all articles and sections.

Bylaws of the Furman Fanatics

Article I. Membership

All students are welcome to become members of Furman Fanatics, and participation at events is voluntary. Membership requires no application, selection, or financial obligation and is open to the entire student body. As all events are voluntary, members will not be at risk of removal from the organization.

Article II. Selection of Officers

Section 1. Selection, Vacancy, and Removal

The former President will appoint officers for the following year's executive board. This decision will be made in an unbiased manner based on the participation and involvement of members during the previous year. The President will follow the same procedure to fill a position in the event of a vacancy. Officers will be removed from their positions if they fail to complete the duties listed below and/or do not attend meetings.

Section 2. Duties

The President shall:

- a. Oversee the discipline of the organization's members.
- b. Manage the organization's social media presence.
- c. Work closely with the advisor and Furman Athletics Department as needed.

The Vice President shall:

- a. Keep track of membership numbers and member information.

The Treasurer shall:

- a. Create and manage the budget for the organization.
- b. Manage financial documents for the organization.

The Secretary shall:

- a. Manage any nonfinancial documents for the organization.
- b. Oversee the organization's internal communications.

Article III. Selection of Advisor

The Executive Board will select the organization's advisor. Removing the advisor, when warranted, will require picking a new advisor that can still uphold the responsibilities outlined in Article VI. of the Constitution.

Article IV. Rules of Order

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee.

Article V. Amendments

The Executive Board may amend the Bylaws as seen fit through a majority agreement. This includes all articles and sections.
