

CONSTITUTION OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY'S FISH AND FLY CLUB

Article I - Name

The formal name of this organization shall be The Furman University Fish and Fly Club.

This organization name may be abbreviated and/or referred to as FU FFC.

Article II - Purpose

The purpose of The Furman University Fish and Fly Club is to promote fishing and fly fishing as a form of outdoor recreation and to bring together students and faculty to provide opportunities to learn about fishing and to develop a conservation ethic.

Article III: Affiliations

This club will be part of Trout Unlimited's 5 Rivers College outreach program and will participate in conservation projects and fishing excursions. Trout Unlimited's mission is to protect, reconnect, and restore North America's cold-water fisheries and their watersheds.

Article IV - Membership

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Membership is open to all Furman University students, however, if dues are required then full benefits will not be awarded to those who do not pay. Membership will be revoked by 1/2 vote of officers plus 3/4 vote from the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. A one hundred percent vote from the officers may also revoke someone's membership.

Article V - Officers

Section I.

The President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer shall make up the Executive Committee of the organization. The Executive Committee shall meet in addition to regular organizational meetings. Aside from standing committees for Publicity and Project/Trips, the Executive Committee shall appoint such committees as are needed to carry out other organizational goals such as fundraising, banquets, and recruitment.

Section II.

Election of officers will require a majority vote from the executive committee. Officers will be nominated by the general membership and are required to be members in good standing within the organization. The election of officers will be held during a executive committee meeting where "Election of Officers" is listed as an item of business on the agenda and the agenda has been distributed to executive committee at least one week prior to the meeting date. If a candidate fails to receive a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held between the top two candidates that received the most votes.

Section III.

The term of office will be one full year (beginning in April). In the event that an officer is unable to complete their term of office, a special election will be held to replace them for the remainder of their term (through the following April).

Officers may be removed from office by 1/2 vote of the other officers and 3/4 of the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. The officer is permitted to speak before the Executive Committee and the general membership about the charges made concerning his/her performance. The officer is not permitted to participate in the deliberation of the Executive Committee regarding the charges.

Article VI - Advisor

The advisor shall be a full-time faculty or staff member at Furman University. The advisor will assume those responsibilities as outlined in this section of this constitution.

The advisor shall be actively involved in the sport of fly fishing, take an interest in participating in trips and activities, and conform to the general goals and principles of the club as listed in the purpose statement. The advisor will attend meetings when they can and provide guidance for the members and officers of the club.

Advisors not fulfilling responsibilities or abiding by the organization's purpose may be removed from the position by a 1/2 vote of the Executive Committee. A new advisor will be selected by a 1/2 vote of the Executive Committee and then presented to the general membership for a 3/4 vote.

Article VII - Meetings

Section I.

The organization shall hold regular meetings during the academic term except when holidays, examination periods or other events make meeting impractical. Organization meeting day/time will be determined in the beginning of each semester by a 3/4 vote of the general membership.

Attendance at organization meetings is expected but not required. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the membership plus one officer.

Section II.

A special meeting may be called by a petition of the general membership. This petition must be submitted in writing to the Secretary of the organization and be signed by a simple majority of the members of the organization.

Article VIII - Finance

Section I.

The organization may establish reasonable dues that must be paid by all members. The amount of the dues will be determined in the beginning of the academic year by the Executive Committee and presented to the general membership for a 3/4 vote. Dues must be paid by a date determined at the beginning of each semester. The treasurer shall maintain all financial records and shall countersign with the president for all organization transactions.

Section II.

All money belonging to this organization shall be deposited and disbursed through a bank account established for this organization at the appropriate university-designated financial institution.

Article IX - Amendments

Amendments to this constitution must be submitted in writing to the Secretary at a regular meeting of the organization. Said amendment(s) will be voted on at a subsequent meeting. In order to adopt the amendment, a vote of 2/3 of the general membership is necessary. The new constitution then must be accepted by Furman University before ratification.

BYLAWS OF FURMAN UNIVERSITY'S FLY FISHING CLUB

Article I: Membership

Section I.

Membership is open to all to all Furman University undergraduate, day students. Each membership will have the same rights. However, if dues are required then full benefits will not be awarded to those who do not pay.

Section II

The application process for membership into The Furman University Fly Fishing club includes contacting a current member in order to come to the next meeting time. The potential member will then gain acceptance after introducing themselves and explaining why they want to join the club. No voting process shall take place. All Furman University undergraduate, day students are eligible for membership.

Section III.

The requirements for membership into FU FFC are to have a minimum GPA of 2.0. Additionally, if dues are required, then full benefits will not be awarded to those who do not pay.

Section IV.

Membership will be revoked by 1/2 vote of officers plus 3/4 vote from the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. A one hundred percent vote from the officers may also revoke someone's membership.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Section I.

1. Election of officers will require a majority vote from the current executive committee. Officers will be nominated by the general membership and are required to be members in good standing within the organization. Officers are also required to be full-time, registered students of Furman University. The election of officers will be held during a regular executive meeting where "Election of Officers" is listed as an item of business on the agenda and the agenda has been distributed to the executive committee at least one week prior to the meeting date.
2. If a candidate fails to receive a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held between the top two candidates that received the most votes. The term of office will be one full year (beginning in April). In the event that an officer is unable to complete their term of office, a special election will be held to replace them for the remainder of their term (through the following April).
3. Votes shall be cast by secret ballot; however, when there is only one candidate for an office, a motion may be made to elect the candidate.

Section II.

The primary duties of each office are:

1. The President shall organize and lead chapter meetings, ensure that the organization is operating in conformity with the standards set forth by Furman University, cosign organization checks, maintain communication with faculty advisor, TU chapter liaison, and the 5 Rivers Coordinator, and either serve as the Costa Ambassador or elect one.
2. The Vice President shall lead meetings in the absence of the President, schedule meetings/events with appropriate University offices, and lead club recruitment on campus.
3. The Treasurer shall maintain accurate record of organization transactions, collect dues if required, develop organization budget and present to membership for 3/4 vote, cosign organization checks, arrange fundraising opportunities for the organization, and solicit additional funding if needed from the Student Government Association in conjunction with the President.
4. The Secretary shall be responsible for all advertising and promotions of the club's events and social gatherings (including social media, school newspaper, fliers, banners, etc), maintain membership directory, with emails and phone numbers, maintain an accurate record of all organization meetings and post for members, work closely with club Vice President to advertise club to incoming class of students for recruitment purposes, promote relationship with local TU chapter and assist with creating articles about conservation projects and fishing trips, maintain club social media pages and submit material to TU's for the national 5 Rivers Social Media pages and the TU blog.

The President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer, shall comprise the Executive Committee of the organization. The Executive Committee shall meet in addition to regular organizational meetings. Aside from standing committees for Publicity and Project/Trips, the Executive Committee shall appoint such committees as are needed to carry out other organizational goals such as fundraising, banquets, and recruitment.

Section III.

Procedure in the event of a vacancy:

1. In case of resignation or removal of any officer, an interim acting officer shall be appointed by the Executive Committee.
2. The President shall call for an election soon after the vacancy appeared.
3. Elections shall be conducted as stated in the bylaws.
4. Should the office of President become vacant, the Vice-President should complete the President's unexpired term and call for an election for Vice-President consistent with elections process set forth in the bylaws.

Section IV.

Process for removing an officer from position:

Officers may be removed from office by 1/2 vote of the other officers and 3/4 of the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. The officer is permitted to speak before the Executive Committee and the general membership about the charges made concerning his/her performance. The officer is not permitted to participate in the deliberation of the Executive Committee regarding the changes.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor shall be a full time faculty or staff member at Furman University. The advisor will assume those responsibilities as outlined in this constitution and/or found in University Policies. The advisor shall be actively involved in the sport of fly fishing, take an interest in participating in trips and activities, and conform to the general goals and principles of the club as listed in the purpose statement. The advisor will attend meetings when they can and provide guidance for the members and officers of the club.

1. Advisors in FU FFC are selected by a majority vote from the general membership. Advisors will be nominated by the general membership. The election of an advisor will be held during a regular organization meeting where "Election of Advisor" is listed as an item of business on the agenda and the agenda has been distributed to the general membership at least one week prior to the meeting date.
2. If a candidate fails to receive a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held between the top two candidates that received the most votes. The term of office will be one full year (beginning in April). In the event that an advisor is unable to complete their term of office, a special election will be held to replace them for the remainder of their term (through the following April).
3. Votes shall be cast by secret ballot; however, when there is only one candidate for an office, a motion may be made to elect the candidate.
4. Advisor may be removed from office by 1/2 vote of officers and 3/4 of the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. The advisor is permitted to speak before the Executive Committee and the general membership about the charges made concerning his/her performance. The advisor is not permitted to participate in the deliberation of the Executive Committee regarding the changes.

Article IV: Committees

Elections:

1. Election of officers will require a majority vote from the executive committee. Officers will be nominated by the general membership and are required to be members in good standing within the organization. Officers are also required to be full-time, registered students of Furman University. The election of officers will be held during a regular organization meeting where "Election of Officers" is listed as an item of business on the agenda and the agenda has been distributed to the executive committee at least one week prior to the meeting date.
2. If a candidate fails to receive a majority of votes, a runoff election will be held between the top two candidates that received the most votes. The term of office will be one full year (beginning in April). In the event that an officer is unable to complete their term of office, a special election will be held to replace them for the remainder of their term (through the following April).

3. Votes shall be cast by secret ballot; however, when there is only one candidate for an office, a motion may be made to elect the candidate.

Executive Committee:

1. The President, Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, and TU Communications Chair shall comprise the Executive Committee of the organization.
2. The Executive Committee shall meet in addition to regular organizational meetings. Aside from standing committees for Publicity and Project/Trips, the Executive Committee shall appoint such committees as are needed to carry out other organizational goals such as fundraising, banquets, and recruitment.
3. The Executive Committee shall have general supervision of the affairs of the organization between meetings and is authorized to take action when action must be taken prior to the next meeting.

Section IV

Section V

3

Section VI

department. Advisors not fulfilling responsibilities or abiding by the organization's purpose may be removed from the position by a 1/2 vote of the Executive Committee. A new advisor will be selected by a 1/2 vote of the Executive Committee and then presented to the general membership for a 3/4 vote.

2.

Meetings and Voting:

1. The organization shall hold regular meetings during the academic term except when holidays, examination periods or other events make meeting impractical. Organization meeting day/time will be determined in the beginning of each semester by a 3/4 vote of the general membership.
2. Attendance is expected but not required. A quorum shall consist of a simple majority of the membership plus one officer.
3. Members must be present and in good standing to vote.

Finances:

1. The organization may establish reasonable dues that must be paid by all members. The amount of the dues will be determined in the beginning of the academic year by the Executive Committee and presented to the general membership for a 3/4 vote. Dues must be paid by a date determined at the beginning of each semester. The treasurer shall maintain all financial records and shall countersign with the president for all organization transactions.

2. All monies belonging to this organization shall be deposited and disbursed through a bank account established for this organization at the appropriate university-designated financial institution.

Section VII

Section VIII Discipline of members:

a. Membership in this organization is open to all UNC-Chapel Hill students and will not be restricted on the basis of age, disability, ethnicity, gender, national origin, race, color, religion, veteran status, sexual orientation or political affiliation.

4

Section IX

Section X

Section XI

b. Membership is open to all UNC-Chapel Hill students, however, if dues are required then full benefits will not be awarded to those who do not pay. Membership will be revoked by 1/2 vote of officers plus 3/4 vote from the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. A one hundred percent vote from the officers may also revoke someone's membership.

Dissolution:

a. Upon the dissolution of the organization for any reason, all work, funds, and property controlled by the organization will be distributed fairly to the members under discretion of the Club President.

Non-Hazing and Discrimination Clause:

1. The laws of the State of North Carolina concerning hazing shall be followed.
2. The organization also abides by the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill's Non-Discrimination Policy for Student Organizations.

Impeachment:

a. Officers may be removed from office by 1/2 vote of the other officers and 3/4 of the general membership if actions are deemed inappropriate by the membership. The officer is permitted to Speak before the Executive Committee and the general membership about the charges made concerning his/her performance. The officer is not permitted to participate in the deliberation of the Executive Committee regarding the charges.

Vacancy of Office:

1. In case of resignation or removal of any officer, an interim acting officer shall be appointed by the Executive Committee.
2. The President shall call for an election soon after the vacancy appeared.
3. Elections shall be conducted as stated in the bylaws.
4. Should the office of President become vacant, the Vice-President should complete the President's unexpired term and call for an election for Vice-President consistent with elections process set forth in the bylaws.

Amendments:

a. Amendments to these bylaws must be submitted in writing to the Secretary at a regular meeting of the organization. Said amendment(s)

Section XII

Section XIII

5

will be voted on at a subsequent meeting. In order to adopt the amendment, a vote of 2/3 of the general membership is necessary.

6