

CONSTITUTION

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University East European and Eurasian Student Association.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of Furman University East European and Eurasian Student Association shall be 1) to provide an environment for people of similar cultures and backgrounds to get together, and 2) to share insights about East European and Eurasian countries with other interested Furman students, which would contribute to global competence skills and foster a more inclusive community.

Article III: Affiliations

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

Any Furman student, interested in learning more about East European and Eurasian countries, is eligible for membership.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

The officer/leadership titles are: President, Vice President, Treasurer

The qualifications to serve as an officer include leadership skills, active membership, commitment to the mission of the association, cultural awareness, experience (optional).

The term of each office should be no more than 2 years.

Article VI: Advisor

The general relationship of the advisor to the organization is to serve as a mentor and a guide, help connect the organisation to University resources, and navigate challenges, such as conflicts, if necessary.

Article VII: Meetings

The organization meetings will be held depending on the planning of events. In general, meetings will be held once or twice a month.

Article VIII: Finance

The organization will receive funding from Furman University.

Active members are not expected to pay any dues.

Article IX: Amendments

The process for amending the constitution includes meeting of the organization (in person or online), discussion of amendments, and voting in favor or against the amendments.

One person has one vote, and results are determined by a simple majority of votes.