

Constitution and Bylaws of Furman University's Health Majors Club (2024-2025)

ARTICLE I - Name

This organization shall be known as the Furman University Health Majors Club.

ARTICLE II - Purpose

Section 1 - The Furman University Health Majors Club is dedicated to educating and informing prospective and declared students in health-related majors about potential careers and graduate/professional school opportunities. The Health Majors Club also exists to facilitate peer mentorship through our various events and will seek to empower our members to become well-informed and proactive contributors to the field of health. These purposes shall be accomplished by:

- A. Hosting at least 4 Health Majors Club meetings each semester (monthly, in person)
- B. Hosting at least 2 academic events each semester
 - a. Course registration help (fall + spring) [in-person]
- C. Hosting a campus-wide event annually (open to all!)
- D. Hosting an end-of-year event (club members only)
- E. Facilitating T-shirt and sticker design and sales annually

ARTICLE III - Membership

Section 1 - The Health Majors Club is open to all students who are prospective or declared in health-related majors at Furman University.

Section 2 - To be considered a member of the Health Majors Club, one must:

- A. Attend at least one Health Majors Club meeting each year (in-person)
- B. Become a member of the Health Majors Club on SyncDin
- C. Join club GroupMe

ARTICLE IV - Officers

Section 1 - Officers are to be elected at the beginning of the spring semester and will serve until election in the following year.

Section 2 - Responsibilities of all officers will include:

1. President/Senior Class Representative:

Meeting Coordination: Schedule and preside over regular club meetings, setting agendas, and facilitating discussions, maintain communication with the Health Majors Club Advisor, Officers and Members, provide strong, visionary leadership to the club, setting the tone for the organization's activities and goals, oversee the day-to-day operations and activities of the club, ensuring that all members are working together effectively, coordinate T-shirt and sticker design and sales

2. President-Elect/Junior Class Representative:

Collaborate with community members to facilitate campus-wide events, assist the President with other administrative tasks as needed, Produce and distribute materials applicable to club members, such as flyers about upcoming events, handouts pertaining to club information, and more. Handle all brand and organization collaborations as a point person from the President to members.

3. Secretary:

Responsible for all Health Majors Club communication (GroupMe + email), act as a point of contact for members, answering questions and managing correspondences when necessary. Record what was done at club meetings, including attendance.

4. Treasurer:

Maintain all budget and reporting duties for the Health Majors Club, coordinate T-shirt and sticker design and sales, responsible for determining costs of events and delivering payments and correctly making purchases for meetings and event

5. Sub-Committee Chairs (Pre-PT/OT/ST, Pre-Medical, etc.):

Determine the needs of sub-committee members, facilitate communication with sub-committee members, collaborate with Officers regarding the following:

- i. Meeting Agendas
- ii. Sub-Committee specific events/activities

ARTICLE V - Election Procedures

Section 1 - All officers shall be elected in adherence to the following outlined procedures.

A. Time:

a. Nominations for office are to be held prior to elections at the spring semester meeting of the Health Majors Club. Elections for office will be held following nominations for office at the fall semester meeting of the Health Majors Club.

B. Nominations:

a. The advisor and President of the Health Majors Club shall open the floor for nominations for each vacant position before each is elected. All nominations must be verbally accepted by the nominated individual before the name will be placed on the list of nominees. Therefore, all nominees must be present at the meeting to be considered for nomination.

One can be nominated to more than one office, but one can only be elected to one office.

C. Elections:

Elections are to be chaired by the advisor and President of the Health Majors Club.

The order of officer elections shall follow the order outlined in the previous article of this constitution. To win the election, one must receive an absolute majority of the votes.

There will be run-off elections, if necessary.

ARTICLE VI - Meetings

Section 1 - There shall be a meeting scheduled monthly (4 per semester) based on the academic calendar as selected by the faculty advisor and officers of the Health Majors Club.

Section 2 - The basic agenda at meetings shall follow:

- A. Member attendance (sign-in with QR code)
- B. Faculty advisor remarks (if necessary)
- C. Officer reports
- D. Final announcements
- E. Adjournment