

Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals Constitution and Bylaws

Constitution:

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals shall be to support its members on their paths to healthcare-related professions in the following ways:

- a. Foster programs and activities which will develop:
 1. Physical, mental and social well-being of the individual
 2. Leadership, character and citizenship
 3. Ethical practices and respect for the dignity of work.
- b. Foster self-actualization of each member which contributes to meeting the individual's psychological, social and economic needs.
- c. Build the confidence of students in themselves and their work by providing opportunities to assume responsibilities and by developing personal and occupational competencies and social skills that lead to realistic choices of careers and successful employment in the healthcare field.
- d. Promote inter-organizational relationships with professional groups, businesses, industries and other organizations.
- e. Recognize individual achievement in scholarship, occupational skills or services rendered, by providing recognition and awards.
- f. Promote involvement in current healthcare issues, environmental concerns and survival needs of the community, the nation and the world.

Article III: Affiliations

Our organization will be affiliated with Furman University's Office of Pre-Health advising. We will also be affiliated with HOSA on the state and national levels. Both SC HOSA and National HOSA will provide us with opportunities on a larger scale, and provide support when needed, whilst still allowing us to operate our chapter how we see fit.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

Section 1:

This chapter is open to all students interested in healthcare at Furman University and to all students who plan to pursue a health career.

Section 2:

- National members: Membership is unified on the state and national level. Membership is established by the payment of membership dues ($25 per year).
- University members: Members who do not pay dues will be eligible for membership of Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals, but will not be members on the state or national level, and will not have the opportunity to compete in the State Leadership Conference.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

Our officers shall consist of the following:

- President: The President shall preside over all members and officers. They will oversee all organization operations and assist all other officers. They will also be in communication with SC and National HOSA.
- Vice President: The Vice President will support the President in any necessary way. The Vice President will also be in charge of promoting and organizing members' participation in the State Leadership Conference and the International Leadership Conference.
- Treasurer: The treasurer will be in charge of all funds of the organization. They will be in charge of collecting dues from national members and coordinate with SC and National HOSA in order to grant state and national memberships. They will also coordinate with the SGA treasurer regarding funding for our organization. They will keep a very detailed record of all monetary collections and spendings of the organization. This role will be assumed by the President if the role is not filled or is vacated.

- Secretary: The secretary will take minutes during meetings, and send these minutes out to members. They will also send out monthly emails to members, including upcoming events in HOSA and the greater Furman healthcare community. They will also be in charge of keeping our SyncDin, Instagram, and other social medias up to date. They will also keep a record of all members. This role will be assumed by the Vice President if the role is not filled or is vacated.
- Events Coordinator: The events coordinator will plan meetings, with the support of the President and Vice President. They will be in charge of reaching out to speakers for meetings. They will also be in charge of planning one CLP each year. This role will be assumed by the Vice President if the role is not filled or is vacated.

The term of each officer position shall be one academic year. National members who are interested in serving as an officer for the following year will have the opportunity to submit an application for their position of interest the Spring of the year prior. The officers will then select a maximum of two applicants they view as most qualified for each position, and these applicants will be voted between by the national members of the organization. The applicant who receives the majority of votes for each position will be selected to fill that position. The president of the organization should be a national member who served as an officer during the previous academic year, unless no officers from the year prior are capable of taking on the role.

If the other officers or national members feel that an officer needs to be removed from their office, the President, advisor, and officer in question shall meet to discuss the concerns. Then, if necessary, the officers and national members should privately vote on removing the officer from their position.

Article VI: Advisor

Our advisor will provide support to the officer team in order to make the organization run smoothly. The advisor may also share opportunities in the healthcare field for the general benefit of the members. The advisor will not participate in any voting, nor make any decisions for the organization.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings for Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals will be held once a month, with additional opportunities outside of meetings, as well as additional preparational meetings closer to competing in the State Leadership Conference.

Article VIII: Finance

National members will pay $25 annually for membership on the state and national level. We also hope to receive additional funding from SGA for necessary spendings.

Article IX: Amendments

The constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote of national members at any meeting, provided the amendment has been proposed by a national member or an officer. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing at least ten days prior to a meeting, in order to allow the officers to prepare for voting.

BYLAWS:

Article I: Membership

This chapter is open to all students interested in healthcare at Furman University and to all students who plan to pursue a health career. There will be no formal application process, as we want everyone who is interested to be able to join. Members will be removed if the officer team feels it is necessary to remove them for the betterment of the chapter. The president, member in question, and advisor will meet to discuss the best plan of action.

Levels of Membership:

- National members: Membership is unified on the state and national level. Membership is established by the payment of membership dues ($25 per year). These members will be members on the state and national levels of HOSA, and will receive the benefits of this affiliation. They will also have the opportunity to participate and compete in the State and International Leadership Conferences.
- University members: Members who do not pay dues will be eligible for membership of Furman University HOSA - Future Health Professionals, but will not be members on the state or national level, and will not have the opportunity to compete in the State Leadership Conference. They will be able to participate in any and all meetings and activities that are specific to our Furman University chapter. University members will not be eligible for officer positions.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Our officers shall consist of the following:

- President: The President shall preside over all members and officers. They will oversee all organization operations and assist all other officers. They will also be in communication with SC and National HOSA.
- Vice President: The Vice President will support the President in any necessary way. The Vice President will also be in charge of promoting and organizing members' participation in the State Leadership Conference and the International Leadership Conference.
- Treasurer: The treasurer will be in charge of all funds of the organization. They will be in charge of collecting dues from national members and coordinate with SC and National HOSA in order to grant state and national memberships. They will also coordinate with the SGA treasurer regarding funding for our organization. They will keep a very detailed record of all monetary collections and spendings of the organization. This role will be assumed by the President if the role is not filled or is vacated.
- Secretary: The secretary will take minutes during meetings, and send these minutes out to members. They will also send out monthly emails to members, including upcoming events in HOSA and the greater Furman healthcare community. They will also be in charge of keeping our SyncDin, Instagram, and other social medias up to date. They will also keep a record of all members. This role will be assumed by the Vice President if the role is not filled or is vacated.

- Events Coordinator: The events coordinator will plan meetings, with the support of the President and Vice President. They will be in charge of reaching out to speakers for meetings. They will also be in charge of planning one CLP each year. This role will be assumed by the Vice President if the role is not filled or is vacated.

The term of each officer position shall be one academic year. National members who are interested in serving as an officer for the following year will have the opportunity to submit an application for their position of interest the Spring of the year prior. The officers will then select a maximum of two applicants they view as most qualified for each position, and these applicants will be voted between by the national members of the organization. The applicant who receives the majority of votes for each position will be selected to fill that position. The president of the organization should be a national member who served as an officer during the previous academic year, unless no officers from the year prior are capable of taking on the role.

If the other officers or national members feel that an officer needs to be removed from their office, the President, advisor, and officer in question shall meet to discuss the concerns. Then, if necessary, the officers and national members should privately vote on removing the officer from their position.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor shall be selected for the next academic year by the incoming and outgoing officer team. If the officers unanimously agree that the advisor needs to be removed, they may do so, and begin working to find a new advisor immediately.

Article IV: Committees

If any officer feels that they need a committee or chair to help them with their duties, they shall discuss this with the other officers. If the other officers agree that this is necessary, the officer in need of a committee may send a committee application to all national members and form a committee with these applications.

Article V: Rules of Order

The officers will come together to decide how certain conflicts will be resolved, differing depending on the issue. Their main goal will be to support the organization and its members, and to ensure it is functioning in the best way possible. If any members are seen as preventing the organization from functioning properly, the officers may use their authority to remove the members from the organization.

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote of national members at any meeting, provided the amendment has been proposed by a national member or an officer. Proposed amendments must be submitted in writing at least ten days prior to a meeting, in order to allow the officers to prepare for voting.