

Furman chapter of American Choral Directors Association (ACDA)

Article I:

The formal name of this organization will be FUACDA (Furman University American Choral Directors Association)

Article II:

The organization will serve to enrich the lives of Furman students interested in vocal ensembles and Choral Music Education by providing students with professional development workshops, opportunities to travel to conferences and conventions, and networking with other past, current and future choral directors, with the end goal of enriching the lives of students interested in/involvement in choral activities.

Article III: Affiliations

This chapter of student ACDA is affiliated with Furman's Department of Music and Education Studies, and is a part of national ACDA.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

All current undergraduate students at Furman University are eligible to join.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

The officer titles will be as follows:

- President: Student must be a 3rd or 4th year and have been on FUACDA executive council the year prior
- Vice President: Student must be a 3rd or 4th year
- Treasurer: Available to all members
- Secretary: Available to all members
- Public Relations: Available to all members

Officers must have a minimum GPA of 3.0

Positions will be held for a year before being open to re-election. Members may not serve in the same position for more than 2 years.

Elections for President & Vice President will be held in April, prior to summer break. Elections for Treasurer, Secretary, and Public Relations will be held in October, prior to fall break.

Article VI: Advisor

Our advisor's relationship to the club will be to give advice on university policy and funding, as well as facilitate communication with national ACDA, other faculty members at Furman, and possible invited guests.

Article VII: Meetings

Meeting times will be decided at the beginning of each semester and may change depending on member scheduling.

Article VIII: Finance

We will request funds from SGA every year, as well as external fundraising (e.g. bake sales, events). Dues for each member will be $25 per year paid by the third week of the academic year.

Article IX: Amendments

In order to amend the constitution, the student must tell the executive board that they have an idea for an amendment to the constitution, and the changes must be approved by the majority of the club.

Bylaws

Article I: Membership

In order to join FUACDA, the student interested MUST:

- Have or an active student ACDA membership. Members who join the club without an active membership must obtain a National student membership in the first 2 weeks of their entrance to FUACDA.
- Pay their dues ($25) within the first three weeks of the academic year, or in extenuating circumstances, by the second week of September
- Have a minimum 3.0 GPA
- Be enrolled at Furman University as an undergraduate day student

If a student has not paid their dues within a month, has not come to a meeting in over 1 semester, or if they receive a student conduct code violation, the board will meet with the student to decide whether or not to expel the student from the chapter. The board will vote, and if the majority of the board decides to remove the student, they will be removed from the chapter effective immediately.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Officers will be chosen by way of Google form and facilitated by the Faculty Advisor. Each individual will answer the form once; only the faculty advisor will have access to the answers.

- President: Will facilitate events, meetings, will work to find and invite guests, and generally oversee the workings of FUACDA. The president will work closely with the advisor to make sure that trips are feasible.
- Vice President: Will come up with ideas for fundraising events and group outings. Vice President will also work on logistics and planning of attending conventions and professional development opportunities.
- Treasurer: Will oversee the orgs' funds and budget, as well as plan budgets for trips, meals and events, as well as other incurred costs. The treasurer will have access, along with the advisor, to the orgs' bank account.
- Secretary: Will take notes on meetings and send a bi-weekly email with notes from the President, Vice President and Treasurer, along with reminders from the treasurer and advisor as needed. The Secretary will also reserve rooms for meeting times & other events.
- Public Relations: Will manage the orgs' social media accounts and take photos of all events, workshops, and outings. Must be proficient in editing software and technology.

In the event of a sudden vacancy, there will be a vote to decide on the replacement of the officer.

To remove an officer from a position, there must be reasonable factual evidence that the officer has either a) not been fulfilling the responsibilities of their job or b) there is reasonable evidence to suggest that the student is not upholding the values and reputation of the student ACDA chapter.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

To select an advisor, the candidate must:

- Be a faculty member at Furman University in the music department
- Be a member of National ACDA
- Be knowledgeable of the procedures and events of national ACDA

In order to remove an advisor, there must be reasonable concern on behalf of all officers that the advisor is unable to perform their job.

In order to remove an advisor:

- ALL officers must agree that the advisor is unable to perform their job with a unanimous vote
- ALL officers must vote to remove the advisor with a unanimous vote
- There must be a replacement willing to step in effective immediately

Article IV: Committees

Committees will be established based on reasonable need. Committees will be established:

- To organize and execute events and fundraisers
- To work in tandem with the Vice President to establish logistics of attending events outside of the Greenville area

In order to establish an ad-hoc committee, there must be approval and recognition of need from the President and Vice President.

Article V: Rules of Order

Business will be conducted in a respectful, timely and organized manner. Members will raise their hands to speak or bring a new idea to the table, and will be recognized by any member on the exec board to speak. At any point, if any exec member feels that there is any sign of disrespect toward others during conversation, the board reserves the right to intervene in the conversation.

Internal conflicts are expected to be resolved by the individuals involved. If conflicts begin to interrupt the functioning of the organization, the executive board reserves the right to enact disciplinary measures (i.e. exclusion from events, probation, or expulsion.)

Article VI: Amendments

In order to amend the constitution, the proposed amendment must be brought up in a general meeting and have the support of the majority of the group.
