

Furman Disc Golf (FUDG) Constitution

Article I: Name

- a. The name of the club will be Furman University Disc Golf. The acronym FUDG would also be used.

Article II: Club Purpose

- a. The purpose of the club is to provide a social, friendly, and possibly competitive platform for students who want to, or already play disc golf. Disc golf is a small, but rapidly growing spot with an extremely welcoming, friendly, and tight knit community especially in the city of Greenville.

Article III: Affiliations

- a. FUDG currently does not have any affiliations with any other organizations.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Qualifications for Membership of FUDG

- a. To become a member of Furman Disc Golf, (FUDG) one must be a full-time student, join the SyncDyn, and join the GroupMe.
- b. A member must partake in the weekly meets when they are available and communicate in the GroupMe. One does not need to be experienced in the sport to have fun!

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

- a. President: AJ Leary
- b. Vice President: Tristan Hoyt
- c. Secretary: Arjun Shukul

- d. Treasurer: Brad Matthias
- e. Each officer must attend a weekly meeting for just officers.
- f. The role of the president is to manage the GroupMe, and weekly meets by communicating through the GroupMe as well as decide which course we will meet at.
- g. The role of the vice president is to help the president, or secretary with their tasks when needed. The vice president can do a little of everything if need be. It is suggested that the vice president pays close attention since they will likely be the next president.
- h. The role of the secretary is to keep all of the important files (like this document, and the official list of members) somewhere safe and updated. The secretary will also manage the social media account.
- i. The role of the treasurer is to manage the funds for the club, and spend them in the best interests of the club.
- j. To serve as an officer you must be an active member, run, and be appointed by the sitting officers. If the officers are not able to select a current member for each position, then the club will host an election
- k. To be eligible to run in the election one must have attended at least 40% of meetings in the past school year. (Around 24 events in a typical school year)
- l. To vote in the election, one must have attended at least 30% of meetings in the past school year. (Around 18 events in a typical school year)
- m. Each term starts at the start of the fall semester and ends at the end of the following spring semester.

Article VI: Advisor

- a. The relationship the advisor holds with the organization is to be a reliable contact when officers are in need of advice on a topic.

Article VII: Meetings

- a. Meetings or “rounds” will be held weekly during the weekend, the specific day, time, and place will be decided by officers.
- b. There may be other kinds of meetings where the club meets to discuss plans for the semester, or practices that serve to just improve members skills.

Article VIII: Finance

- a. The organization will receive funding from the student government, but there are possibilities of sponsorship from outside sources such as local shops if we gain enough influence.
- b. Members are not expected to pay dues, but it is encouraged for members to buy their own discs if they want to belong to them and only them.

Article IX: Amendments

- a. The process for amending this constitution will be through voting if the suggested change is not immediately approved ~~or denied~~ by officers.

Bylaws

Section I: Membership

- a. There are different categories of membership, but that mostly depends on involvement such as active members, voting members, officers, or even team members if we start to compete as a club instead of individuals in a tournament.
- b. The application process includes joining the GroupMe and SyncDin
- c. The process for removing a member will be to simply remove them from the SyncDin roster and GroupMe.
- d. To be considered an “active” member one must attend at least 30% of meetings.
- e. To be considered an “voting” member one must attend at least 40% of meetings.

Section II: Officer Elections/Rules

- a. Active members of FUDG can nominate themselves, and only themselves for a position.
- b. The nominees will then be put on a ballot which will be open to all members of FUDG through GroupMe.
- c. Some positions may be gate locked to nominations. (such as needing to have experience as a Vice President to become the President)
- d. All officer positions must be fulfilled by an active member of FUDG.
- e. Positions may be added if an officer’s position becomes too much of a responsibility. For example, if the role of the secretary becomes too large then the secretary could create a new position, such as head of social media with the president's approval.

- f. While becoming an officer can be an exciting opportunity, do not get greedy or self-centered. Put the entire active club first instead of just yourself, or a few members.

Section III: Selection of Advisor

- a. Our advisor is selected through interest of the sport, or willingness to become our advisor.

Section IV: Committees

- a. There will likely be no “committees” per say, but there may be groups such as officers, competing players, active members, and casual members.

Section V: Rules of Order

Subsection 1: Meetings background information

- a. The meetings entail members playing a round at a course of their choosing.
- b. Depending on how many members show the round format can be switched up for more fun, and friendly competition!
- c. For future reference, meets can also be deemed as “a round”, or “rounds”
- d. The rounds will take place every Sunday or Saturday and one day during the business week (Monday to Friday) afternoon based on availability and voting.
- e. There will not be official weekly rounds during breaks such as winter, summer, or spring.
- f. Members who are staying at Furman during breaks are free to organize unofficial rounds through GroupMe.
- g. If wanted, we could hold meets where we just work on techniques to improve members’ skills
- h. While the president, or vice president should be the ones to organize the weekly rounds if neither of them, or other officers cannot make it to the weekly round, active members are free to organize the weekly round. Members are also free to organize a separate round that is not the official weekly round in the GroupMe, but it must not be at the same time as the weekly round unless granted by the president. This club is meant to bring disc golfers together.
- i. If the group is struggling to choose between multiple different courses for the weekly round it will come to a vote. If the vote is in a stalemate, then a random number generator (a die, coin, etc..) will pick.

Subsection 2: Bylaws during the rounds

- a. Be respectful to others: while friendly trash talk can be allowed if everyone in the group agrees, actions such as bullying or rudeness are strictly forbidden!
- b. If you borrow someone else's disc and lose it you must attempt to get a replacement if the person asks for one.
- c. While putting stakes on a round is usually discouraged, you can put stakes on a round if everyone agrees to them.
- d. While throwing mulligans is not an issue, do not be egregious, and consider everyone else's time.
- e. The group is allowed to set a hard limit on mulligans of the tee, on the putting green, or anywhere else, and everyone in the group must abide by that decision.
- f. During a round if a solo player or group of players is playing faster than the group and asks to pass/play through the group, then the group must allow them to play through.
- g. Leaving trash on any course (unless it's thrown away, or recycled) is forbidden.
- h. Treat the local Greenville disc golfers with respect when playing off campus. We are representing Furman University!
- i. If a lost disc is found on the course that is not the group's and has a name and phone number written on it, an attempt must be made to return the disc to its rightful owner. If a text, or phone call is not answered after a week then the disc is free to be kept or given to another member. This would be up to the person that found it.
- j. If a lost disc is found on the course without a name and phone number, and no locals claim that the disc is theirs, then whoever found it gets to keep it unless they want to give it to someone else. It is encouraged to give it to someone that owns less discs especially if the disc is beginner friendly and would get more use from someone else.
- k. Groups are allowed to bend the rules, but only if everyone agrees to them. Examples can include removing out of bounds rules.

Subsection 3: GroupMe Rules

- a. Any students, and alumni that wish to continue to come to rounds are allowed in the GroupMe.
- b. Harassment, or bullying is strictly forbidden in the GroupMe. Any members that bully or harass other members will be banned from the GroupMe as well as the weekly rounds, and will be immediately removed from the club.

- c. All votes that are not decided by club officers will be taken to the other members in the GroupMe.
- d. Any spam accounts will be immediately removed from GroupMe.
- e. People that do not show any interest, or activity for over a year will be removed from the GroupMe.

Section VI: Constitution/Amendments Changes

- a. Changes can be made if something comes up that is not mentioned in the constitution such as a rule that is not covered.
- b. The potential change(s) can be brought up by any member, if all club officers make a agree unanimously then that amendment will be added to the constitution.
- c. If an initial unanimous decision is not made then a vote will be taken in the GroupMe. Whatever the decision is will be reflected in the constitution.

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students of designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the direction of these national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.
