

Furman University Dungeons & Dragons Club 2018 Constitution

Article I: Organization Name

The name of this organization shall be Furman University Dungeons & Dragons Club (FUDND).

Article II: Purpose Statement

Furman University Dungeons & Dragons Club shall serve the purpose of bringing together a community of students who are interested in this activity as a form of entertainment, unique medium of creative storytelling, method of expanding upon improvisation skills as well as the imagination, and a means of promoting camaraderie. By bringing this community together, the club will provide a relaxed social environment for members to discuss the game and promote the sharing of new ideas and perspectives.

Article III: Member and Eligibility Criteria

Section A: Membership is open to any and all enrolled Furman students that meet the following criteria:

1. Wishes to participate in Furman Dungeons & Dragons Club
2. Pays the student activity fee

Section B: Member Removal

1. This organization and its members agree to adhere to the Furman University Student Code of Conduct – any member found violating this may be removed from the organization. Any member may have their membership revoked by a two-thirds vote of the Executive Board. Any removed member may appeal to the general membership to have their membership reinstated. They may only be reinstated by a two-thirds approval from the general membership.

Article IV: Voting

Section A: A quorum will be reached at 51% of the organization's members.

Section B: Each member in good standing is allowed to vote. See bylaw Article I Section 2 for definitions on good and bad standing.

Article V: Officers

Section A: Furman University Dungeons & Dragons Club shall have a President, Vice President, Secretary, and Treasurer. These officers constitute the Executive Board.

Section B: The term of office shall be from April 23rd through April 24th of the following year.

Section C: Election of officers shall be held annually. At least two weeks notice shall be given before the election meeting. Nominations shall be initiated from the floor and elections shall be done by secret ballot. The person who receives majority vote will be elected.

Section D: Any vacancy in an office shall be filled by appointment by the president pending ratification at the next group business meeting.

Section E: Duties of the President

1. The president shall be the chief executive officer.
2. The president shall be a voting member of the organization.
3. The president shall appoint all committee chairpersons.
4. The president shall preside over meetings. If they are not present, the vice president will fulfill this role, followed by the secretary and then the treasurer.
5. The president directs the budget with approval of the executive board. Approval is given by majority vote of the executive board.
6. The president shall arrange the organization's schedule.
7. Vacancies in offices shall be filled by the president with the approval of the general membership.

Section F: Duties of the Vice President

1. The vice president shall be the parliamentarian for the organization.
2. The vice president shall assume the duties of the president should the office become vacant, or in the absence of the president.
3. The vice president shall keep and have available copies of the constitution and bylaws.
4. The vice president shall perform other duties as prescribed by the president.

Section G: Duties of the Secretary

1. The secretary shall be responsible for keeping the minutes of all meetings and meetings of the executive board.
2. The secretary shall provide a copy of the minutes for all members and keep a master file.
3. The secretary shall maintain a complete and accurate roster and account of attendance.
4. The secretary shall perform other duties as prescribed by the president.

Section H: Duties of the Treasurer

1. The treasurer shall keep a current and accurate record of all financial transactions.
2. The treasurer shall request the budget annually from SGA.
3. The treasurer shall develop a semester report containing a list of all receipts and disbursements and distribute them among the membership each semester.
4. The treasurer shall be responsible for checking the accuracy of all bills and invoices and paying them correctly and in a timely manner.
5. The treasurer shall perform other duties as prescribed by the president.

Article VI: The Advisor

Section A: Duties of the Advisor

1. The advisor shall serve as a resource by sharing knowledge and expertise as needed.

Section B: The advisor shall be a faculty or staff member of Furman University.

Article VII: Notice of Meetings

Section A: The times for regularly scheduled meetings shall be at least once every two weeks.

Section B: At least three days' notice shall be given for each regular business meeting.

Section C: Special or emergency meetings may be called with less than 24 hours' notice by the Executive Board.

Section D: The meetings shall include quorum, order of business, and recorded minutes. Order of business may vary in structure between guided discussion and casual discourse where members may share thoughts, ideas, and testimonies about topics relevant to Dungeons & Dragons as well as the community. Meetings are open to all non-discriminating individuals. Robert's Rules shall be used for all voting circumstances (closing the meeting, bylaw changes, etc.) during meetings.

Furman University Dungeons & Dragons Club Bylaws

Article I: Membership

1. Active membership is open to all Furman students who meet the membership criteria, as stated in Article III of the constitution. Active members maintain the right to vote and participate in organization activities. To remain active, they must be in good standing. See bylaw Article I Section 2 for definitions on good and bad standing.
2. A member will be considered in good standing with the organization by abiding by all rules in the bylaws and constitution, including Furman University Student Code of Conduct, as well as attending at least four meetings per semester. Failure to meet these requirements will result in the member falling into bad standing with the organization.

A member will be in bad standing if they do not meet the organization requirements each semester. A member in bad standing may appeal to the executive board to regain membership by providing their reasoning for not meeting the semester requirements. It is up to the discretion of the executive board whether or not to place the individual back into good standing, which will be decided with a majority vote.
3. Any member may have their membership revoked by a two-thirds vote of the executive board. Any removed member may appeal to the general membership to have their membership reinstated. They may only be reinstated by a two-thirds approval from the general membership.

Article II: Selection of Officers

1. Election of officers shall be held annually. At least two weeks notice shall be given before the election meeting. Nominations shall be initiated from the floor and elections shall be done by secret ballot. The person who receives majority vote will be elected.
2. In the event of a vacancy, the executive member next in order (president filled by vice president, vice president filled by secretary, etc.) should fill the vacancy, with the exclusion of the treasurer to avoid any confusion in financial records. A new secretary will be elected by the general membership. In the event of a vacancy caused by the treasurer, the executive board will decide which executive board member will fill the vacancy.
3. An officer may be removed from the executive board by a majority vote of the general membership.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

1. The advisor will be selected by majority vote of the general membership. The executive board will provide a list of faculty or staff that have agreed to take up the advisor position.
2. Upon at least one member providing reason for removal, an advisor may be removed by a majority vote of the general membership.

Article IV: Amendments

1. The bylaws can be amended at any time once proposed by a member of the organization, presented to the executive board as well as the general membership, and agreed upon by a majority vote of the general membership. A member must present a proposed bylaw change to the executive board, which will be discussed at the next executive board meeting. The list of proposed changes should then be presented by the executive board to the general membership at the following club meeting. Copies should be made available at the meeting. The decision whether to make the proposed bylaw change or retain the laws will be voted upon the meeting following the executive board's presentation. A majority vote is sufficient to retain or change the bylaws.

Article V: Outreach and Communication

At soonest opportunity, the officers should create or arrange for the creation of an emailing list, group site, and group chat for use by the student organization's members.

Article VI: Meetings

Meetings will be conducted at least once every two weeks. Three days' notice must be given for regularly scheduled meetings. Special, or emergency, meetings can be called under 24 hours notice by the executive board. Special meetings will consist of quorum, solely announcement/addressing and discussion of the immediate reason for the meeting, and recorded minutes.

Article VII: Minutes

Minutes will include the type of meeting (regular or special), date of meeting, general discussion topics, and all main motions. After each meeting, the minutes will be distributed to all members via email. Amendments to the bylaws or constitution will be recorded in the minutes.

Article VIII. Discipline and Impeachment Defined

Section 1. Acceptable Behavior

Members of the organization are expected to conduct themselves in a professional and respectful manner during meetings. This means to speak in turn and not interrupt others, appreciate creative and personal differences, and provide positive and constructive criticism when asked to provide advice.

Section 2. Tiers of Discipline:

- A. Grievance
- B. Warning
- C. Impeachment

Section 3. Grievance

A grievance is a complaint filed by one member about another member. All grievances must be filed to and mediated by the executive board until a resolution between members involved is found.

Section 4. Warning

A warning is a written or verbal admonishment given to the recipient of a grievance. This will be delivered by the executive board in response to inflammatory conduct or behavior, such as harassment or discrimination.

Section 5. Impeachment

An impeachment is a charge which can result in removal of office or membership if found guilty by the executive board. See Section B of Article III in the FUDND Constitution and bylaw Article II Section 3 for member or officer removal procedures.