

Furman University Fashion Students Constitution

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University Fashion Students (FUFS).

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of FUFS shall be to build a creative and diverse community of students interested in fashion.

Article III: Affiliations

We are not affiliated with any other organization.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

Any undergraduate Furman student who is interested in fashion is welcome to join!

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

- President
- Vice President
- Treasurer
- Event Planner

Officers are selected through an application process using Google Forms. Any member can apply as an officer at the beginning of each school year and are selected by majority vote for each position. Applicants must show that they will fulfill the position well to be selected. An Officer's term is from the beginning of Fall to end of Spring semester.

Article VI: Advisor

Our advisor serves as support to ensure that our club is operating well and following Furman University's rules. The advisor is welcome to be as involved as they'd like.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings will be held once a month.

Article VIII: Finance

The organization will operate on a budget given by Furman University (SGA).

Article IX: Amendments

Changing the Constitution can only be made by a 2/3rds vote of the organization.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, FUFs membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Furman University Fashion Students Bylaws

Article I: Membership

Regular members (those not applying for executive roles) do not have to apply to be a part of the club. If there is an event/volunteer opportunity with limited capacity, it would be based on a sign up sheet that is on a first come, first served basis. There are no categories of membership or requirements to join— everyone is welcome! If anyone is violating the Constitution they may be removed by a 2/3rds vote of the organization.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Officers will need to apply through a Google Forms application. The candidate with the majority vote will be chosen to fulfill their desired officer role. If there is only one running for a position, that person will be elected.

- a. The President will:
 - Manage social media/communication
 - Schedule and lead club meetings
- b. The Vice President will:
 - Assist with leading and setting up meetings
 - Assist the Event Planner in planning ideas for meetings/events
- c. The Treasurer will:
 - Manage budget/finances
 - Buy any materials needed
- d. The Event Planner will:
 - Plan meetings/events and their logistics (come up with a list of materials needed if applicable, create supporting materials such as PowerPoint presentations, etc)

*Officers may plan/host their own event based on individual skills/interests. Any member can pitch in ideas for meetings.

If there is a vacant position, another officer (preferably the Vice President), will take on the role until we can elect a new person ASAP. If an officer needs to be removed from their position, all the officers should discuss the problem with each other. Then, 2/3rds of the organization must vote to remove the officer. If there are any unsolvable issues, officers should meet with the club's advisor

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor is selected by the current President who is responsible for communicating with them as needed. Officers and club members are welcome to offer any faculty they know who might be interested or fit well as the advisor. If an advisor needs to be removed, officers should unanimously agree on the removal of the advisor. Then, the President should communicate to advisor and find a new one ASAP.

Article IV: Committees

There are no committees within FUFs.

Article V: Rules of Order

There should be good and timely communication amongst Officers and the club. The club as a whole should be well organized and informed of what's going on. Officers should fulfill their roles responsibly and as best they can. Every member is allowed to offer input. All opinions and ideas are respected/valued. For extra support, the advisor would help smooth out any conflicts that cannot be resolved by ourselves.

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

Officers should discuss any possible changes to bylaws and 2/3rds of the organization must vote in favor of the change.
