

Article I: Name and Purpose

Section A: Name - The name of this club shall be (Furman Global Health Alliance)

Section B: Purpose - The purpose of the club shall be to:

1. Offer students an opportunity to immerse themselves in an eye-opening experience that highlights various global health issues. This will be accomplished by participating in various outreach service projects regarding all aspects of health and having the opportunity to go on a Global Health Service Trip.
2. Give students opportunities to serve underserved communities both locally and internationally, with a particular focus on rural areas.
3. Raise awareness of global service by offering information and education on various topics. Our goal is also to host speakers who will cover all aspects of global health and its impact on serving underserved communities both worldwide and in Greenville.
4. Provide students interested in various healthcare fields, such as nursing, medicine, dentistry, and more, the opportunity to observe medical practices in underserved areas to see how various obstacles in medicine are addressed.
5. Present leadership and membership opportunities in going on mission trips and serving others through volunteerism.

Article II: Membership and Dues

Section A: Eligibility- Membership shall be open to all students who attend Furman University.

Section B: Dues- Membership in the organization is free of charge. However, there will be a cost associated with participating in the global service trip. This trip, organized primarily with Global Brigades, will vary in cost depending on the chosen destination.

Article III: Funding Strategy

Section A: Guest Speakers- All guest speakers will speak voluntarily and therefore shall not be monetized.

Section B: Fundraising- Furman Global Health Alliance is dedicated to organizing an annual global service trip. Primarily we aim to work with the organization Global Brigades but are not limited to this organization. Each participant is responsible for covering their share of the trip costs, which varies, depending on the destination. To help alleviate any expenses for global mission experiences, our club will engage in various fundraising activities. We are committed to providing support and offering diverse fundraising opportunities to ensure that each member can meet their financial goal.

Section C: Sponsorship- Furman Global Alliance will also strive to obtain sponsorships from local organizations in the Greenville area.

Article IV: Officers

Section A: Officers- The officers of this organization will include a President (and Co-President, if applicable), a Vice President, a Secretary, and an Event Coordinator Chair.

Section A-1: Officer terms will run throughout the fall and spring semesters each year. All officers are expected to collaborate for the overall success and improvement of the club.

Section B: Eligibility- Officers must be full time students of Furman University.

Section C: Election- The officers shall be elected by anonymous ballot vote at the second to last meeting of the Spring Semester by a majority vote cast for the office

Article V: Duties of Officers

Section A: President- The President shall oversee club activities, ensuring alignment with the organization's mission and strategic goals. Serves as the primary liaison with administration and the faculty advisor. Leads leadership meetings, helps facilitate general meetings, and ensures smooth communication. Responsible for recruiting new members and sending regular updates via GroupMe or other platforms.

Section B: Vice-President- The Vice President shall be responsible for assisting the Club President in all operations, including assisting with outreach and on-campus meetings. Supports the President in leading the club and serves as a secondary point of contact. Responsible for managing SyncDIN event postings. The Vice President will also be responsible for engaging students interested in the diverse aspects of global health and planning various events.

Section C: Secretary- Responsible for club communication and organization. Sends emails and reminders for group meetings, manages GroupMe messages, reserves rooms for meetings, assists with meeting slides, and keeps the club's Instagram updated. Also helps meetings run efficiently by tracking attendance and keeping shared documents organized.

Section D: Treasurer- The Treasurer manages the club budget and works with SGA to apply for and secure funding. Purchases materials for meetings and outreach (snacks, posters, supplies) and keeps financial records organized and up to date.

Section E: On-Campus/Meeting Coordinator- Helps plan and organize club events throughout the year. Responsible for recruiting and communicating with guest speakers for meetings, supporting outreach activities. Responsible for taking the lead on meeting presentations.

Section F: Off-Campus/Outreach Coordinator - Identifies volunteer opportunities (e.g., FoodShare) and helps the club stay engaged in service. Assists with organizing events like Root Cause, helps create presentations for off campus events (RootCause flyers), and spreads the word about upcoming activities. Also beginning to brainstorm how we could implement a medical mission in the future.

Article VI: Meetings

Section A: Meetings- Regular meetings will be held every month along with various events.

Section B: Special Meetings- Special meetings may be made by the President in the case of certain occasions such as guest speakers or more information about an upcoming global brigade mission trip.

ARTICLE VII: EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Section A: Responsibility- Management of this club shall be vested in an Executive Committee responsible to the entire membership to uphold these bylaws.

Section B: Membership- This committee shall consist of the officers as listed in Article III and the faculty advisor.

Section C: Meetings- This committee shall meet on a needed basis to organize and plan future activities.

ARTICLE VIII: ADVISOR

Section A: Selection- There shall be a faculty/staff advisor who shall be selected each year by the membership.

Section B: Duties- The responsibilities of the faculty advisor shall be to:

- Maintain an awareness of the activities and programs sponsored by the student club.
- Meet on a regular basis with the leader of the student club to discuss upcoming meetings, long range plans, goals, and problems of the club.
- Attend regular meetings, executive board meetings as often as the schedule allows.
- Assist in the orientation of new officers.
- Explain and clarify campus policy and procedures that apply to the club.
- Maintain contact with the Student Life Office.
- Provide direction in the area of parliamentary procedure, meeting facilitation, group-building, goal setting, and program planning.
- Assist the club treasurer in monitoring expenditures, fundraising activities, and corporate sponsorship to maintain an accurate and up-to-date account ledger.
- Inform club members of those factors that constitute unacceptable behavior on the part of the club members, and the possible consequence of said behaviors.

Article IX: Committees

Section A: Special Committees- all Officers shall have the authority to appoint any special committees to work on various projects if needed.

Article X: Amendments

Section A: Selection- these bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the chapter membership.

Section B: Notice- All members shall receive notice of the proposed amendment at at least five days before the meeting.