

Furman University Model United Nations Constitution

Article I:

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University Model United Nations (FUMUN).

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of FUMUN shall be to facilitate discussions about international policies, to create resolutions using the guidelines of the United Nations, and to foster collaboration amongst those with differing ideas. FUMUN will serve its purpose in allowing students to become more comfortable with thinking on their feet, grappling with real world consequences of policy, and public speaking, all while becoming more educated on global politics. This organization will hold internal and external scrimmages and enroll in competitions.

Article III: Affiliations

This organization is not directly affiliated with any local, state, national, or international organizations, however, FUMUN is an organization with the goal to educate students on and to allow students to participate in an unofficial United Nations Forum.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

All students with the necessary time commitment (discussed at first meeting) and dedication to strengthening the club are eligible for membership. In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

Officer titles will include President, Vice President, Media/Communications/Outreach Officer, Treasurer, and Secretary. To become an officer, one must fill out an application to be approved by members and existing officers. The approval will take place through a two-thirds majority vote of active members. Elections will take place in the spring semester to solidify roles for the following academic year.

If Officers are willing to continue in their role in a consecutive year, they are not required to reapply for positions as long as they are in good standing with the faculty advisor and majority of club members. They will, however, still need a two-thirds majority vote from the members to approve this.

Article VI: Advisor

The advisor is available for advice and assistance with travel plans and logistical needs. The advisor is not required at practices, but is welcomed when their schedule permits.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings will be typically held once a week. Schedule changes are permitted.

Article VIII: Finance

This organization will apply for funding from Furman University each academic year, along with fundraising opportunities, and potential member fees. Members may need to be charged dues (as needed) for travel.

Article IX: Amendments

This constitution is amendable with two-thirds active member approval. This constitution is open to necessary amendments when needed, and as the club sees fit. Voting is required for amendments to be published. Amendments can be proposed by anyone, and will be voted on in the next club meeting.

BYLAWS:

Article I: Membership

Officers and members are of equal status.

Officers ensure that the meetings are happening, and work closer with the advisor. Officers are elected to advance, organize, and promote the organization.

All active members should allow for proper time in their schedule and show up to a majority of meetings. Members should display commitment. Members are allowed to have 1 unexcused absence.

Direct violations of organization expectations will result in the removal of an officer or member.

Article II: Selection of Officers

The Officers are selected through an application process and confirmed by the faculty member and existing officers.

Duties:

President - responsible for communicating with advisor alongside VP, structuring meetings, agendas, and plans

Vice President - responsible for communicating with advisor alongside President, filling in for President as needed

Outreach Officer - responsible for making flyers, sending emails, signing up for competitions

Treasurer - responsible for keeping track of funds, making sure we properly budget travel and other expenses, communicates on this matter with advisor, President, and VP

Secretary - responsible for keeping track of contact information, working with outreach, keeping documents in line, making sure the club is abiding by constitution, working on scheduling with the other club members

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor has been selected by the founding members of the organization. If a new advisor needs to be selected, the Executive board will have to agree (two-thirds) on the new faculty member. The faculty member will also have to be available and willing.

Article IV: Committees

Committees will be established as needed.

Article V: Rules of Order

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

This constitution is amendable with two-thirds active member approval. This constitution is open to necessary amendments when needed, and as the members see fit. Voting is required for amendments to be published. Amendments can be proposed by anyone, and will be voted on in the next club meeting.
