

Furman University Ping Pong Association Constitution

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be “Furman University Ping Pong Association”.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of the organization shall be to create a welcoming environment for Furman students to play table tennis, improve their skills, and build community through friendly competition and social events.

Article III: Affiliations

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

Membership shall be open to all Furman University undergraduate, day students.

University Discrimination Policy

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Leadership Council

The Leadership Council is responsible for the management and development of the club. It consists of:

- President: Oversees the club's activities, schedules meetings and practices, and represents the club in all official matters.
- Vice President: Assists the president and helps organize events and tournaments. Takes on the president's role if the president is unavailable.
- Treasurer: Manages the club's budget, handles fundraising, and ensures proper financial management.
- Historian: Manages the club's social media presence, takes photos at events, and documents club activities for promotional and archival purposes.

Additional Roles:

The Leadership Council may establish additional roles as needed (e.g., Tournament Coordinator, Fundraising Chair) at the beginning of the academic year to meet club needs. Members holding these roles will also be part of the Leadership Council.

Officer Terms and Elections:

- Term Length: One year.
- Election Process: Officers will be elected by a majority vote of active members at the end of each academic year.
- Vacancy: In the event of a vacancy, the Leadership Council will appoint a replacement.
- Officer Removal: An officer may be removed from their position with a unanimous vote by the other officers if they fail to fulfill their responsibilities.

Article VI: Advisor

The advisor will act as a mentor to the club and assist in the development and vision of the organization. They will not have voting or decision-making authority.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings will be held either once a week or every other week, depending on availability and club needs. Members of the Leadership Council are expected to attend all meetings unless otherwise excused.

Article VIII: Finance

The club will be funded through the Furman University Student Government Association (SGA) budget. Additional funds, if needed, may be raised through fundraising activities.

Article IX: Amendments

Amendments to this constitution must be introduced at a club meeting. A two-thirds majority vote by present active members is required for approval. The advisor will be informed of all amendments.

Bylaws

Article I: Membership

Membership is open to all Furman University undergraduate students. No financial obligations or minimum GPA requirements exist for membership.

Member Removal:

Members who engage in disrespectful or disruptive behavior may be removed from the club at the discretion of the Leadership Council after a fair discussion with the member in question.

Article II: Leadership Council Selection

Officers will be elected by a majority vote of club members at a pre-announced election meeting in April.

Vacancy Procedure:

If an officer position becomes vacant, the remaining officers will appoint a replacement.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor will be a Furman faculty or staff member selected by the Leadership Council for their enthusiasm and alignment with the club's mission.

Article IV: Committees

The club may establish ad-hoc committees as needed for specific events or projects (e.g., tournament planning committee, fundraising committee).

Article V: Rules of Order

Club business will be conducted in an informal, friendly manner. Conflicts will be resolved through open communication among members and the Leadership Council.

University Conduct Policy:

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee.

Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

Amendments to the bylaws must be introduced at a club meeting. A simple majority vote by at least 70% of regularly attending members is required for approval.
