

Furman University Marching Arts

Standing Advisor: Andy Lecture

Article I. Name of the Organization

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University Marching Arts.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of Furman University Marching Arts shall be to provide students with social and educational opportunities related to color guard and winter guard (i.e., flag, rifle, and sabre twirling, baton twirling, and dance).

Article III. Affiliations

Furman University March Arts is affiliated with The Paladin Regiment, Purple Diamonds, and Furman Dance Team.

Article IV. Membership

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership is open to all undergraduate day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation or religious affiliation.

Article V. Officers

The student leaders of Furman University Marching Arts are to be undergraduate day students at Furman. The official names for these student leaders are to be President, Social Chair/Marketing Agent, and Treasurer.

Duties expected out of the President are:

- To be on time and present to at least $\frac{3}{4}$'s of rehearsals and workshops.
- Adequately hear out the concerns and questions of members within the group and take the necessary action to address them.
- Push the group forward towards growth within the organization and as students.
- Utilize and be flexible with everyone's abilities within the group.
- Demonstrate strong leadership abilities.

Duties expected out of the Social Chair/Marketing Agent are:

- To be on time and present to at least $\frac{3}{4}$'s of rehearsals and workshops.
- Help manage and organize events.
- Help make and distribute flyers and other information for events.
- Help manage and post to social media accounts.

Duties expected out of the Treasurer are:

- To be on time and present to at least 75% of rehearsals, meetings, and workshops.
- Keep and maintain financial records for the organization

- Serve as the primary representative to sign and approve financial documents
- Maintain familiarity with the financial process of student organizations at Furman University
- Conduct all financial transactions on behalf of the organization
- Prepare and monitor an annual budget for the student organization
- Ensure funds are used appropriately, and only for the organization
- Provide advisor and members regular updates of the budget status
- Submit written requests and justifications for allocations of funds to Student Government Association (SGA)

Article VI. Advisor

The advisor of the Furman University Marching Arts is to be a faculty or staff member employed by Furman University. Duties expected out of an Advisor for Furman University Marching Arts is:

- Hands On Availability
- Conflict Management
- Exemplary Leadership
- Motivator & Coach

Article VII. Meetings, Education, and Event Awareness

The Furman University Marching Arts opens up organizational meetings to all Furman University students and Faculty members. The clubs core group collaboratively will determine the time for weekly and monthly meetings. The Furman University Marching Arts prioritize hosting educational events for its members and the broader Furman community. The club places great emphasis on timely communications and advertising and will promptly provide information and raise awareness once meeting/event details are confirmed.

Article VIII: Finance

Presently, the Furman University Marching Arts aims to operate under a foundation rooted in governance through the Student Government Association (SGA). Our financial structure aims to rely primarily on contributions from SGA as well as equitable distribution among the club members themselves when necessary.

Article IX. Amendments

Furman University Marching Arts encourages a democratic approach for all its members, allowing any club member to propose amendments to the constitution, which will be carefully overseen by the core group. These proposed amendments can become an integral part of the constitution with the approval of two-thirds of the members present during the decision-making process.

Bylaws

Article I. Membership

Any student at Furman with an interest in the marching arts, baton twirling, and color guard/winter guard is welcome to join. Students of all skill levels would be welcome. General member responsibilities include attending networking and social events.

- If a member does not follow the rules outlined in the constitution, breaks Furman University policy, or demonstrates any form of discrimination in a way that directly effects their membership in the club (i.e., towards another club member). They can be removed from the club for either the remainder of the year or possibly for all future years depending on the severity of the situation.
- In this event a meeting will be set up with all club members and the advisor. Members will vote with the advisor present on whether or not to remove the person from the club. If majority vote to have the person removed they will be removed immediately and possibility for rejoining in the future may be discussed with the leadership team and advisor.

Article II. Selection of Officers

- President
 - Student Leader within the organization.
 - Plan and chair meetings
 - Collaborate the social chair/marketing agent to plan meetings and secure venues as needed
 - Help the treasurer manage organization funds and ensure they are appropriately spent
 - Elected by the members.
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the President.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
 - Elections will take place in the latter part of the Spring semester (end of April).
 - President will serve from late spring until the following late spring, when a new President is elected.
 - The President can be reelected if they are not a graduating senior
 - If the position is vacated before the start of a new term a meeting will be set up to determine a new person for President, and this person will serve as President until the end of the current term.
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the new President.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
 - If the President does not follow the rules outlined in the constitution, breaks Furman University policy, or demonstrates any form of discrimination in a way that directly effects their membership in the club (i.e., towards another club member). They can be removed from the position of President.
 - In this event a meeting will be set up with all club members and the advisor. Members will vote with the advisor present on whether or not to remove the person from the position of President. If majority vote to have the person removed they will be removed immediately and the spot will become vacant in which case the vacancy protocols will commence.

- If the situation is severe enough the person can be removed from the club entirely for either the remainder of the year or possibly all future years. Possibility of rejoining can be discussed with new leadership and the advisor.
- Social Chair/Marketing Agent
 - Student Leader within the organization.
 - Manages and organizes all organization social events.
 - Distribute information regarding social events via flyers and social media posts.
 - Manage social media accounts.
 - Elected by members
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the Social Chair/Marketing Agent.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
 - Elections will take place in the latter part of the Spring semester (end of April).
 - Social chair/marketing agent will serve from late spring until the following late spring, when a new Social chair/marketing agent is elected.
 - The Social Chair/Marketing Agent can be reelected if they are not a graduating senior.
 - If the position is vacated before the start of a new term a meeting will be set up to determine a new person for Social Chair/marketing agent, and this person will serve as Social Chair/marketing agent until the end of the current term.
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the new Social Chair.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
- If the Social Chair/marketing agent does not follow the rules outlined in the constitution, breaks Furman University policy, or demonstrates any form of discrimination in a way that directly effects their membership in the club (i.e., towards another club member). They can be removed from the position of Social Chair/marketing agent.
 - In this event a meeting will be set up with all club members and advisor. Members will vote with the advisor present on whether or not to remove the person from the position of Social Chair/marketing agent. If majority vote to have the person removed they will be removed immediately and the spot will become vacant in which case the vacancy protocols will commence.
 - If the situation is severe enough the person can be removed from the club entirely for either the remainder of the year or possibly all future years. Possibility for rejoining can be discussed with new the new leadership and the advisor.

- Treasurer

- Student leader within the organization
- Keep and maintain financial records for the organization
- Serve as the primary representative to sign and approve financial documents
- Maintain familiarity with the financial process of student organizations at Furman University
- Conduct all financial transactions on behalf of the organization
- Prepare and monitor an annual budget for the organization
- Ensure funds are used appropriately, and only for the organization
- Provide advisor and members regular updates on the budget status
- Submit written requests and justifications for allocations of funds to Student Government Association (SGA)
- Elected by the members.
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the Treasurer.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
 - Elections will take place in the latter part of the Spring semester (end of April).
 - Treasurer will serve from late spring until the following late spring, when a new Treasurer is elected.
 - The Treasurer can be reelected if they are not a graduating senior
- If the position is vacated before the start of a new term a meeting will be set up to determine a new person for Treasurer, and this person will serve as Treasurer until the end of the current term.
 - Nominations are given and then voted on – the person with the most votes, assuming they receive more than 50% of the votes, shall be the new Treasurer.
 - In cases that a majority is not secured, the two candidates with the most votes will be voted upon until a majority is reached.
- If the Treasurer does not follow the rules outlined in the constitution, breaks Furman University policy, or demonstrates any form of discrimination in a way that directly effects their membership in the club (i.e., towards another club member). They can be removed from the position of Treasurer.
 - In this event a meeting will be set up with all club members and the advisor. Members will vote with the advisor present on whether or not to remove the person from the position of Treasurer. If majority vote to have the person removed they will be removed immediately and the spot will become vacant in which case the vacancy protocols will commence.
 - If the situation is severe enough the person can be removed from the club entirely for either the remainder of the year or possibly all future years. Possibility of rejoining can be discussed with new leadership and the advisor.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

To select an advisor when the role is vacated, students will nominate faculty and staff members they feel will be able to support the organization. They will contact nominees to ask for their consent to advise the Club. Once nominees have accepted or rejected the nominations, a majority vote will determine the advisor. Advisors will be selected at the end of each Spring semester before Commencement, and will serve starting on the first day of class of the May Experience “Maymester” through the last day of class the following Spring semester.

Article IV. Committees

Furman University Marching Arts currently operates without any established committees. Instead, the organization is guided by a dedicated members, executive board, and advisor responsible for overseeing all aspects of the organization’s functions, events, and initial purpose.

Article V: Rules of Order

The Furman Marching Arts is committed towards the mission of growth and learning. Through this, Furman University Marching Arts will provide diverse ways in which students can learn, allowing flexibility and growth within all members. If a conflict or concern were to ever arise, a conversation with the student leaders will be followed up with the advisor. Within this process the student leaders and advisor will land on the best way forward in order to relieve the concern for the betterment of the group. We are committed towards taking concerns & conflicts seriously and will take the necessary unbiased action in regards to moving forward to do so.

Organizations may not address a member’s violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI. Amendments

Furman University Marching Arts encourages a democratic approach for all its members, allowing any club member to propose amendments to the bylaws, which will be carefully overseen by the core group. These proposed amendments can become an integral part of the bylaws with the approval of two-thirds of the members present during the decision-making process.