

Constitution 2024-2025

Article I: Name

- The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University Club Swim Team.

Article II: Purpose

- The purpose of Furman University Club Swim Team shall be to provide an opportunity for swimmers of all ability levels and background experiences to train, compete, and have fun.

Article III: Affiliations

- Club Swim Team is within the Furman Club Sports department.
- This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.
- Our organization is affiliated with United States Master's Swimming, a national club swimming organization.

Article IV: Membership

- All current Furman students are eligible for membership, regardless of swimming ability.
- In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.
- Members shall only be removed at the digression of the President and other officers. Members shall be considered for removal if they take action that damages either the members or reputation of the club.
- Members who wish to compete in meets must be deemed eligible based on attendance.

Article V: Officers

- There shall be a President who oversees all the business of the club and delegates responsibilities to the rest of the officers.
- There shall be a Vice President to assist the President with managing the team and running practices.
- The rest of the officer positions shall be assigned only if the President deems it necessary.
- If other officers are deemed necessary, they will simply be known as captains.
- Any member of the club who has been a member for at least one year is eligible for an officer position.
 - The officers for the coming year will be determined by the previous officers.
 - If any members of the club have a legitimate concern about an incoming officer, they can bring their concern to the outgoing President, who will then conduct a vote with the members.

Article VI: Advisor

- The advisor will be available for advice if asked by the officers.

Article VII: Meetings

- Meetings (otherwise known as practices) will be held at least twice a week and officers will meet as necessary.

Article VIII: Finance

- The organization will receive funding by requesting money from SGA through the Council of Club Sports.

Article IX: Amendments

- Officers may amend the constitution as they see fit.

Bylaws 2024-2025

Article I: Membership

- All current Furman students are eligible for membership, regardless of swimming ability. There are no financial obligations, GPA requirements, or physical tests required for membership. This membership gives students unlimited access to practice led by club officers.

- Members who wish to compete in meets and receive gear paid for by the club, must be deemed eligible based on attendance and commitment to the team.
- Members shall only be removed at the digression of the President and other officers. Members shall be considered for removal if they take action that damages either the members or reputation of the club.
 - If any members of the club have a legitimate concern about another member, they can bring their concern to the President, who will then conduct a vote with the officers.

Article II: Selection of Officers

- The officers for the coming year will be determined by the previous officers.
- Any member of the club who has been a member for at least one year is eligible for an officer position.
 - If any members of the club have a legitimate concern about an incoming officer, they can bring their concern to the outgoing President, who will then conduct a vote with the members.
- There shall be a President who oversees all the business of the club and delegates responsibilities to the rest of the officers.
- There shall be a Vice President to assist the President with managing the team and running practices.
- The rest of the officer positions shall be assigned only if the President deems it necessary, or in the event of a vacancy.
- If other officers are deemed necessary, they will simply be known as captains and help facilitate meets and practices.
- If any members of the club have a legitimate concern about an coming officer, they can bring their concern to the President, who will then conduct a vote with the members regarding the removal of the officer from position.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

- The advisor is selected by the current officers.
- If any members or officers of the club have a legitimate concern about the advisor or their ability to serve in the Club Advisor capacity, they can bring their concern to the President, who will then conduct a vote with the members regarding the removal of an advisor.

Article IV: Committees

- Beyond President and Vice President, the rest of the officer positions shall be assigned only if the President deems it necessary, or in the event of a vacancy.
 - If other officers are deemed necessary, they will simply be known as captains and help facilitate meets and practices.

Article V: Rules of Order

- Officers will meet as necessary to conduct internal business.
- Internal conflicts and alleged member misconduct that does not violate university policy (e.g. meeting attendance, enrollment status, upholding organization mission, etc.), will be kept private and resolved by officers and the involved members. The club's faculty or staff advisor will be involved if necessary.
- Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.
- Serious concerns regarding the behavior of a member should be submitted in a report to one of the various reporting options offered by the University.

Article VX: Amendments

- Officers may amend the constitution as they see fit.
