

Bylaws of the Furman FUtones
Revised November 2017

Article I
Name

The name of this organization shall be the Furman FUtones.

Article II Members

The requirements for membership shall be in accordance with the Bylaws of the Furman FUtones.

Active Members:

Active members are undergraduate men or women matriculated at Furman University and must be actively working to achieve their degree.

Article III
Officers

Section 1. Designation

A. The officers of the Furman FUtones shall be:

- 1) President
- 2) Music Director
- 3) Treasurer
- 4) Social Chair
- 5) Publicity Chair
- 6) Publicity Team

Section 2. Eligibility and Election

- A. Elections will be held before the end of the spring term, at a time and place set by the Music Director and President.
- B. In order to be slated for an office, a member must be in good standing and have every intention of being able to serve during two terms: fall and spring of the following year.

Section 3. Vacancies

The remaining members of the Executive Board shall determine who will fill an officer position

if it becomes vacant. The group must approve their nomination with a 2/3rd majority.

Section 4. Duties

- A. The duties of the officers are listed within each position's binder.
- B. Each retiring officer is responsible for training his/her successor.
- C. An officer-training workshop led by the outgoing President shall be held. Each outgoing and incoming officer is responsible for assisting with the planning and presentation.
- D. Each officer shall maintain a binder and files relative to his/her office and give them to his/her successor.
- E. Officers will be personally responsible for budget overruns, as noted in the "Going Over Can Cost You" form, unless otherwise approved by the President and the Treasurer.

Section 5. Removal

An officer that is failing to perform the duties of office and failing to attend rehearsals can be removed from their position either immediately or at the end of term. The Music Director and President will determine the decision. If the Music Director or President is the member that could potentially be removed, then the executive board will decide.

Article VI Rehearsals and Mandatory Performances

Section 1. Rehearsals

- A. Rehearsals will be held on Sunday & Wednesday for 1.5 hours on Furman's Campus.
- B. If it is necessary due to unforeseen circumstances to change the date, time, or place of the rehearsal, notice must be provided to every member by the Music Director/President at least 24 hours in advance of the meeting.
- C. Members are allowed one unexcused absence for rehearsal.
- D. Members are allowed four excused absences for rehearsal.

Section 2. Mandatory Events

- A. Mandatory events include performances, dress rehearsals, recording, music video, other added rehearsal times, and any other event determined by the Music Director/President to be mandatory.
- B. All members must participate in mandatory events.
- C. The Music Director/President must announce and post on the database mandatory activities one week prior to the event.

Section 3. Absences

- A. Requests to be excused for rehearsal must be provided to the President/Music Director at least 24 hours in advance.
- B. Requests to be excused for mandatory events must be provided to the President/Music

Director at least 5 days in advance.

C. Excused absences include:

- a. Illness
- b. Death in the family
- c. Religious observations
- d. Varsity athletics
- e. Activities pre-approved by the President/Music Director
- f. Scheduled classes
- g. Additionally, employment conflict will only serve as an excused absence if the rehearsal/mandatory event was scheduled less than two weeks in advance.
- h. The President/Music Director will review excuses. The President/Music Director has discretion to excuse any other circumstances than listed here, as they deem appropriate.

D. Unexcused absences for rehearsal

- a. Excuses not received 24 hours before rehearsal will result in the absence being unexcused unless an emergency arises.
- b. Following the second unexcused absence from rehearsal, the member will be required to have a meeting with the President and Music Director. The member could potentially lose the privilege to audition for solos and/or potentially lose his/her current solos. The consequences will be up to the discretion of the Music Director and the President based on the circumstances of the situation.
- c. Excuses are valid only for the length of time of the conflict. Members must attend the remainder of rehearsal.

E. Unexcused absences for performances, recording, & music video

- a. Excuses not received 5 days before mandatory event will result in the absence being unexcused unless an emergency arises.
- b. Following the first unexcused absence from a performance, recording, or music video, the member will be required to meet with the President/Music Director. The member could lose the privilege to audition for solos and/or lose his/her current solos for an allotted time or indefinitely. The consequences will be up to the discretion of the Music Director and the President based on the circumstances of the situation.
- c. Excuses are valid only for the length of time of the conflict. Members must attend the remainder of the performance, recording, or music video.

F. Excused Absences for

- a. Following the fourth excused absence from rehearsal, the member will be required to have a meeting with the President and Music Director. The member could lose the privilege to audition for solos, lose his/her current solos for an allotted time or indefinitely, and/or lose the privilege to perform in the concert at the end of the semester. The consequences will be up to the discretion of the Music Director and the President based on the circumstances of the situation.

G. It is up to the President to keep track of all excused and unexcused absences.

Article V Executive Board

Section 1. Members

The executive board shall consist of the slated officers of the group.

Section 2. Meetings

A. Regular

- a. Regular meetings of the executive board shall be held biweekly, at an agreed-upon time.
- b. Notice of the regular meetings shall be provided to all members of the executive board via communication of the President.
- c. If it is necessary due to unforeseen circumstances to change the date, time, or place of the executive board meeting, notice must be provided to each executive board member.

Section 3. Other Requirements

- A. Executive Board members must function within an allotted budget. Any proposed expenditure over the budgeted amount must be brought to the attention of the treasurer and the president for approval before the expenditure is made.

Article VI Amendments