

Furman University Percussion Club Constitution

Article I. Purpose

The Furman University Percussion Club is an organization that exists to provide opportunities for Furman students to both perform and learn about all forms of percussion music. Contemporary percussion ensemble music, solo literature, jazz drumset, Trinidadian steel band music, African/Latin/Brazilian Percussion are just a sampling of the performance and educational opportunities available via the Furman University Percussion Club. The Furman Percussion Ensemble and various splinter groups (The Furman Drumline, etc...) perform concerts both on and off campus for a wide variety of events, including those that serve the music department, the Furman campus, the Upstate community, and the music community at large.

Article II. Membership

- A. Membership in the Furman University Percussion Club is open to any Furman student.
- B. Membership is required of all percussion majors and is open to all Furman students with the consent of the Director of Percussion Studies.

Article III. Materials

Furman University will provide all large percussion equipment (i.e. – bass drum, timpani, marimba, etc..) however, all sticks and mallets, as well as certain small percussion instruments, will be the responsibility of the students.

Article IV. Attendance and Discipline

Membership is dependent upon consistent attendance at, and preparation for, all rehearsals, masterclasses, clinics, and performances. In the case of an excused absence for a rehearsal, the member will secure the services of a capable substitute and receive permission from the director at least 24 hours prior to the rehearsal.

Article V. Leadership

- A. The Professor of Percussion's duties shall include:
 - 1. Serving as the advisor to the Percussion Club and Percussion Ensemble.
 - 2. Conduct rehearsals and performances of the club if a conductor is needed.
- B. The President's duties shall include:
 - 1. Serving as the SGA representative for the Percussion Club.
 - 2. Advertising performances of the percussion ensembles, including making flyers, online advertisements, and press releases.
 - 3. Filing the appropriate forms to use the funds provided to the Furman Percussion Club by the Student Government Association.
- C. The Treasurer's duties shall include:
 - 1. Working closely with the President to monitor all budgetary issues related to the percussion program
 - 2. Ensuring that all money earned at concerts is deposited into the proper account

ARTICLE VI: Election and Removal of Officers

- A. Officers shall be elected annually by the members of the Furman Percussion Club with approval by the Professor of Percussion.
- B. Elections will be held annually in April, and the term of office shall begin at the start of the ensuing academic year.
- C. All members shall have one vote. Any active member may nominate himself or herself, or any other member for a position.
- D. Any officer can only be removed from his/her office by a motion from another officer followed by a 2/3 majority vote of all of the active members.

Article VII. Amendments

This constitution shall be hereafter subject to amendments. After first obtaining a 3/4 majority vote of the group, the President may alter any portion of the constitution. All amendments must also be submitted to, and approved by, the Association of Furman Students in order to become finalized.
