

Constitution of The Furman University Spikeball Club

(Created January 2023)

I. The organization is to be called Furman Spikeball Club.

II. Constitution

The purpose of this constitution is to establish official positions, policies, and procedures for Furman Spikeball Club to promote organization and accountability. Additionally, this constitution will ensure continuity and stability for and by the members of Furman Spikeball Club.

III. Purpose

The purpose of Spikeball Club is to provide an environment to foster relationships, promote physical activity, and to cultivate the Furman student experience through the game of spikeball. The specific goals of Furman Spikeball Club will be to:

- A. Provide scheduled times for students to play spikeball in reserved spaces.
- B. Establish lines of communication among members of Spikeball Club for various purposes.
- C. Pursue relationships with other student organizations.
- D. Promote inclusion, community, friendliness, generosity, and an overall positive social culture on Furman's campus.

IV. Club Composition

- A. Any Furman student is eligible and welcome to join Spikeball Club.
- B. To become a member of Spikeball Club, students shall join the SyncDin portal.

V. The Board of Officers

A. Spikeball Club shall have a Board of Officers, composed of President, Executive Vice President, Treasurer, Vice President of Public Relations, and Vice President of Activities.

B. President: The President shall be the leader of the Board of Officers. The President's roles are as follows:

- i. To be present at and preside over all Board of Officer meetings.
- ii. To prepare for each Board meeting by developing an agenda for the meeting.
- iii. To establish and sustain regular communication with the members of Spikeball Club and create a platform for members of Spikeball Club to communicate directly with the President and other officers.
- iv. To facilitate communication amongst the members of the Board of Officers.
- v. To manage the official Furman Spikeball Club SyncDin page.
- vi. To enforce the constitution and ensure cooperation with its procedures in all club activities.

- vii. To oversee the general proceedings.
- viii. To delegate tasks that are not expressly outlined in the constitution to officers. Failure of an officer to complete a delegated task is not to be considered a constitutional breach unless deemed so by the Board of Officers.

C. Executive Vice President: The Executive Vice President shall be the second in command to the President. The roles of the Executive Vice President are as follows:

- i. To be present at Board of Officer meetings.
- ii. To preside over Board of Officer meetings under the circumstances that the President cannot attend.
- iii. To be prepared to complete the tasks of the President if the President is unable.
- iv. To become the President should the current President resign or be recalled.
- v. Track and record officer attendance at all Board of Officer meetings.
- vi. To reserve meeting spaces for club meetings and events.
- vii. To keep and maintain all non-financial administrative documents in an organized fashion.

D. Treasurer: The Treasurer shall be in charge of all club financial proceedings. The roles of the Treasurer are as follows:

- i. To be present at Board of Officer meetings
- ii. To work with officers to develop a semester budget.
- iii. To manage and track all club spending in an organized fashion.
- iv. To keep and maintain all club financial documents in an organized fashion.

E. Vice President of Public Relations: The roles of the Vice President of Public Relations are as follows:

- i. To be present at Board of Officer meetings.
- ii. To design all Spikeball Club merchandise.
- iii. To manage all club social media pages and provide regular updates.
- iv. To oversee the general marketing of the club.
- v. To complete the tasks of the Executive Vice President if they are unable to do so.

F. The Vice President of Activities: The roles of the Vice President of Activities are as follows:

- i. To be present at Board of Officer meetings.
- ii. To oversee club meetings and events.
- iii. To organize club tournaments and tailgates.

- iv. To facilitate co-sponsorships with other Furman Student Organizations.

G. New Positions: New positions shall be created at the discretion of the Board of Officers under the terms of a unanimous vote. Any new position is to be filled according to the protocols of electing new officers in Article V, Section J, or by an existing officer being transferred under the conditions of a dissolved position listed in Article IV, Section H.

H. Dissolving Positions: Positions may also be dissolved if deemed appropriate by unanimous vote of the Board of Officers. However, a position that is filled may not be dissolved unless the individual currently filling the position is recalled from the Board of Officers according to the protocols in Article V, section I, resigns their position, or agrees to fill a newly created position.

I. Recalling Officers: The recall of an officer shall take place under no circumstances with the exception of a constitutional breach of responsibilities by the officer. A recall must be initiated by the President and approved by the members of the Board of Officers excluding the officer being recalled.

J. Electing Officers

- i. ???

K. Board of Officer Meetings: The Board of Officers should schedule a weekly meeting time at the beginning of each semester.

- i. The scheduled meeting time must be approved by unanimous vote of the Board and should be considered of the highest priority to each officer. The scheduled meeting should include day of the week, time of the day, and location.
- ii. Each meeting should start with an address from the President detailing the agenda for the meeting.
 - 1. The agenda for the meeting must include officer updates and a look ahead.
- iii. After the address from the President, each officer will give a concise update about their overall progress and proceedings.
- iv. After each officer has given their update, the President will continue with the agenda he/she has prepared in an open forum manner. Proposals shall be voted on according to the voting procedures in Section L.
- v. Each meeting should address future plans for the club.

L. Voting:

- i. Matters that should be voted on include:
 - 1. Semesterly budget (Unanimous).
 - 2. Budget allocations (Majority).

3. Designs for merchandise that is to be a representation of Spikeball Club in any way (Majority).
 4. New officer positions (Unanimous).
 5. Weekly Board of Officers meeting time (Unanimous).
 6. Scheduled club meetings (Unanimous).
 7. Events, tailgates, and tournaments (Majority).
 8. Any matter for which any officer requests a vote (Majority).
- ii. The President shall preside over voting. Officers can choose to abstain from a vote at their own discretion.
 - iii. Dissenting: Any officer voting against a motion shall briefly deliver a dissenting opinion explaining why they disagree with the motion.
 - iv. Re-voting: Any officer can request a re-vote after a dissenting opinion is given. An officer cannot request a re-vote more than twice on the same matter. A re-vote cannot occur after the matter has been settled.
 - v. Settling: A matter of voting is considered settled if any of the following occur:
 1. It passes unanimously.
 2. Dissenting opinions have been given and re-voting privileges by the dissenting party have been exhausted or waived.
 3. The President deems it appropriate to table the vote and discuss at a later date.

VI.