

Furman University Triathlon Club Constitution

Article I. Name

The formal name of this organization is the Furman Triathlon Club.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of the Furman Triathlon Club is..

- (i) to promote endurance events and multi-sport events and to provide information and group training sessions for club members.
- (ii) to provide an avenue of camaraderie in the university community through common interests in endurance events and multi-sport events.
- (iii) to provide a positive, supportive, open atmosphere in the traditional spirit of individual endurance sports for all regardless of ability.

Article III: Affiliations

The Furman Triathlon Club is affiliated with USA Triathlon and Southeast Collegiate Triathlon Conference (SECTC).

Article IV. Membership Composition

- (i) Students enrolled as full-time students at Furman University are eligible for club membership.
- (ii) Interested students are not considered members of the Furman Triathlon Club until all necessary forms are completed and on file with Club officers.
- (iii) If the Club Officers unanimously see that a member has violated the club constitution or has been acting or performing in a way that he/she should be removed, then the member may be removed from the club roster and unable to participate in club activities. The removal of a member is up to the discretion of the Club Officers and Club Advisor.

Article V. Organization Officers

Organization officers shall be selected by nomination and election by majority vote. Officers shall be elected at the end of the Spring semester each year and will serve a term of 1 year.

The organizational officers shall be composed President and Vice President.

- (i) Duties of the President
 - a. The President is the primary student contact for the organization.
 - b. The President deals with all aspects of the budget and event planning.The president organizes club activities.

- c. To complete any and all training required by University Student Life and/or the Club Sports Office in order to remain an active student organization and Club Sport
 - d. To ensure that all requirements of the Club Sports Office are fulfilled in order to stay in good standing as defined by the Club Sports Office.
 - e. To schedule club meetings as needed to go over club business and logistics for upcoming events.
 - f. To oversee and act as a leader for all team activities, such as scheduling of workouts, participation in races and the purchase of team clothing.
- (ii) Duties of the Vice President
- a. To complete any and all training required by University Student Life and/or the Club Sports Office in order to remain an active student organization and Club Sport .
 - b. The Vice President fills in for the President when the President is unable to perform their duties due to conflict (inherits all presidential responsibilities)
 - c. To, with the President, apply to the Club Sports Office each year for Club Sports' funding
 - d. To oversee all forms of public relations for the team, including but not limited to all social media venues used by the club.
 - e. To keep and maintain a current roster of all active team members, ensuring that all members have turned in all necessary forms.

Article VI. Organization Decision Making Model

The Furman Triathlon Club shall use a majority vote to make its decisions.

Article VII. Meetings

The President and Vice President are responsible for scheduling club meetings and club workouts.

(i) Frequency

The President and Vice President shall hold meetings as seen appropriate.

(ii) Structure

Meetings will be called to order by the Club Officer(s) and ended by the Club Officer(s) for however long seen fit by the Club Officer(s).

Article VIII. Organization Advisor

The faculty advisor will be available as needed by the President.

Article IX. Organization Funds

Funds will come from Furman University. If more funds are needed, the team may host fundraising activities and/or events as well as seek external sponsorship.

Article X. Amending the Constitution

This Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds vote or all present club members. A proposed amendment to the constitution must be submitted for voting by an officer to all members at least one week before the time of the vote. Upon receiving the two-thirds vote in favor of a constitutional amendment, the organization advisor will be informed of the amendment. A revised copy of the Constitution shall be distributed to the active membership and the Office of Student Life and the Club Sports Office.

Article XI. Enabling Clause

This Constitution shall go into effect on 1/1/16 upon approval of two-thirds vote in favor by all present voting members. This Constitution shall replace and render null any and all previous constitutions, procedures, practices and precedents for this organization