

Furman University Men's Club Golf Constitution

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman University Men's Club Golf.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of Furman University Men's Club Golf shall be to foster teamwork and leadership through the coordination of practices, team-building activities, and tournaments. Furman University Men's Club Golf will work toward its goals by cultivating team bonding and starting off each season with a list of intentions for the upcoming season.

Article III: Affiliations

The Furman University Men's Club Golf team is a member of the National Collegiate Club Golf Association. It organizes tournaments around the country for collegiate club golf teams to participate in. There are regional directors who should be contacted with any questions or concerns about affiliations.

Article IV: Membership

All Furman University undergraduate, day students are eligible for membership. At the beginning of the year, club officers will hold a meeting to discuss potential new members. A student seeking membership may only be denied based on skill and experience playing golf alone. A majority vote among officers must be present to deny a student membership into the organization.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

Officers/Positions:

- ☐ President: coordinates and schedules tee times for practice, schedules and coaches tournaments, creates tournament by tournament roster, and oversees entire organization.
- ☐ Vice President: talks with other officers to organize meetings or rides, and is responsible for distributing the schedule to the club.
- ☐ Treasurer: manages all spending, books hotels, keeps track of the account balance, and ensures reimbursement.

Elections Process:

- ☐ Any current member of the club who will be enrolled as an undergraduate, day student at Furman University is eligible to run for a position. They can be nominated by peers or self-nominated.
- ☐ The current administration comprised of the president, vice president, and treasurer will vote to elect the nominated members into the new administration. Majority vote is needed.
- ☐ The election process will take place each spring semester.
- ☐ Current officer are eligible for re-election, if they will be enrolled as an undergraduate, day student at Furman University the following year.

Article VI: Advisor

The advisor shall not have any decision-making or voting authority within the organization, however he may be consulted for advice if needed by the officers.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings will be held once a semester to plan out the schedule for the semester, and can also be held more often, at the discretion of the officers.

Article VIII: Finance

The organization will submit a budget once a year to the club sports department to receive adequate funding for the following year.

Article IX: Amendments

An amendment to the constitution may be requested by any member of the organization. A proposed amendment must then be submitted to the officers and a meeting will be held to discuss this change. Then a vote among the officers will be held and a majority vote will see the pass of the amendment.

BYLAWSArticle I: Membership

- ☐ Members are required to be involved in the organization. If a member does not participate in at least one event during the year (practice, tournament, meeting, etc.), the officers have the right to vote to remove the person from the club with a majority.
- ☐ If a member conducts themselves in a manner that is not a representation of the values or purpose of the club, the officers have the right to vote to remove the person from the club with a majority.

Article II: Removal of Officers

- ☐ The removal of an officer will be conducted with a majority consensus among the team, and typed submission with the reasoning must be presented to the entire team.
- ☐ A majority vote among the team will see the resignation of the officer.
- ☐ Prior to the vote, the accused will have 5 minutes to present an argument if they so desire.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

- ☐ If there is a majority consensus among the team that the removal of an officer is necessary, a majority vote among the team will see this through.
- ☐ The officers will be responsible for selecting candidates for a new advisor. The officers will present the candidates to the team, and the team will vote to select a new advisor with a majority vote.

Article IV: Committees

- ☐ The officers have the right to create and appoint members to a committee as they see necessary, but any committee formed will be ad-hoc.

Article V: Rules of Order

- ☐ Any conflict among the team can be resolved by a majority vote among the team.

- ☐ Because the President of the club is responsible for overseeing the club, their vote will be the deciding vote if a tie were to occur.

Article VI: Amendments

- ☐ Any amendment of the bylaws will follow the same guidelines as amendments to the constitution.