

Furman University Club Golf Team Constitution and Bylaws

Article I: Name

The name of this organization shall be the "Furman University Club Golf Team."

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of the Furman University Club Golf Team is to provide Furman University students with an opportunity to participate in golf at a competitive and recreational level, promote sportsmanship, and foster a sense of community among members.

Article III: Membership

Eligibility: Membership is open to all current Furman University students in good academic standing.

Dues: Membership dues shall be determined by the executive board each academic year and must be paid in full to participate in team activities.

Rights and Responsibilities: Members are expected to participate in team practices, tournaments, and meetings, uphold the values of the team, and represent Furman University with integrity.

Article IV: Executive Board

Officers:

President: Oversees all club activities, represents the team to the university and external organizations, and calls and presides over meetings.

Vice President: Assists the President and assumes duties in the President's absence, coordinates events and tournaments.

Term of Office: Officers shall serve for one academic year and may be re-elected for subsequent terms.

Vacancies: In the event of a vacancy, the executive board shall appoint a member to fill the position until the next election.

Article VI: Finances

Budget: The President shall prepare a budget at the beginning of each academic year, subject to approval by the executive board.

Expenditures: All expenditures must be approved by the President.

Fundraising: The club shall engage in fundraising activities to support team expenses.

Article VII: Code of Conduct

Sportsmanship: Members must demonstrate respect, fairness, and integrity both on and off the golf course.

Disciplinary Action: Any member violating the club's rules or code of conduct may be subject to disciplinary action, including suspension or expulsion from the team.

Article VIII: Amendments

Proposing Amendments: Amendments to this constitution may be proposed by any member of the club.

Approval: Proposed amendments must be approved by a two-thirds majority of members present at a meeting.