

DRIVER'S LICENSE RECORDS CHECK RELEASE OF INFORMATION WAIVER

Furman University's insurance carrier requires that the University conduct a regular driver's license record check of all persons regularly operating a motor vehicle for business. This includes University owned vehicle and rental vehicles in which the University is paying the rental fee or reimbursing the driver for the rental fee. The University Police Department conducts this record check. If your driving record is not within compliance with the University's Policy #389.4, Driver Qualification and Vehicle Safety, the Director of University Police will inform you, your immediate supervisor or student advisor. Upon receipt of an unsatisfactory record check, Human Resources and Risk Management may be made aware of the results.

I understand that records check of my driving record is required by Furman University for the above stated purpose. The below information which I am providing and the result of the records check will be shared with the persons indicated above. Furman University will regard this information as confidential and shall not release the same to any other person not listed above without my consent.
