

Constitution of the Furman University Student Activities Board

(Last Updated April 2, 2019)

I. The Organization will be called the Furman University Student Activities Board (FUSAB).

II. Purpose

The purpose of FUSAB will be to serve the students by planning, coordinating, and executing social activities for the Furman student body. The specific goals of FUSAB will be to:

- A. Assist in creating a positive social atmosphere among Furman students.
- B. Pursue open and friendly relationships with other student organizations.
- C. Ensure that the board is constantly seeking improvement for its programs in order to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse student body.
- D. Ensure that a spirit of shared responsibility permeates through its members, meetings, and events.

III. Mission

FUSAB will provide entertainment for the student body according to campus interests while also providing opportunities for students to have experiences that they may not otherwise have. It will instill in its members a sense of leadership, organization, cooperation, and innovation. FUSAB's activities will reflect the board belief that entertainment is multifaceted and can encompass a wide array of activities, including those that are educational and cultural.

IV. Board Composition

A. Membership is not to exceed 61 students, unless deemed appropriate by the Executive Committee.

1. This will be brought to the Applications Committee and must be approved by a 90% vote.
2. The Board cannot be increased by more than one additional member per application period.

B. A minimum of 7 students from each class must be on the board at all times.

C. Applications

1. The selection of new members will be a three-fold process consisting of a written application, a group workshop, and an individual interview.
2. Applications will be accepted Fall semester and may be accepted in Spring Semester if deemed necessary by a 2/3 vote of the board.
3. The applications committee will consist of the six executive officers, along with general board members, who will be chosen using an applications process that occurs in the previous Spring Semester.

4. The President, with the general consensus of the executive officers, will choose the five general board members who are to serve on the committee.
5. The applications committee will meet in the Spring Semester to establish criteria for scoring and the procedure for selecting new members.
6. The President will oversee the applications process, will serve as a co-chair, and direct both the group and individual meetings, but will maintain strict impartiality.
7. The six executive officers will select one general board member to serve as co-chair to the President. These two people will be responsible for all administrative and logistical tasks throughout the applications process.
8. The co-chairs, along with the other nine members of the applications committee should follow the applications process as outlined in Bylaw V.
9. In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.
