

Constitution of the Furman University Student Activities Board

(Last Updated April 13, 2025)

I. The Organization will be called the Furman University Student Activities Board (FUSAB).

II. FUSAB is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University Policies set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

III. Purpose

The purpose of FUSAB will be to serve the students by planning, coordinating, and executing social activities for the Furman student body. The specific goals of FUSAB will be to:

- A. Assist in creating a positive social atmosphere among Furman students.
- B. Pursue open and friendly relationships with other student organizations.
- C. Ensure that the board is constantly seeking improvement for its programs in order to meet the needs of an increasingly diverse student body.

IV. Mission

FUSAB will provide entertainment for the student body according to campus interests, while also providing opportunities for students to have experiences that they may not otherwise have. It will instill in its members a sense of leadership, organization, cooperation, and innovation. FUSAB's activities will reflect the board's belief that entertainment is multifaceted and can encompass a wide array of activities, including those that are educational and cultural.

V. Board Composition

A. Membership is not to exceed 61 students unless deemed appropriate by the Executive Council.

- 1. This will be brought to the Applications Committee and must be approved by a 90% vote.
- 2. The Board cannot be increased by more than one additional member per application period, based upon the roster size at the end of the spring semester. The size of each new member class will be at the discretion of the president and applications chair based on the roster size before the application cycle begins.

B. A minimum of 7 students from each class must be on the board at all times.

C. Applications

1. The selection of new members will be a three-fold process consisting of a written application, a group workshop, and an individual interview.
2. Applications will be accepted Fall semester and may be accepted in Spring Semester if deemed necessary by a 2/3 vote of the board.
3. The applications committee will consist of the President, Parliamentarian, and Applications Chair along with a maximum of 8 other board members, who will be chosen using an application process that occurs in the previous Spring Semester.
4. The President and Applications Chair will select a maximum of 8 other members to serve on the Applications Committee, regardless of position in FUSAB.
5. The applications committee will be a Seasonal Committee
6. The applications committee will meet prior to the start of the Fall semester to establish criteria for scoring and the procedure for selecting new members.
7. The President will oversee the application process, will serve as a co-chair, and direct both the group and individual meetings, but will maintain strict impartiality.
8. The six Executive Council will select one general board member to serve as co-chair to the President. These two people will be responsible for all administrative and logistical tasks throughout the application process.
9. The co-chairs, along with the other nine members of the applications committee should follow the application process as outlined in By law V.
10. In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, ability, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

B. Attendance

1. A member must notify the Vice President of Administration in advance in order to receive an excused absence for a general board meeting. The Vice President of Administration will deem absences excused or unexcused.

2. A member must notify the chair in advance in order to receive an excused absence from a committee meeting. The chair will deem absences excused or unexcused.

3. Members are limited to 3 unexcused absences from board meetings and 3 unexcused absences from committee meetings per semester, members that exceed this number will be subjected to probation.

Financial Guidelines

A. Check/Credit Card Requests

1. Payment cards must be checked out following the appropriate process. The FUSAB card sign-out sheet must be filled out and the index card with the board member's name as well as the board member's personal credit card must replace the FUSAB card before FUSAB card is checked out for use. All receipts must be turned in to the Vice President of Finance by the end of the month.

2. Check requests should be made at least 2 weeks in advance via SyncDin. Anyone on the board will be able to make such a request.
- B. Reimbursement Request
1. Receipts must be attached to the reimbursement form. Allow 2 weeks for reimbursement. The Vice President of Finance cannot reimburse themselves; the president or advisor must do so.
- C. Cash Box Request:
1. Inform the Vice President of Finance one week in advance of when the cash boxes will be used and how much change is needed. The cash box must be returned immediately after use.
- D. Petty Cash Request
1. The request must be made at least three days prior to the event. The Check/Credit Card Request form must be used for all requests. Every time cash is removed a receipt must be filled out and left in the safe.
- E. Rollovers
1. Rollovers can only ~~happen with approval of the general board and can only~~ consist of money left over from the previous semester. They can only be requested when a committee has budgeted all of their money for the current semester. Money that is not rolled over will move into the UNA (reserve).
- F. Unrestricted Net Assets Fund
1. The Unrestricted Net Assets fund will be maintained at $30,000. Should it fall below this number at any time, the following terms' budgets will be adjusted to compensate for the loss as the Executive Council sees fit. Should it exceed $30,000, the surplus will be redistributed to the committee in the corresponding term of the following year.
- G. Budget
1. The annual budget will be presented at the Fall retreat.

Application Process

A. The application process will have set regulations on how many applicants can proceed through to the next round. The applications committee can only bring a maximum of 100 applicants from the written application round to the group interview round. When moving from the group interview round to the individual interview round, the applications committee can only bring a maximum of half plus one applicant to the next round. After the final individual interviews, the applications committee will choose their top x applicants, with x being the number of desired new members in that application cycle.

B. The Parliamentarian will be in charge of new member onboarding with the assistance of other members of the Executive Council at the discretion of the Parliamentarian.

Recall of Members - Probationary Period

A. The member will be required to fulfill two additional event points, two additional pub points, and one additional office hour while completing standard term requirements; these additional requirements can be substituted with a special project(s) as deemed appropriate by the Executive Council. Failure to complete point requirements will result in a meeting with the Executive Council and that member. Those with incomplete requirements will receive a letter announcing probation. After receiving this probation letter, a member may not reach probation again during his/her/their term as a FUSAB member or that member will be excused from the board at the end of the semester.

1. The Council reserves the right to terminate a previously or currently probated member immediately by means of a unanimous vote of the Council if that member continues to fail to meet the requirements of members as stated in Article VI, Section

Voting Requirements

A. When a motion for an event from a committee is equal to or greater than 10% of the committee's annual respective budget, the board will discuss and vote on the motion. The motion for the event cannot be passed by unanimous consent.

B. All events must be passed by a 2/3 majority.

Missing event shifts

A. When a member can't fulfill obligations for an event shift they have signed up for, including events off campus they are the representatives for, they are responsible for finding a board member to replace them and communicating that with the VPP.

B. Members who fail to fulfill an event shift they have signed up for will not be penalized after the first occurrence. After the second occurrence, they will lose two event shift points. After this, they will continue to lose two event points for each shift missed, and they will be required to meet with the VPP and President, ~~and the advisor.~~

Social Media Coordinator

A. The Social Media Coordinator shall be a position selected in the same fashion as Committee Chairs, by the Executive Council.

B. The responsibilities of the Coordinator will be:

1. Attend meetings of the Committee Chairs.
2. Coordinate and manage control of all official FUSAB social media accounts.
3. Make a calendar of planned social media posts with the VPM
4. Ensure all FUSAB events are represented on the official social media accounts.

Co-sponsorship Voting Procedures

A. Motions presented to the board by the Parliamentarian can be rushed to Old Business and only require a simple majority (50% plus one) to pass.

B. Only co-sponsorships involving the allocation of funds from the co-sponsorship budget are required to be approved by the board.
