

Furman University, Gymnastics Club Constitution

Article I: Name

The formal name of this organization shall be Furman Club Gymnastics.

Article II: Purpose

The purpose of Furman Club Gymnastics shall be to create an inclusive community where every student, regardless of their previous experience, can enjoy gymnastics, build confidence, and improve their physical fitness. FU Gymnastics Club will create a space where people eager to learn skills can safely and comfortably be able to do so.

Article III: Affiliations

FU Gymnastics Club is an organization within Furman SGA.

Outside of Furman University, the Gymnastics Club is affiliated with the Foothills Gymnastics Center in Easley, SC. This gym allows us to hold weekly practices.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

Article IV: Membership

All members of the Furman community, excluding non-students are eligible for membership within the FU Gymnastics Club.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article V: Officers

The club will have the leadership titles of President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary.

The qualifications for VP and President include willingness to assist in the health and operation of the organization, a passion for Gymnastics, and an ability to lead a group of individuals. Ideally, officers will have good experience in the gymnastics field, though this is not strictly required. All classes are eligible to be officers. The typical term of service is one year, though positions can be maintained if the circumstances require such.

Article VI: Advisor

The advisor holds a strictly bureaucratic position and does have authority within the organization. Input and support is welcomed.

Article VII: Meetings

Practices will be held weekly- likely on a Wednesday or a Friday.

Article VIII: Finance

Funding will come from SGA and the Club Sports council. Active members will possibly have to pay dues, depending on the financial situation and demands of the club.

Article IX: Amendments

Amending the constitution should be a fairly easy and liberal process as the nature of the club is flexible. The officers of the club should first meet to discuss any amendments and then they can be made.

BYLAWS

Article I: Membership

There will be no different categories of membership and no application or selection process. Furthermore, you must have had at least some previous experience in Gymnastics, cheerleading, or adjacent sports before gaining membership. Members will be removed by the president after a conversation and removal from the GroupMe.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Officers are selected and elected by attending practices and by being an active member of the club. They would have to be elected by the president of the club.

The primary duties of go to the president who runs the organization, speaks to the gym and coordinates practices. The president will also keep track of time, and hours of practices held. The vice president would help out the president with extra activities and attend each practice. As the club be more room for other officials. The procedure that would follow the event of a vacancy, would be the president would pick the next best candidate. The process of removing an officer from a position would be to go to the club advisor or the club office to make an official decision.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

How is the advisor selected?

A professor is asked that is trusted, and that the present is close to.

To remove an advisor, presidents are expected to communicate with the club, sports counsel, or to communicate with their advisor that they will be choosing someone else.

Article IV: Committees

The committees that will be established will be, president, vice president, and treasurer.

President runs the organization, speaks to the gym, and coordinates practices. President will also keep track of time and hours of practices held. VP would be to help out the president with extra activities and attend each practice. The treasurer would keep track of how much money we have to spend and how many practices we can attend. The process for establishing ad-hoc committees would be the president assigned to who they see fit the position.

Article V: Rules of Order

Business would be conducted by working with foothills gymnastics Center, establishing a further relationship with the owner and the gyms couches. Internal conflicts will be resolved by the president talking directly to the manager of foothills, gymnastics, center.

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

What is the process for amending the bylaws?

The process of amending the bylaws would be to speak to the SGA council. Gymnastics club would be a general SGA organization.

Membership Requirements: To ensure a positive and productive environment within the Gymnastics Club, members are expected to uphold the club's mission, attend scheduled meetings and practices, and maintain active enrollment status at the university.