

Furman University Trumpet Society Constitution

Article I. Furman University Trumpet Society

The formal name of the organization shall be the Furman University Trumpet Society.

Article II. Purpose

The purpose of the Furman Trumpet Society is to provide opportunities for Furman students to both perform and learn about playing the Trumpet and other Brass instruments and to encourage the exploration of different genres such as Classical, Contemporary, Jazz, and Commercial music. With a community of student musicians all playing together, each will learn from their fellow students and grow into more articulate musicians. Students will have a chance to ask questions about Trumpet repertoire with fellow students, perform for their peers, and become more connected with the music community in the Greenville area. The Furman University Trumpet Society members will perform concerts and exhibitions at Furman music community events and intercollegiate events when possible. Provides the Furman community with supplemental learning and performance opportunities to grow their musicianship and professional development.

Article III. Membership

Membership in the Furman University Trumpet Society is open to any Furman students who pays the student activities fee. In keeping with Furman's discrimination policy, membership will be open to all students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

Article IV. Affiliations

Furman's Trumpet Society will be affiliated with the Furman Department of Music. The advisor for the Furman Trumpet Society will be Professor David Deshler.

Article V. Officers

Officers shall be elected annually by all active members of the Furman Trumpet Society and may be reelected for multiple years. Elections will be held annually in April, and the term of office shall begin at the start of the ensuing academic year. All members shall have one vote. Any active member may nominate themselves or any other member for a position. Once nominations have taken place, voting will be conducted by secret ballot with a popular majority.

Article VI. Duties of Officers

Officers shall consist of a President, Vice President, Treasurer, Social Chair, Historian, Alumni Relations Chair, and Media Chair.

The duties of the President shall include:

- Setting meeting times and organizing activities during the meeting time
- Establishing relations around the Furman community and organizing performances
- Serving as the SGA representative for the organization

The duties of the Vice-President shall include:

- Being able to work in place of the President or help with the workload of the President
- To organize ballots and head the nomination and voting process of new officers

The duties of the Treasurer shall include:

- To create the annual SGA funding request application
- Manage the annual budget and provide reimbursements

The duties of the Social Chair shall include:

- Organizing events that connect the Trumpet Society members and the community
- Act as representative on Furman Music audition days and university recruitment events

The duties of the Historian shall include:

- Maintaining a database of information regarding society leadership and performances of studio members.

The duties of the Alumni Relations Chair shall include:

- The planning and organization of the Furman Trumpet Alumni Network.
- Updating the Furman Trumpet Alumni on current studio events.

The duties of the Media Chair shall include:

- Updating all social media platforms
- Capturing photos, videos, and audio of notable Trumpet Society events
- Take photos of the group after performances

Article VII. Conflict in the Organization

If conflict in the organization arises, it is first and foremost the task of the president to help solve this conflict between members. They will be the first person that organization members should go to regarding conflict. The president will call for a meeting that includes themselves and members involved in the conflict, where members are given a moderated space to talk about the issue at hand. This space will be confidential unless someone is causing harm to themselves or others. If that is the case, it shall be the task of the faculty advisor to resolve the conflict.

Article VIII. Finances and Materials

A budget form will be requested to cover costs associated with performance events, Guest Artists, workshops, conferences, festivals, sheet music, and auxiliary instruments (i.e. – Trumpets, Flugelhorns, Cornets, Other Keyed Trumpets, etc.). All mouthpieces and maintenance items will be the responsibility of the students.