

Bylaws of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority

ARTICLE I – NAME AND OBJECTS

This Sorority is incorporated under the nonprofit corporation laws of the State of Georgia as “Alpha Delta Pi Sorority” with its objects as “the mental, moral and religious improvement and social enjoyment of the members thereof, and the general welfare of those institutions of learning at which chapters of the Sorority may heretofore have been, or may hereafter be, organized or established.”

ARTICLE II – GOVERNING ENACTMENTS

This Sorority exists as a corporation pursuant to the provisions of the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code and Articles of Incorporation granted there under by authority of the State of Georgia and, subject to such Code and said Articles, it is governed by these Bylaws, the Standing Rules of Alpha Delta Pi Document (“Standing Rules”), the Statements of Policy Document (“Policies”), or other enactments of the Grand Convention or Grand Council duly adopted in accordance with authority of these Bylaws. All the aforementioned documents shall be known as the Governing Documents of this Sorority. In the event of any conflicting Standing Rules, Policies or other enactments, these Bylaws shall prevail. These Bylaws shall constitute the corporate bylaws required by said Code.

ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Classifications.

Alpha Delta Pi shall have the following membership classifications:

- A. Alpha Member. A member who has accepted an invitation to join a Collegiate Chapter or Newly Establishing Chapter of the Sorority shall be known as an Alpha member until she is initiated. If an Alpha member (1) ceases to be a student at the College or University, (2) fails to become eligible for initiation as provided in the Standing Rules, or (3) voluntarily resigns, her Alpha membership thereupon shall terminate automatically. If a membership is terminated without prejudice, an invitation to membership may be re-extended to the individual at the sole discretion of the Collegiate Chapter.
- B. Delta Member. An initiated member enrolled as an undergraduate student at a College or University where she was initiated into or affiliated with a Collegiate Chapter as provided in the Standing Rules shall be known as a Delta member.
- C. Alumna Member. An initiated member in good standing who has graduated or who is no longer required to be a member of a Collegiate Chapter, as provided in the Standing Rules, shall be known as an Alumna member. A Delta member may have her status changed to that of Alumna member at the sole discretion of Grand Council under circumstances including without limitation: (1) if the individual member is subject to an active probation; (2) if the Collegiate Chapter has been placed on probation; (3) if the charter of the Collegiate Chapter is withdrawn, suspended, or relinquished; or (4) if the Collegiate Chapter is to be reorganized.

Section 2. Qualifications for Membership.

- A. Membership Selection. Alpha Delta Pi is a private membership organization for women, which affirms the worth of every individual. Alpha Delta Pi actively encourages a membership that represents a diverse population and does not discriminate in membership selection procedures. No woman who currently is, or ever has been, an initiated member of another National Panhellenic Conference sorority shall be eligible for membership in Alpha Delta Pi.
- B. Collegiate Initiate. No woman may be extended an invitation to membership who does not meet the requirements in the Standing Rules, the local collegiate Panhellenic rules, and any other requirements prescribed by the Collegiate Chapter’s Governing Documents. An Alpha member shall not be initiated until she has met all Delta membership standards of that Collegiate Chapter or Newly Establishing Chapter.
- C. Alumna Initiate. Any woman who has met the Alumna membership initiate requirements of this Sorority as provided in the Standing Rules is eligible for membership.

Section 3. Good Standing.

- A. Qualifications for Good Standing as an Alpha or Delta Member. An Alpha or Delta member is in good standing if she has met all academic and financial obligations of this Sorority and her Collegiate Chapter, as provided in the Bylaws and the Standing Rules, and is not on individual probation or suspension.
- B. Qualifications for Good Standing as an Alumna Member. An Alumna member is in good standing if she has met all financial obligations of this Sorority, as provided in these Bylaws and the Standing Rules, and is not on individual probation or suspension.

Section 4. Member Accountability and Disciplinary Procedures.

All member accountability and disciplinary procedures shall be conducted in accordance with the Governing Documents of this Sorority. Any decision of Grand Council regarding member accountability and disciplinary procedures shall be final and binding and not subject to appeal.

- A. Just Cause. Alpha, Delta, and Alumnae members may be subject to member accountability and disciplinary measures when there is a finding that “Just Cause” exists. Just Cause, which may be further defined in the Standing Rules, includes without limitation: (1) engaging in unlawful, unethical or immoral conduct, or conduct that violates the rules or standards of conduct of these Bylaws or the Standing Rules; (2) violating the rules or standards of conduct of the Collegiate Chapter or the College or University in which she is enrolled; (3) consistently failing or refusing to fulfill the duties of membership or office in the Sorority without cause; or (4) otherwise acting to the derogation of the Sorority. The member shall be afforded the procedures set forth in the Standing Rules, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard, before a finding that Just Cause exists. A certified copy of any judgment of a court of law under which a member has been convicted of a crime shall be conclusive evidence of the commission of an unlawful act.
- B. Probation: Alpha and Delta Members. Alpha and Delta members may be placed on probation for Just Cause in accordance with the member accountability and disciplinary procedures set forth in the Standing Rules. At any time during the probation, the Collegiate Chapter may terminate or reduce the time or conditions of probation. An Alpha or Delta member shall be reinstated to full respective membership privileges upon the end of the probation unless Grand Council, in its sole discretion, changes the status of the Delta member to Alumna member. When a Collegiate Chapter places an Alpha member on probation, the decision of the Collegiate Chapter will be final.
- C. Probation: Alumnae Members. Alumnae members may be placed on probation for Just Cause in accordance with the member accountability and disciplinary procedures set forth in the Standing Rules. An alumna member shall be reinstated to full membership privileges upon the end of the probation.
- D. Probation Imposed by Direct Action of Grand Council. When Grand Council believes that there is Just Cause for imposing probation, Grand Council may take such action against a member and shall follow the procedures as provided in the Standing Rules. The member shall be reinstated to full membership privileges upon the end of the probation.
- E. Fines. A Collegiate Chapter may impose fines against a member in accordance with the Standing Rules of the Sorority and the Chapter’s Standing Rules.
- F. Other Accountability and Disciplinary Measures. When a Collegiate Chapter finds through the proceedings required by the Standing Rules that Just Cause exists, it may take other accountability and disciplinary action against an Alpha or Delta member as provided by the Standing Rules, the Chapter’s Bylaws, the Chapter’s Standing Rules, and/or any other Governing Document of the Collegiate Chapter. Such action may include the loss or suspension of some or all of the rights and privileges of membership and/or a requirement that the member take certain steps to remedy the situation giving rise to accountability and disciplinary proceedings.
- G. Emergency Accountability and Disciplinary Measures. Notwithstanding the previous sections, Grand Council may suspend the membership rights and privileges of any Alpha, Delta, or Alumna member without a prior hearing whenever failure to suspend such rights and privileges might reasonably be anticipated to result in: (1) the loss of or damage to the property of any person or entity, including a House Corporation; (2) the loss of or damage to human life, health, or safety; and/or (3) serious damage to the reputation of the Sorority. In any such case, Grand Council shall follow the procedures as provided in the Standing Rules.

- H. Membership Cancellation. In accordance with the procedures set forth in the Standing Rules, a membership may be canceled: (1) upon a member's request; (2) for financial reasons; (3) through accountability and disciplinary procedures resulting from a recommendation from the member's Collegiate Chapter or Alumnae Association after finding that Just Cause exists; or (4) by direct action of Grand Council after finding that Just Cause exists. A Collegiate Chapter may cancel an Alpha membership in accordance with the procedures set forth in the Standing Rules.
- I. Effect of Cancellation. Upon cancellation of her membership, a member shall immediately forfeit her badge, membership certificate, and all other insignia of membership by delivering all items to her Collegiate Chapter, Alumnae Association, or to Executive Office. Cancellation or termination of a member's membership will not relieve the member from any fees, dues or other obligations to the Sorority that arose or accrued prior to and including the effective date of such cancellation or termination.
- J. Right of Appeal. Any initiated member may appeal an accountability and disciplinary decision to Grand Council regarding her membership. Procedures for appeals to Grand Council are provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 5. Reinstatement.

Procedures for reinstatement of a membership are provided in the Standing Rules.

ARTICLE IV– DIVISIONS AND SUPPORTING ORGANIZATIONS

Section 1. Divisions.

The Divisions of the Sorority shall be Newly Establishing Chapters, Collegiate Chapters, and Alumnae Associations.

- A. Newly Establishing Chapters. A Newly Establishing Chapter shall be a group of women at a particular College or University, organized by Alpha Delta Pi, with the intent to become a chartered Collegiate Chapter in accordance with the procedures provided in the Standing Rules. A Newly Establishing Chapter shall exist until it is installed as a Collegiate Chapter or disbanded by Grand Council.
- B. Collegiate Chapters. Collegiate Chapters shall be those holding charters, granted by Grand Council, at Colleges or Universities. Collegiate Chapters shall be composed of Alpha and Delta members. A Chapter Advisory Board, as provided in the Standing Rules, shall advise each Collegiate Chapter. The Sorority will provide in-person Collegiate Officer and Chapter Advisor conference(s) annually near the beginning of new officer terms dedicated to the training and development of Collegiate Officers and Chapter Advisors. Planning and execution of such conferences shall be led by International Officers in partnership with Executive Office as provided in the Standing Rules.
- C. Alumnae Associations. Alumnae Associations shall be a group of Alumnae members chartered according to the procedures in the Standing Rules.
- D. Geographical Territories. The geographical territories within which are located the Divisions of the Sorority shall be divided into Districts, Regions, Provinces, and such other divisions as provided in the Standing Rules in order to provide for their efficient administration and supervision.
- E. Voluntary Suspension or Relinquishment of Charter by Collegiate Chapter. The Charter of a Collegiate Chapter may be suspended or relinquished by a two-thirds vote of the Delta members in good standing of the Collegiate Chapter that is certified in writing by an Executive Officer of the Chapter, and subject to the approval of a majority vote of Grand Council. Grand Council shall rely on such certification in good faith for purposes of voting on the acceptance of the suspension or relinquishing of a Collegiate Chapter Charter.
- F. Voluntary Relinquishment of Charter by Alumnae Association. The Charter of an Alumnae Association may be relinquished by a two-thirds vote of the members of the Alumnae members voting at a meeting called for the purpose of relinquishing the charter. The vote shall be certified in writing by an officer of the Alumnae Association, subject to the approval of a majority vote of Grand Council. Grand Council shall rely on such certification in good faith for purposes of voting on the acceptance of the relinquishing of an Alumnae Association charter. An Alumnae Association that fails to pay its fees for two consecutive years shall be deemed to have relinquished its charter.

G. Accountability and Discipline of a Division.

1. Probation or Withdrawal of Charter of a Newly Establishing Chapter or Collegiate Chapter. A Newly Establishing Chapter or Collegiate Chapter may be placed on probation, or the charter withdrawn when need for such action exists. Need for such action includes without limitation: (1) failure to conform to the administrative, membership, and fiscal standards and requirements of the Sorority; (2) failure of the Collegiate Chapter's members to maintain a satisfactory scholastic achievement average; or (3) collective conduct or the condoning of individual conduct that constitutes Just Cause for disciplining members under Article III of these Bylaws. Procedures for determining whether the need for such action exists shall be provided in the Standing Rules. Grand Council may terminate any probation or reduce the terms and conditions of probation at any time. When a charter is withdrawn, the Collegiate Chapter shall stand disbanded.
2. Probation or Withdrawal of Charter of an Alumnae Association. An Alumnae Association may be placed on probation, or the charter withdrawn for such cause as may be determined by a majority vote of Grand Council. When a charter is withdrawn, the Alumnae Association shall stand disbanded.
3. Emergency Accountability and Disciplinary Measures. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Grand Council may suspend the operations of a Newly Establishing Chapter or the charter of any Collegiate Chapter or Alumnae Association without a prior hearing whenever failure to suspend might reasonably be anticipated to result in: (1) the loss of or damage to the property of any person; (2) the loss of or damage to human life, health, or safety; or (3) serious damage to the reputation of the Sorority. Any suspension shall be subject to such conditions as Grand Council shall determine. Appropriate procedures addressing the event or circumstance leading to such suspension shall proceed as expeditiously as possible.

H. Dissolution of Newly Establishing Chapters, Collegiate Chapters, or Alumnae Associations. Should a Newly Establishing Chapter, Collegiate Chapter or Alumnae Association voluntarily surrender its charter or be disbanded by Grand Council, all remaining assets, after satisfying all liabilities and expenses, shall be transferred to Alpha Delta Pi Sorority.

Section 2. Supporting Organizations.

The supporting organizations shall be House Corporations, ADPi Properties, Inc., and Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc.

- A. House Corporations. House Corporations shall be established according to the procedures as provided in the Standing Rules and all applicable state and federal regulations.
- B. ADPi Properties, Inc. ADPi Properties, Inc.'s purpose is to provide consultation services to all Collegiate Chapters/House Corporations and property management services to Collegiate Chapters/House Corporations enrolled in select services.
- C. Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc. Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc.'s purpose is to hold title or lease to property used by collegiate members.

ARTICLE V – GRAND CONVENTION

Section 1. Grand Convention.

Grand Convention shall be convened biennially during the months of June, July, or August at such time, date, and place as shall be selected by Grand Council. If, in the determination of Grand Council, circumstances warrant not holding Grand Convention in person, Grand Council shall have the authority to determine that the entire Grand Convention will be held electronically. The official call to the Grand Convention shall be sent not less than thirty nor more than sixty days before the opening date of the Grand Convention. Minutes of Grand Convention shall be published to all members no later than thirty days after the Minutes Approval Committee submits the minutes to Grand Council. Minutes shall also be distributed with registration information for the next Grand Convention.

Section 2. Voting Body.

The voting body of Grand Convention shall consist of Grand Council, Appointed International Officers as defined in Article VIII, former Grand Council members, one delegate from each eligible Collegiate Chapter, one delegate from each eligible Alumnae Association, one delegate from each eligible Chapter Advisory Board, one delegate from each eligible House Corporation, and the chairs and members of Standing Committees authorized by these Bylaws. No current employee of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., ADPi Properties, Inc., or Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc. may be included in the voting body of Grand Convention. All members of the Grand Convention voting body shall be members of the Sorority in good standing.

Section 3. Collegiate Chapter Delegates and Alternates.

Each eligible Collegiate Chapter shall be entitled to one delegate and one or more alternate delegates to Grand Convention. The President of each Collegiate Chapter shall be the delegate of that Collegiate Chapter unless, for good cause, the President of the Collegiate Chapter shall not be able to attend Grand Convention, in which case the Collegiate Chapter shall select one delegate from among the Delta members of that Collegiate Chapter. The alternate delegate shall act and vote in the place of the delegate when the delegate is absent or otherwise unable to act. If more than one alternate delegate is elected, the order of priority in which they are to serve as delegate shall be designated by the Collegiate Chapter. The delegate of a Collegiate Chapter shall be eligible to participate as part of the voting body of Grand Convention only if the Collegiate Chapter is current on all financial obligations to the Sorority.

Section 4. Alumnae Association Delegates and Alternates.

Each eligible Alumnae Association shall be entitled to select one delegate and one or more alternate delegates to Grand Convention from among the members of the Alumnae Association. The alternate delegate shall act and vote in the place of the delegate when the delegate is absent or otherwise unable to act. If more than one alternate delegate is elected, the order of priority in which they are to serve as a delegate shall be designated by the Alumnae Association. An Alumnae Association shall be eligible to participate in the voting body of Grand Convention only if the Association is current on all financial obligations to the Sorority.

Section 5. Chapter Advisory Board Delegates and Alternates.

Each eligible Chapter Advisory Board shall be entitled to select one delegate and one or more alternate delegates to Grand Convention from among the Alumnae members of the Chapter Advisory Board. The alternate delegate shall act and vote in the place of the delegate when the delegate is absent or otherwise unable to act. If more than one alternate delegate is selected, the order of priority in which they are to serve as a delegate shall be designated by the Chapter Advisory Board. A Chapter Advisory Board shall be eligible to participate in the voting body of Grand Convention only if the Collegiate Chapter is current on all financial obligations to the Sorority.

Section 6. House Corporation Board Delegates and Alternates.

Each eligible House Corporation Board of Directors shall be entitled to select one delegate and one or more alternate delegates to Grand Convention. They shall be selected from among the Alumnae members of the House Corporation Board as determined by the House Corporation. The alternate delegate shall act and vote in the place of the delegate when the delegate is absent or otherwise unable to act. If more than one alternate delegate is selected, the order of priority in which they are to serve as a delegate shall be designated by the House Corporation Board. A House Corporation shall be eligible to participate in the voting body of Grand Convention only if the House Corporation is current on all obligations to the Sorority as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 7. Quorum.

A majority of the voting body present at Grand Convention shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of all business of Grand Convention.

Section 8. Voting.

Each member of Grand Convention voting body, including members acting in more than one capacity, shall be entitled to one vote and must be present to vote. Proxy voting shall not be allowed.

Section 9. Resolutions Considered at Grand Convention.

- A. Resolutions with Notice before Grand Convention. A resolution may be adopted by a majority vote at any Grand Convention, provided that any proposed resolution has been submitted to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee no later than one hundred forty days prior to Grand Convention and has been submitted by the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee no fewer than ten days and no more than sixty days prior to Grand Convention to each person or entity potentially eligible to participate in the voting body as defined in Section 2 of this Article. Proposed resolutions may be submitted to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee by a Collegiate Chapter, Alumnae Association, Chapter Advisory Board, House Corporation, Grand Council, a subordinate body of the Sorority, or a member in good standing of the Sorority.
- B. Resolutions with Notice at Grand Convention. A resolution may be adopted by an eight-tenths vote at any Grand Convention, provided previous written notice has been given by a member of the voting body of Grand Convention at an earlier business meeting of the same session of Grand Convention with a copy submitted to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee.

Section 10. Postponement.

In the event of a national emergency, or where other conditions are indicative of the undesirability of a regularly scheduled Grand Convention, Grand Council, by a two-thirds vote, may postpone a Grand Convention. All members shall be notified of the postponement in a manner determined by Grand Council.

ARTICLE VI – NOMINATING COMMITTEE AND NOMINATIONS FOR GRAND COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition and Term of Office.

- A. Composition. The Nominating Committee shall be composed of two alumnae members and one alumna alternate from each geographical District. Members and alternates shall represent the District in which they reside. Alternates shall have a voice but no vote during Nominating Committee deliberations. One member shall serve as Chair of the Nominating Committee.
- B. Term of Office. The term of the members elected to the Nominating Committee shall begin immediately after the adjournment of Grand Convention at which the member is elected to the Committee, and shall end upon the adjournment of the next Grand Convention, her resignation, or until her successor is elected and assumes office. A member of the Nominating Committee shall not serve more than two consecutive terms. Election as an alternate on the Nominating Committee shall not constitute service for the purposes of counting two consecutive terms.

Section 2. Eligibility.

- A. To be eligible for election to the Nominating Committee as either a member or an alternate, a member must: (1) be nominated or apply; (2) agree to serve; (3) commit to attending the next Grand Convention; (4) be in attendance at or have previously attended at least one Grand Convention; and (5) have served as an International Officer, Standing Committee member, officer of a Collegiate Chapter or Alumnae Association, as a member of a Chapter Advisory Board, a director of a House Corporation, a trustee of Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., or a director of ADPi Properties, Inc.'s Board.
- B. Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., ADPi Properties, Inc., or Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc., employees shall not be eligible to serve on the Nominating Committee.
- C. A member of the Nominating Committee who submits an application to run for election to Grand Council shall resign from the Nominating Committee. A member of the Nomination Committee who no longer resides in the geographic district from which she was elected shall resign from the Nominating Committee.

Section 3. Method of Election.

- A. Nominations for eligible alumnae to serve on the Nominating Committee in the following biennium shall be submitted to the current Nominating Committee no later than thirty days prior to a Grand Convention. Nominations may be submitted by the individual seeking nomination, a Collegiate Chapter, an Alumnae Association, or any member in good standing of the Sorority, provided that each nominee has consented to serve if elected and meets all requirements in these Bylaws.
- B. During Grand Convention, the Voting Body of each geographic district shall hold a District Caucus meeting to elect two members and one alternate to serve on the Nominating Committee. Voting delegates within non-geographically aligned districts shall vote within the District in which they reside. Each credentialed delegate shall have one vote in the geographic district of her primary residence. For these purposes, Collegiate members shall be deemed to reside in the district in which their college or university is located. If an alumna delegate does not have a primary residence in the US or Canada, the credential committee shall make her District determination.
- C. The District Caucus at Grand Convention to elect the members of the Nominating Committee for the next biennium shall be presided over by the District Team Director of that geographic district or her designee.
- D. The newly-elected members of the Nominating Committee shall meet at Grand Convention and elect a Chair from among the incoming members.

Section 4. Removal.

Any member of the Nominating Committee may be removed by a majority vote of the Nominating Committee if, in the judgment of the Nominating Committee, the best interests of the Sorority will be served by such removal. The member in question shall recuse herself in all votes concerning her removal.

Section 5. Filling Vacancies in the Nominating Committee.

In the event of a vacancy in the Nominating Committee when neither of the two original members, nor the elected alternate, can serve, the District Team Director of that geographic district shall appoint one or more members to fill the vacancy for the unexpired term so that there are two members of the Nominating Committee from the geographic district. Any member appointed to fill the vacancy must reside in the same geographic district in which the person who vacated the office was originally elected.

Section 6. Procedure to Nominate for Elective Office of Grand Council.

Nominations for elective offices to Grand Council shall be submitted to the Nominating Committee by March 5 of a Grand Convention year. Nominations may be submitted by the individual seeking nomination, a Collegiate Chapter, an Alumnae Association, or any member in good standing of the Sorority, provided that each nominee has consented to serve if elected and meets all requirements in Article VII.

Section 7. Duties of the Nominating Committee.

- A. The Nominating Committee shall perform the duties related to election of Grand Council, including but not limited to, the following:
 - 1. Review and revise, as necessary, the application to run for Grand Council.
 - 2. Ensure distribution of the call for nominations for election to Grand Council pursuant to procedures in the Standing Rules.
 - 3. Educate potential candidates for Grand Council on the election process and service on Grand Council.
 - 4. Verify the qualifications and determine the eligibility of all nominees based on the eligibility requirements listed in these Bylaws.
 - 5. Compile a list of all eligible nominees and their qualifications. This list shall be made available to the membership no later than April 1 of a Grand Convention year and shall be read at the first business meeting of Grand Convention.
 - 6. Recruit eligible nominee(s) for any office(s) on Grand Council for which there is no eligible nominee or an insufficient number of nominees.
 - 7. Educate the Sorority membership on eligible candidates.
 - 8. Serve as a point of contact for questions relating to nominations and elections.

9. Collaborate with the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee and Executive Office regarding the voting mechanism to be used at Grand Convention.
- B. The Nominating Committee shall perform the duties related to election of the Nominating Committee, including but not limited to, the following:
 1. Review and revise the application to run for election to the Nominating Committee.
 2. Update the volunteer job description for members of the Nominating Committee.
 3. Provide the Nominating Committee application to the membership no later than forty-five days prior to the Grand Convention.
 4. Provide the application of members running for the Nominating Committee to the District Team Director of that geographic district, or her designee, prior to the District Caucuses.

Section 8. Nominations from the Floor.

Nominations from the floor may be made for individuals already vetted and declared as candidates by the current Nominating Committee.

ARTICLE VII – GRAND COUNCIL

Section 1. Composition.

Grand Council of the Sorority shall be composed of the International President and six International Vice Presidents. The Executive Director shall be a non-voting ex-officio member of Grand Council and shall attend all meetings except when her performance and/or compensation shall be discussed and/or when excused by a majority vote of Grand Council.

Section 2. Authority.

- A. Grand Council shall have full authority over the affairs of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority between Grand Conventions, except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws or by statute. Grand Council may establish or abolish any office or position for the Sorority that is not provided for by these Bylaws and define the duties of such office or position. Grand Council may adopt rules to govern its own proceedings.
- B. Subject to any limitations of the Bylaws or as established by a Grand Convention, Grand Council may establish, amend, and abolish rules and regulations governing the operations and activities of any parts, divisions, or organizations within the Sorority, including the policies and procedures by which all Collegiate Chapters will operate. Grand Council shall supervise the District Team Directors; the Chief Panhellenic Officer; the Ritual, Heritage, and History Director; the Chairs of the various Director groups; and the Chairs of the Standing and Special Committees.

Section 3. Duties of Grand Council.

Grand Council shall perform the duties as follows:

- A. Ensure fulfillment of all provisions in the Governing Documents.
- B. Provide strategic planning.
- C. Hire, supervise, discipline, and/or terminate the Executive Director.
- D. Provide proper financial oversight.
- E. Establish and revise Standing Rules and Policies with approval of the Leadership Advisory Committee.
- F. Define and uphold values and customs.
- G. Enhance the Sorority's image.
- H. Determine and monitor the Sorority's programs and services.
- I. Ensure adequate human and financial resources.
- J. Appoint a Corporate Secretary and a Corporate Treasurer.
- K. Evaluate itself, the Sorority's outcomes, and the Executive Director at least annually.
- L. Perform other such duties as associated with the office, as required by the Governing Documents, or as assigned by Grand Council.
- M. Additionally, the International President shall preside at all Grand Council meetings and Grand Conventions.

Section 4. Eligibility to Serve on Grand Council.

To be eligible to serve on Grand Council, a member must:

- A. Be an Alumna member in good standing of the Sorority, who is at least 18 years of age.
- B. Have consented to serve if elected.
- C. Have Alpha Delta Pi volunteer experience as an alumna member during the past six years.
- D. Not be a current employee of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority; Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., ADPi Properties, Inc., or Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc.

Section 5. Eligibility to Serve as International President.

To be eligible to serve as International President, a member must also meet the following requirements:

- A. At the time of election, be serving as a member of Grand Council; and
- B. For the twenty months immediately preceding the election, have served as a member of Grand Council.

Section 6. Election.

The International President and six International Vice Presidents shall each be elected at the Grand Convention by a majority vote. The elections shall be by electronic or paper ballot, except in those offices where the number of nominees equals the number of positions available, the nominee(s) shall be declared elected.

Section 7. Terms of Office.

Each Grand Council member shall serve for a term commencing at the adjournment of Grand Convention during which she is elected and ending at the adjournment of the next Grand Convention or until her successor is elected and assumes office.

- A. International President. The International President shall serve no more than two consecutive terms. After the completion of two consecutive terms as International President, the member shall not be eligible to serve on Grand Council for one term.
- B. International Vice Presidents. A member shall serve no more than three consecutive terms as an International Vice President. After the completion of three consecutive terms, the member shall not be eligible to serve on Grand Council as an International Vice President for one term.

Section 8. Absence, Removal, and Vacancy.

- A. Absence. In the absence of the International President, Grand Council shall, by majority vote, elect one of the remaining members of Grand Council to perform the duties of the International President during such absence, and the person so elected shall have all of the powers of and be subject to all of the restrictions upon the International President.
- B. Removal. Any member of Grand Council may be removed by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of Grand Council if, in the judgment of Grand Council, the best interests of the Sorority will be served by such removal. The member in question shall recuse herself in all votes concerning her removal. Grand Council shall notify the removed officer in writing of her removal, and such notice shall state the effective date of such removal.
- C. Vacancy. Except as expressly provided in these Bylaws, any vacancy in any office of Grand Council, however occurring (whether by death, incapacity, removal, resignation, or otherwise), may be filled by majority vote of the remaining members of Grand Council.

Section 9. Meetings.

Grand Council shall meet for regular or special meetings at dates, times and places Grand Council shall decide. Grand Council may be convened in special meetings by a call to meet by either the International President or any two officers of Grand Council on a date, time and place as may be set forth in the call. Notice of each regular meeting of Grand Council shall be sent to each member of Grand Council at least ten days but not more than sixty days prior to convening the meeting; however, such notice may be waived, and attendance at such meeting shall constitute waiver of said notice. Notice of each special meeting of Grand Council shall be sent to each member of Grand Council at least two days but not more than five days prior to convening the special meeting; however, such notice may be waived, and attendance at such meeting shall constitute waiver of said notice.

Section 10. Quorum: Voting.

A majority of the members of Grand Council then in office shall constitute a quorum. A Grand Council member may attend and participate in meetings of Grand Council in person, by telephone conference call, or using similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other, unless otherwise specified in the notice of such meeting. At each meeting of Grand Council at which a quorum is present, all business shall be decided by majority vote of those participating, unless otherwise specified in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law.

Section 11. Action Without a Meeting.

Unless otherwise specified in the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws or applicable law, any action that may be authorized or taken at a meeting of Grand Council may be authorized or taken in writing or by electronic transmission without a meeting by a majority of Grand Council members entitled to vote. Any such written or electronically transmitted action may be signed in counterparts, electronically, or by facsimile transmission and shall be entered upon the records of the Sorority and sent to all Grand Council members. An email from a Grand Council member's email address on file with the Sorority will be deemed signed by Grand Council member for purposes of the "signature" requirement.

ARTICLE VIII – APPOINTED INTERNATIONAL OFFICERS

Section 1. Appointed International Officers.

There shall be the following Appointed International Officers as needed: District Team Directors; Academic Enhancement Directors; Alumnae Relations Directors; Chapter Finance Directors; Collegiate Province Directors; Facility Resource Directors; Marketing Directors; Membership Experience Directors; Panhellenic Relations Directors; Recruitment Directors; Ritual, Heritage, and History Director; and Chief Panhellenic Officer. For the Alumnae Relations, Finance, Facility Resource, Marketing, Membership Experience, Panhellenic Relations, and Recruitment team programming areas, an independent chair not aligned to a specific geographical territory will be appointed.

Section 2. Appointment of International Officers.

- A. Eligibility. Only Alumnae members in good standing shall be eligible to serve as an Appointed International Officer. Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., ADPi Properties, Inc., and Alpha Delta Pi International Housing, Inc., employees shall not be eligible to serve as an Appointed International Officer.
- B. Appointments Requiring a Vote of Grand Council. Each District Team Director, the Ritual, Heritage, and History Director, and the Chief Panhellenic Officer shall be appointed by a majority vote of Grand Council.
- C. Appointment of Collegiate Province Directors. Each Collegiate Province Director shall be appointed by the District Team Director of the District in which she shall serve.
- D. Appointment of Other Directors and Chairs. Chairs of other Director teams shall be appointed by a majority vote of Grand Council. Other Directors shall be appointed by the District Team Director of the District in which she shall serve in consultation with the Chairs of other Director teams.
- E. Other Appointed International Officers. Other Appointed International Officers may be created by Grand Convention or Grand Council and appointed by Grand Council.
- F. Terms. Appointed International Officers shall serve a term as defined in the Standing Rules.

Section 3. Duties of Appointed International Officers.

The duties of Appointed International Officers shall be as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 4. Removal of Appointed International Officers.

An Appointed International Officer may be removed by a majority vote of Grand Council.

ARTICLE IX – COMMITTEES

Section 1. Leadership Advisory Committee.

- A. Composition. There shall be a Leadership Advisory Committee composed of Grand Council, the District Team Directors, the Chief Panhellenic Officer, the Chairs of all Director teams, senior staff from Executive Office as determined by the Executive Director, and others as invited by Grand Council. Any member of the Leadership Advisory Committee who is an employee of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, the Alpha Delta Pi International Housing Corporation, Inc.; ADPi Properties, Inc.; or the Alpha Delta Pi Foundation, Inc., shall be an ex officio, non-voting member.
- B. Action Without a Meeting. The Leadership Advisory Committee may approve Standing Rules and Policies, as defined in Article II of these Bylaws, without a meeting if the action is approved by at least a majority of the voting members. The action must be evidenced by one or more consents in writing or by electronic transmission describing the action taken, signed by those members representing at least a majority of the voting members, and delivered to the Sorority for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

Section 2. Standing Committees.

There shall be the following standing committees: Bylaws and Resolutions; and Publications. Grand Council shall have the authority to establish additional standing committees as deemed necessary. Chairs and members of standing committees shall be appointed or may be removed by a majority vote of the Grand Council. Each shall be appointed no later than sixty days following a Grand Convention and shall serve for a term of two years or until her successor is appointed and assumes office.

Section 3. Duties of the Leadership Advisory Committee and Standing Committees.

The duties of the Leadership Advisory Committee and standing committees shall be as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 4. Special Committees.

Special committees may be established by either Grand Convention or Grand Council.

ARTICLE X – ADMINISTRATION

Section 1. Executive Office.

Executive Office shall be located at a place as determined by Grand Council.

Section 2. Executive Director.

The Executive Director shall be appointed or terminated by a majority vote of Grand Council, in accordance with the terms of employment established by Grand Council. The Executive Director shall be accountable to Grand Council. The Executive Director shall oversee the hiring, terminating, and disciplining of all Executive Office employees and perform such duties as provided in the Governing Documents and as specified by Grand Council. In the event of a vacancy in the office of Executive Director, Grand Council may appoint a person to serve in that capacity until a new Executive Director is hired.

ARTICLE XI – FINANCE

Section 1. General Finance.

The revenues of the Sorority shall be credited from general sources, apportioned to such funds, collected, and disbursed in such manner as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 2. Membership, Initiation, and Alumnae Association Fees.

- A. Annual Membership Fee. An Annual Membership Fee shall be collected from each Alpha and Delta member enrolled in the College or University at any time during the school year.
- B. Initiation Fee. An Initiation Fee shall be collected from each Alpha member and Alumna initiate becoming eligible for initiation and shall include amounts allocated for a subscription to The Adelphean, Publication Fee and a Processing Fee.
- C. Alumnae Association Fee. An annual Alumnae Association fee shall be collected from each chartered Alumnae Association.
- D. Setting and Increasing Fees. The amount of the fees for Annual Membership, Initiation, and Alumnae Associations shall be stated in the Standing Rules. Grand Council may increase any of these fees annually in an amount corresponding to the preceding December Consumer Price Index-Urban (CPI-U) not to exceed three percent. Rounding to the next highest whole dollar will be used.

Section 3. Other Fees, International Dues, Charges, Fines and Assessments.

Grand Council shall determine all other fees not listed in Section 2 of this Article, international dues, charges, fines, and assessments and shall notify the membership of any changes.

Section 4. Fiscal Year.

The fiscal year shall be as provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 5. Budget.

Grand Council shall approve the annual budget. No expenses shall be incurred in excess of the budgeted amounts without prior approval of Grand Council.

Section 6. Audit.

An independent certified public accountant shall be retained by Grand Council to perform an annual audit of the Sorority's financial statements.

Section 7. Investments.

The funds of the Sorority shall be invested in accordance with the policy provided in the Standing Rules.

Section 8. Allowances to Officers and Employees.

All officers and employees shall receive such allowances as compensation for their services as may be authorized by Grand Council subject to the limitations and restrictions of the Georgia Nonprofit Corporation Code.

ARTICLE XII – INDEMNIFICATION

In the event that any person who was or is a party to or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, seeks indemnification from the Sorority against expenses, including attorneys' fees (and in the case of actions other than those by or in the right of the corporation, judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement), actually and reasonably incurred by her in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding by reason of the fact that such person is or was a member of Grand Council, an International Officer of the Sorority, a member of any committee appointed by Grand Council, or an employee or agent of the Sorority, then, unless such indemnification is ordered by a court, the Sorority shall determine, or cause to be determined, in the manner provided under Georgia law, whether or not indemnification is proper under the circumstances; and, to the extent it is so determined that such indemnification is proper, the person claiming such indemnification may be indemnified to the fullest extent now or hereafter permitted by Georgia law. Any determination under this Section shall be made by Grand Council by a majority vote of those individuals then serving on Grand Council who were not parties to such action, suit or proceeding. The indemnification provided in this Section shall not be deemed exclusive of any other rights to which those seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Articles of Incorporation or these Bylaws, or any agreement or vote of disinterested members of Grand Council, or otherwise, both as to action in her official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office or position. The indemnification rights provided for in this Section shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a member of Grand Council, an International Officer, a member of a committee appointed by Grand Council, or an employee or agent of the Sorority and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such person. Notwithstanding the foregoing or any other provision of these Bylaws, no indemnification may be provided pursuant to this Section or otherwise to the extent that such indemnification would violate (or reasonably be expected to violate) the Sorority's status as a tax-exempt organization as described in section 501(c) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. The Sorority may purchase insurance to indemnify officers, directors, and employees.

ARTICLE XIII – INSIGNIA AND JEWELRY

Section 1. Purchase of Insignia and Jewelry.

Purchases of badges, insignia or other items of jewelry or merchandise bearing the name or any insignia of the Sorority shall be made from either the Sorority or from other authorized purveyors.

Section 2. Badge.

The official badge of the Sorority, worn by Delta and Alumnae members, shall be a pin, with or without jewels, diamond in shape, the face of which shall be black enamel, displaying clasped hands along the longest diagonal, and on each side of which shall be a star, and beneath which shall be the Greek letters, Alpha Delta Pi.

Section 3. Guard Pin.

The official Guard Pin shall be the Greek letter or letters of the respective chapter.

Section 4. Alpha Pin.

The official Alpha Pin, worn by Alpha members, shall bear the Greek letters Beta Upsilon Alpha, surmounted by a lion head.

Section 5. Colors.

The official colors shall be azure blue and white.

Section 6. Flower.

The official flower shall be the Woodland Violet.

Section 7. Motto.

The motto shall be "We Live for Each Other."

Section 8. Coat-of-Arms.

The Coat-of-Arms shall be: Shield: Per Chevron, azure and argent, two mullets in fess of the second, between in chief, two hands clasped fess wise, proper, and in the center base a candle flamed in holder, all proper. Crest: Demi-lion, rampant. Motto ribbon: Bears historical and symbolic Greek characters. Mantling: Azure and Argent.

Section 9. Banner.

The official banner shall be a rectangle of white satin, surmounted by a diamond of azure blue, the points of which touch the four edges. The Sorority letters, Alpha Delta Pi, shall appear in white satin in the center of the diamond, with two white satin stars at right and left points of the diamond.

Section 10. Correspondence Closing.

The official correspondence closing shall be "Loyally."

ARTICLE XIV – SEAL

The official and corporate seal of the Sorority shall consist of a circular design, with an inner and outer circle, having the coat-of-arms in the inner circle and surrounded in circular form in the outer circle by the words, “Great Seal of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority, 1851.”

ARTICLE XV – PUBLICATIONS

Section 1. The Adelphean.

There shall be an official esoteric educational publication called The Adelphean of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority. The Editor shall be selected and appointed by Grand Council and shall carry out those duties established by Grand Council.

Section 2. The Chronicle.

There shall be an official esoteric publication which shall be called The Chronicle of Alpha Delta Pi and which shall be published or otherwise disseminated in such a manner and on a schedule designated by Grand Council.

Section 3. Additional Publications.

There shall be such additional publications as may be directed by Grand Council.

ARTICLE XVI – PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

Except as may be provided otherwise by applicable law, the Articles of Incorporation, these Bylaws, Standing Rules, and/or Policies or enactments of Grand Convention or Grand Council, the rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised shall govern the conduct of business of the Sorority.

ARTICLE XVII – AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Bylaws of Alpha Delta Sorority

- A. These Bylaws may be amended by a two-thirds vote at any Grand Convention, provided that any proposed amendment has been submitted to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee no later than one hundred forty days prior to Grand Convention and has been submitted by the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee no fewer than ten days (or, if notice is mailed by other than first-class or registered mail or statutory overnight delivery, thirty days) nor more than sixty days prior to Grand Convention to all members of the voting body of Grand Convention.
- B. All such proposed amendments submitted by the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee to the eligible voting delegates of the Grand Convention shall be accompanied by the written endorsement of Grand Council and of the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee, unless, because of a conflict of interest or other special circumstances, Grand Council and/or the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee elects to take no position. If either Grand Council or the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee elects to take no position on a proposed amendment, the submission of the amendment to the eligible voting delegates shall be accompanied by a statement of the basis for declining to take a position.
- C. Proposed amendments to the Bylaws may be submitted to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee by a Collegiate Chapter, an Alumnae Association, a Chapter Advisory Board, a House Corporation, Grand Council, a subordinate body of the Sorority or a member of the Sorority in good standing.

Section 2. Standing Rules of Alpha Delta Pi Sorority

- A. Amendments to the Standing Rules may be proposed by any member in good standing with the Sorority by submitting the electronic amendment form to the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee Chair.
- B. Once the proposed amendment is received, it will be reviewed by the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee for compliance and impact on the Bylaws, and the Bylaws and Resolutions Committee Chair will forward the proposal and comments to Grand Council for review and decision. Grand Council will follow their process with the Leadership Advisory Committee for consideration and final approval. Simple majority is needed for approval by both Grand Council and Leadership Advisory Committee.

- C. The Bylaws and Resolutions Committee Chair will inform the member who proposed the amendment of the outcome of the decision. If the amendment is accepted, the document will be updated. The membership will be informed of all changes to the Standing Rules through the Chronicles and the Standing Rules will be posted to the members-only section of the website.
