

The Echo

Furman University's Literary and Visual Arts Magazine

(2024-2025)

Section I. Name of Organization

- A. This organization shall be known as The Echo.

Section II. Purpose of the Organization

- A. The purpose of this organization shall be as follows:
 - 1. Create one edition of the magazine per year comprised of the creative works of the student body.
 - 2. To promote a diversity of creative voices and readership through our annual publication.
 - 3. Serve as training in editorial skills and design skills for the members of the leadership team.

Section III. Membership

- A. Membership shall be granted to any qualified Furman University student interested in the publication or production of creative literary works and visual arts.
- B. Editor-in-Chief or advisors can revoke membership in cases of abuse of materials and others' creative works, and inactivity within the group.
- C. The leadership team, which is called the Editorial Board, is comprised of the general membership who are selected for leadership by the appointed Editor-in-Chief.

Section IV. Officers

- A. The officers of The Echo shall be:
 - 1. Editor-in-Chief
 - 2. Assistant Editor
 - 3. Art Director
- B. The term for office for all officers shall be one (1) year, beginning on the first day of Fall term, and ending on the last day of Spring term.
- C. Newly-elected officers will assume their offices on the first day of Fall term following their elections.
- D. Responsibilities of Officers
 - i. Editor-in-Chief
 - 1. Preside over general meetings.
 - 2. Serve as representative of the organization at all formal functions and to the administration.

3. Work with members in determining the use of materials.
 4. Establish standard operating procedures for The Echo.
 5. Determine the production schedule for the magazine.
 6. Serves as backup/support for all executive roles.
 7. Monitor budget.
 8. Shape the style and aesthetic of the magazine.
- ii. Assistant Editor/Art Director
1. Assist the Editor-in-Chief with all tasks he/she/they delegates or requires, including, but not limited to, email correspondence with submitters, social media presence development, publicity efforts, and content design and creation.

Section V. Leadership Selection

- A. The incoming Editor-in-Chief is appointed by the outgoing Editor-in-Chief and the advisors.
 - a. Applications for the incoming Editor-in-Chief position are available at the end of the Spring semester prior to their term.
- B. Assistant Editor will be appointed by the incoming Editor-in-Chief.
- C. The Editorial Board will be selected by the Editor-in-Chief and the organization's advisors.
- D. The general membership is not considered leadership of The Echo.

Section VI. Recall

If any of the leadership of The Echo fails to fulfill duties whether by conduct unbecoming, or by otherwise inhibiting The Echo from being produced, the recall process is as follows:

- A. If an officer fails to fulfill his/her/their duties, the recall process shall be as follows:
 1. During a meeting of the organization's leadership, a member moves for the recall.
 2. The move is seconded by another member.
 3. The officer is given a chance to respond to the motion.
 4. If two-thirds of the members present vote for the recall, the officer is recalled, and his/her/their office stands vacant.

Section VII. Vacancy of Offices

The Editor-in-Chief appoints any vacancies with input from advisors or assistant editors as necessary.

Section VIII. Meetings

- A. Leadership meetings

1. Meetings of the entire leadership team, including the Editorial Board and Assistant Editors, will be called by the Editor-in-Chief according to the needs and demands of his/her/their determined production schedule.
- B. Additional meetings may be called when deemed necessary.
- C. Board meetings are mandatory for all leadership members, including the Editorial Board and Assistant Editors.

Section XI. Amendments

- A. Any member of leadership can propose amendments to this constitution and to its bylaws. Amendments shall become a part of this document after a 2/3 vote of approval by the leaders, subject to the approval of the Student Government Association.