

CONSTITUTION

Article I: Name

“The formal name of this organization shall be Furman Men’s Club Volleyball.”

Article II: Purpose

“The purpose of Furman Men’s Club Volleyball shall be to provide a space for students to enjoy the game of volleyball safely.”

Article III: Affiliations

We have no direct affiliations with any University departments.

Article IV: Membership

“In keeping with Furman University’s non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.”

Article V: Officers

Leadership titles are:

- Captain
- President
- Assistant Coach

The qualifications to serve as an officer is by election of the current President.

The term of each office is two semesters.

Article VI: Advisor

The general relationship of the advisor to the organization is that the advisor will allocate appropriate funds to the organizations for equipment and tournaments.

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings are held twice a week. The planned meeting time (unless changed for extra-curricular circumstances) is Wednesday and Friday from 5:30pm to 7:00pm.

Article VIII: Finance

The organization will receive funding from the university club sports funds. If extra funds are needed, the club will host fundraising events.

Article IX: Amendments

The process for amending the constitution is by meeting with the team about what needs to be amended, and then promptly changing the voted parts.

BYLAWS

Article I: Membership

There will not be different categories of membership.

The selection/application process includes coming to any of the bi-weekly meeting times and filling out the necessary paperwork.

There are no requirements for membership.

The process for removing a member is to meet with them individually and discuss why they are being removed.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Officers selected/elected by the President.

The primary duties of each office are:

President - Look over the whole club.

Captain - Lead the team in games with the other captain.

Assistant Coach - Help president and captains to schedule drills and plan practice.

The procedure to be followed in the event of a vacancy is to elect a new officer by volunteer.

The process for removing an officer from position is to meet with them and discuss why they will be removed if they do not amend their actions in the next week.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The advisor is selected by vote of the officers and overall approval of the President.

The provisions for removal of an advisor are simple; an advisor will be removed if they are failing to assist the club to its demands stated in the constitution.

Article IV: Committees

The committees that will be established are to be discussed with the officers and then amended into the bylaws.

Article V: Rules of Order

Business will be conducted by following order of the officers in the club for meetings.

Internal conflicts will be resolved by conducting a mediation with the officers and members caught in conflict.

Article VI: Amendments

The process for amending the bylaws is holding a meeting with the officers and all agreeing in what needs to be amended.