CHAPTER POLICY DOCUMENTS

PI KAPPA PHI FRATERNITY

DELTA CHAPTER

ROSE SELECTION PROCESS

(Updated Spring 2010)

Each term throughout the academic year, Delta Chapter will select one junior to represent the Rose Court of the fraternity for the term. The Rose for the next academic year will be chosen from the Rose Court nominees for Fall, Winter, and Spring terms.

The selected junior members and any undergraduate members of prior Rose Courts shall be invited until their graduation to all recruitment events (ie: Smokers, Closed nights), The Ability Experience events, the Rose Ball, and any other events to which women are invited by the fraternity as a whole. (This is not to be construed to mean events other than the Rose Ball where individual members of the fraternity invite individual women to date functions, although such invitations are encouraged.)

The Rose will be chosen from these three juniors who have been selected during the terms prior to the Rose Ball. She will be announced at the Rose Ball each year. The Rose's tenure shall last from the Rose Ball of her junior year to the Rose Ball of her senior year. The fraternity will send her flowers and/or gifts at least once per month throughout the year and she will be offered a date to each and every function of the fraternity until her tenure is expired. The Rose will be provided with a jersey to wear on jersey days during her tenure.

During the first or second meeting of each term, women may be nominated for election to the Rose Court. Each woman must meet the following qualifications: The woman must be a junior enrolled at Furman University.

If there are two members of her Greek affiliation already represented on the Rose Court, she is not eligible. That is to say that all three Rose Court members cannot be of the same affiliation; however, two of the same affiliation is permitted. For example, the Rose Court may consist of one Delta Gamma, one Chi Omega, and one Kappa Delta; or two Alpha Delta Pis and one Kappa Kappa Gamma; but not three Delta Delta Deltas nor three independents. Each group (Greek or independent) may be represented with only as many as two women.

She must receive the majority vote of the members of the chapter present and voting. (A list of five will be voted down to three, and then two, and finally to one). After nominations are made and the first round of voting is completed, up to two brothers shall have the right to speak in favor of each remaining rose nominee for one minute.

REQUIREMENTS FOR SELECTION AS ROSE

(Updated Spring 2010)

The woman must have been a junior selected for the Rose Court during the months and days before formal. (This requirement may be overturned by a 2/3 vote of the chapter present and voting.)

This vote will be done by secret ballot to be tabulated by the Ritual Chair and/or the Chaplain. In voting, brothers will be allowed to vote for one woman (of the three). To be named as Rose, the woman must receive a majority vote (meaning over half of the chapter present and voting). Anything less than half of the brotherhood present and voting shall be considered a tie between the two women receiving the most votes (similar to the way that election to the Rose Court is done). [It is suggested that this vote occur two weeks prior to the Rose Ball in case of a tied vote. If a tie should occur, the vote will be brought before Chapter again, in secret ballot. Only the women tied shall be on the ballot. The vote will be taken and counted as previously done.]

Before a secret ballot vote for the Rose is taken, 2 brothers will be given an opportunity to speak on behalf of each Rose candidate. This is construed to mean that each brother will offer a statement of positive affirmation on behalf of each woman, similar to a pro-speech in an open debate. These speeches are offered on behalf of the candidates for the benefit of brothers who may not know all the Rose candidates well and would like to hear more about them before making an informed decision in voting.

In the event of a tie by secret ballot between two Rose candidates, the rules for discussion written above will be extended to this voting session as well, before a vote is cast."

ALCOHOL POLICY

The Archon and the Social & Risk Management Chair(s) shall refrain from consumption of alcoholic beverages at all chapter organized or funded functions or gatherings.

Alcohol is prohibited at any event with which The Ability Experience is associated.

Consumption of alcohol is prohibited while wearing the letters of the fraternity.

Under no circumstances should an associate member of the chapter be under the influence of alcohol.

A designated driver program should be in place for each chapter function as deemed appropriate by the Risk Management/Social Chair(s)

Being that designated drivers are required, the drivers will receive $0.30 per mile for the duration of their service to account for gas costs and wear and tear of the car. This reimbursement should be adjusted every year to account for changing gas prices.

Violations:

All violations of this policy may be referred to the Standards Board and falls under its jurisdiction.

Both the brother providing the alcohol and the brother consuming the alcohol shall be held responsible in the occurrence of any infractions of this policy, the previously stated clauses, or clauses enacted hereafter by the chapter.

CODE OF CONDUCT

(Updated December 2010)

The Delta Chapter of the Pi Kappa Phi Fraternity is made up of men:

Who are bound together in a common loyalty, which transcends any personal selfishness:

- A. As a chapter, we are dedicated to The Ability Experience and a brother should do his best to attend The Ability Experience events and support local chapter efforts to help people with disabilities.
- B. Brothers are actively involved in recruitment and will participate in rush events to further grow the brotherhood.

Who respect the property of the chapter and that of their brothers:

- A. This applies to the chapter house, anything purchased by the chapter (such as supplies for the ritual and grilling supplies for tailgates), and the personal property and belongings of brothers.

Who realize that membership means personal responsibility in bearing their share of the financial burden of the chapter:

- A. Part of being a member and active brother of Pi Kappa Phi means paying dues, anyone who does not pay will be delinquent and then held in bad standing.

Who bring credit to the fraternity by striving to attain the highest possible standards of scholarship, leadership, and campus involvement:

- A. Brothers are encouraged to be involved on campus and to represent the fraternity well to the University, the Greek Community, and Rushees.
- B. Who support all chapter endeavors with the University such as intramurals, supporting varsity athletics, homecoming, and all Greek Life events.
- C. Who give their best effort academically to embody the elements of CLASS, to further their own scholastic endeavors, and to develop their own character.
- D. Who strive for leadership positions within their organizations to better the University, the organizations, and their own leadership skills each to his own ability.

Who safeguard the reputation of their chapter by keeping careful watch over their personal conduct:

- A. As men of CLASS, a Brother will conduct himself with character and hold himself to a high standard of integrity, morality, and principle as is codified in the ritual of Pi Kappa Phi.
- B. Brothers have a responsibility to help another brother if he is struggling in his personal conduct or engaging in harmful behavior to himself or others.
- C. If a brother sees another brother engaging in risky or harmful behavior, he has a duty to his brother to confront him and give what assistance he may to the erring brother.

Who always treat women with the highest ideals of a gentleman, especially those wearing the letters of the fraternity. Who would never tolerate nor condone any form of sexually abusive behavior (physical or emotional) on the part of their chapter members or guests:

- A. Brothers will strive to make anyone feel welcome at a chapter event, especially the women who bear our letters.
- B. Brothers will always treat women in a manner that reflects positively on the chapter by not placing them in compromising situations or make them feel uncomfortable.
- C. The brotherhood will not tolerate any unwanted sexual behavior be it verbal, physical, or otherwise and will make every effort to deal with such delinquents in all channels possible: at the chapter level, university level, and legal level within the Federal and State Laws.

Who uphold faithfully the rules, traditions, and activities of Furman University, while abiding by the laws of the City of Greenville, the State of South Carolina, and the United States of America:

- A. Part of being a student is participating in campus events, activities, and traditions that the University sponsors. A brother should take pride in his chapter at this academic institution and should represent the fraternity by actively taking part in these traditions, activities, and events.
- B. Brother should not actively participate in any activity that violates State or Federal Law, nor violate University Policy.

Who do not use drugs or alcohol in a manner that reflects poorly on themselves, their guests, or the fraternity. Who would never jeopardize the good standing of the chapter by the abuse of substances at the Chapter House or at function which would associate Pi Kappa Phi, Delta Chapter:

- A. A brother will not wear letters when consuming alcohol nor will he wear the brotherhood pin while consuming alcohol.

Who would never tolerate or condone hazing of any kind;

Who would always strive to assist their brothers in maintaining this ethical code of the fraternity set in place by the Standards Board.

Who understand that this list is in no way comprehensive of what a brother should or should not do, but is rather a set of guidelines outlining general principles defining a “good brother.”
