

FUSEA 2022 Executive Roles:

President:

The president serves in the senior leadership role and oversees all organization activities. They facilitate meetings and plan each lesson. The President serves as a mentor to its members. Responsible for overall organization and appointment of other officers and succession planning. Motivates and mobilizes the leadership team to plan and host programming and events that (a) further the FUSEA Five CORES and mission, and (b) support professional development, networking, and community-building among alumni/leaders in the region or affinity. Organizes regular leadership team meetings -- whether in person, via phone, or both -- to aid in this work. Acts as the primary liaison/contact with Furman University. With the assistance of a club Secretary, ensures that all required club documentation is submitted on time.

Main Jobs:

1. Plan each meeting and lesson
2. Manage executive team
3. Organize events
4. In charge of new member experience and onboarding
5. Acts as a leadership figure to all members

Vice President:

Oversees and maintains order during all bi-weekly meetings. The Vice president also processes any complaint and oversees any membership reviews. Leads club networking efforts, promotes the club through personal networks, and identifies/contacts potential new club volunteers and leadership -- whether by welcoming new graduates and other leaders to the area, or finding local alumni or other contacts who could serve as club speakers, panelists, mentors or venue hosts.

Main Jobs:

1. Attend every meeting
2. Help with career fair
3. In charge of FUSEA new members
4. In charge of Success Sponsor Program (Students Undertaking College Career Enhancing Successful Skills)
5. Presiding officer in the President's absence

VP Marketing:

Oversees all material posted on organization social media accounts and works with other members to develop marketing strategies to promote and celebrate various organizations happenings as well as relevant member accomplishments. Must follow FUSEA brand kit. Use tools of instagram, canva, and Adobe photoshop.

Main Jobs:

1. Manage instagram and create graphics
2. Help with career fair graphics
3. Create 3-5 flyers per semester for events
4. Take photos at events

VP of Finances:

Oversees the organization's budget and effectively and adequately allocates funds for meetings, events, CLPs, workshops, pitch competitions, merchandise, etc. Communicates with the school to request prepayment or reimbursement for events, submitting associated paperwork, receipts, attendance lists, etc. after the event concludes.

Main Jobs:

1. Create and manage a shared Finance budget excel sheet
2. Work with advisor to manager budget
3. Order merchandise shirts, work with VP of Marketing

VP of Furman Engagement:

Oversees the development of events and programs that appeal to and benefit the greater Furman community. Helps with new member engagement and career fair. Oversees the logistics of planning and executing on-campus club events with the President and Vice President.

Main Jobs:

1. Career fair August 31st 4-6pm
2. Headshot event
3. Plan and attend any other furman events
4. Work with Furman Alumni to plan engaging events

VP of Greenville Engagement:

Oversees the development of projects, events, and programs that benefit the organization, its members, and the greater Greenville community. Oversees the logistics of planning and executing off-campus club events with the President and Vice President.

Main Jobs:

1. Gather Greenville Event
2. Headshot event
3. 101 N Main Street Networking and Nuggets Event
4. Work with community leaders or Bryan Davis to plan engaging events

Secretary:

Keeps attendance and writes relevant notes at organization meetings and distributes them along with any other organization information following the meeting. Send bi-weekly email.

Main Jobs:

1. Keep track of attendance
2. Keep notes
3. Send bi-weekly email
4. Work with President on google sheets attendance