Article I Name

The name of this club shall be the “Hispanic Outreach & Latinx Awareness” Student Organization (HOLA)

Article II Mission Statement

HOLA presents its mission to provide engaged learning experiences and exposure to both the Hispanic and Latinx culture on campus. As a community, we will strive towards success by promoting self-awareness and acceptance. It is important for us to share the Hispanic and Latinx culture with our Furman community and at large, so we can strengthen our relationships by inviting students to learn about the different backgrounds that make up Furman University. Through local community networking and on campus collaboration with other organizations, we will create an open and safe environment to engage students with the Hispanic and Latinx communities.

Article II Purpose

The purpose of HOLA shall be to foster leadership development through the coordination of educational and awareness projects that allow all students and faculty to learn about the different Hispanic and Latinx backgrounds through:

- a. Coordinating regular series of open discussions among all club members.
- b. Meet with Student Involvement, Student Diversity Council, and Furman Admissions to provide input and feedback on current service projects.
- c. Creating Cultural Learning Programs (CLPs) that focus on topics relevant to the current time or related to the Hispanic and Latinx community.
- d. Organizing interactive and engaging programs or subcommittees with the organization to foster the interest of club members and the Furman community.
