

Constitution of Improv!able Cause

Preamble

We, the members of Improv!able, Cause would like to allow Furman University students to participate in two groups on campus, first, a performing improvisational comedy group requiring an audition, and second, a non-performing improvisational comedy practice group not requiring an audition.

Article I. Name of Organization

The name of the overall organization will be Improv!able Cause. The name of the performing group will be Improv!able Cause Troupe. The name of the non-performing group will be Work !mprovgress.

Article II. Membership

During both the Fall and Spring terms each year, there will be open auditions, succeeded by closed callbacks, for vacant spots in the performing group, if available. New members must be unanimously voted into the Improv!able Cause Troupe. Only current members of the Improv!able Cause Troupe may vote. If the Improv!able Cause Troupe desires to remove a member, whether due to excessive missing of practices, lack of enthusiasm, or another reason, they will convene a secret meeting, less the person being voted on, and if a unanimous vote is reached, that person will be removed from the group. The Work !mprovgress group is open to all Furman students.

Article III. Officers

1. The President is in charge of:
 - a. Running practices
 - b. Scheduling practices and shows
 - c. Running auditions
 - d. Creating show line ups
 - e. Delegating duties to other officers.
2. The Vice President will aid the President in:
 - a. Running practices
 - b. Scheduling practices and shows
 - c. Running auditions
 - d. Creating show line ups.
3. The Treasurer is in charge of:
 - a. Controlling Improv!able Cause's bank account
 - b. Controlling ticket sales and related activities
 - c. Running seat reservations.
4. The Secretary is in charge of:
 - a. Keeping meeting notes
 - b. Keeping record of practice and show times
 - c. Aiding the President or Vice President in completion of duties.

5. The Publicity Chair is in charge of:

- a. Advertisement, including flyers, banners, etc. for all public events
- b. Relations with other individuals, groups and organizations.

All other duties which may arise in the course of the existence of this group will be under charge of the President, and may be delegated out.

Article IV. Scheduled Meetings

A minimum of two and a half hours of weekly practice will be scheduled for the Improv! able Cause Troupe at the beginning of the term. A minimum of one hour of weekly practice will be scheduled for Work !mprovgress at the beginning of the term.

Article V. Provisions for Electing and Recalling Officers

Section I. Eligibility for Officership and Officer Voting

All elections are held within the Improv!able Cause Troupe. Only current members of this group are eligible for election, and only current members can vote, impeach an officer, or vote in an officers impeachment.

Section II. Terms of Officers

Due to the nature of the skill and experience required for the officer positions, the President, Vice President, Treasurer and Secretary will remain in their positions until they leave the group, step down from their position, graduate, or are voted out of their position.

Section III. Officer Impeachment

To vote an officer out of their position, the troupe must meet, with the to-be-impeached officer, and take a vote. If the vote is a majority towards the impeachment of the officer, the troupe must immediately provide a candidate to take their place, whereupon another vote is held, this time pitting the impeached officer against the new candidate. The winner of this vote is given the officer title; if the winner is the impeached officer, they are reinstated and cannot be re-impeached for a period of four weeks.

Section IV. Presidential Nomination

If the President is leaving the group at the end of a given term, then the President will nominate another member to take their position in the next term. The group will then vote on the nominee. If the vote is a majority towards yes, then the nominee will be President in the next term. If the vote is a majority towards no, then an election will be held in the same style as the election of any other officer.

Section V. Officer Election Process

If the position of Vice President, Treasurer or Secretary are to be vacant in the upcoming term, or a vote needs to be held for President, then an election will be held during practice time. The positions to be filled will be announced at the beginning of the election, whereupon nominations for each position will be gathered. There is no minimum or maximum amount of nominations for each position, although an officer may not be nominated for another officer position, unless they are relinquishing their position at the end of the current term. A vote will be taken, and the person with the majority of the vote will receive the position. If there is a tie, the group will revote. If this revote remains to be a tie, the President's vote will count for two votes.

Section VI. Publicity Chair Nomination

If the position of Publicity Chair is vacant, the President will nominate a new one. The troupe will then vote on this person. If the vote is a majority yes, this person will be the Publicity Chair, if the vote is not a majority yes, then the duties of Publicity Chair will fall on the Vice President until the next practice, whereupon a new vote will be taken. The President may change his/her nomination in this time as well.

Section VII. Miscellaneous

Abstention is not permitted. Votes will not involve those being voted on.

Article VI. Amendment Process

This constitution shall be hereafter subject to amendments. Any member of the group, whether from the Improv!able Cause Troupe, or Work !mprovgress may suggest an amendment. The Improv!able Cause Troupe will vote on the amendment, and a unanimous yes will make the amendment part of the constitution.
