BYLAWS

Article I: Membership

The Furman Korean Club is open to any Furman student interested in joining the organization. Interested Furman students can contact any of the members of the organization and request to join. There are no requirements for membership. If any members were to treat others unfairly or disrespectfully, they will be removed from the organization.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Elections will occur annually for the positions: President, Vice President, Secretary, Dance Captain(s). All members will be eligible for leadership in Furman Kpop Club. Through nomination and/or application, one becomes a candidate for consideration for office. When a nominated or applicant person leaves the room, the group will vote. The current president will count the votes. The secretary will record. The primary duties of each position are:

- A. President – The president shall be acknowledged as the public representation of the group. They will preside over all meetings and events, including ensuring that the organization remains consistent with its stated purpose, delegating responsibilities as needed, and overseeing the core group. They will also be in charge of all communication with the advisor. If any problems were to arise, they will be responsible for helping resolve the issue.
- B. Vice President – The vice president is a member of the core group that will contribute to any decision made, as well as aid the president in any way required. They will recruit students to join the organization and oversee the distribution of fliers and promotional materials to advertise upcoming events, such as the International Dance Festival.
- C. Secretary – The secretary shall manage the scheduling of events and rehearsals. In addition, they shall keep record of all meetings of the group, as well as all activities and programs. They shall handle all formal correspondence between members and officers of the group. They must also contact the Dance Captain and inform them what days they are teaching and what they should have prepared for rehearsal. Along with the Dance Captain, they will take attendance to see who is present at rehearsals, and should incorporate that with what parts each member gets and if they need to be cut from a part.
- D. Dance Captain(s) – The Dance Captain shall teach dance rehearsals and communicate with the secretary if any problems were to happen regarding their schedule days. They will make decisions along with the president on who is dancing what parts and where people are to be placed in the form. They must memorize dance choreography that they are teaching to the best of their ability. They are also in charge of making sure every member knows their part and taking action if people are not practicing.

If any officer position were to be vacant, the officer of the highest position, president, shall take on some of the duties and divide the work equally amongst the other covered positions. If one fails to do their duties after 3 warnings by the president, the individual may be replaced by a two-thirds vote.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

The faculty advisor position is open to all faculty members that are interested in overseeing the Furman Kpop Club. An advisor is sentenced to removal if they do not abide by the organization's purpose and/or they were to treat the members of the organization disrespectfully or unfairly.

Article IV: Committees

The Furman Kpop Club shall not establish any committees, however there will be an existing exec board to oversee the organizations functions and duties.

Article V: Rules of Order

The Furman Kpop Club will be an organization that will focus on learning Korean pop songs, dances, and occasionally having Korean cuisine or watching Korean dramas as a community. Officers will have some influence over rehearsals, but all other matters are the members' responsibility. If any internal conflict were to arise, the officers will talk to the parties involved and take any necessary action that is needed, like asking a member to leave from the organization if their actions go against Furman's and/or our policies addressed in this constitution/bylaw.

Article VI: Amendments

Any member of Furman Kpop Club can propose amendments to the constitution that will be overseen by the core group. Amendments may become a part of the constitution upon the approval of two-thirds of the members present.
