As a cultural appreciative and educational organization, the Furman K-Pop Club prioritizes hosting education events for both its members and the broader Furman community. The club places great emphasis on timely communication, and will promptly provide information and raise awareness once meeting/event details are confirmed.

Article VIII: Finance

Presently, the Furman K-Pop Club operates under a foundation rooted in student engagement and governance through the Student Government Association (SGA). Our financial structure relies on contributions from both the SGA as well as equitable distribution among the club members themselves.

Article IX. Amendments

The Furman K-Pop Club encourages a democratic approach for all its members, allowing any club member to propose amendments to the constitution, which will be carefully overseen by the core group. These proposed amendments can become an integral part of the constitution with the approval of two-thirds of the members present during the decision-making process.

Bylaws

Article I. Membership

The Furman K-Pop Club welcomes all Furman students who are interested in becoming members. Students can indicate their interest by attending club events or reaching out to any current member of the organization. No specific prerequisites are necessary for obtaining membership; however, the organization requests that members adhere to the constitution, bylaws, and values set forth by the club. In the event a member violates these values, an executive process will be initiated to address the matter.

Article II. Inclusion Values

The Furman K-Pop Club is committed to fostering a diverse, inclusive, and equitable environment that celebrates every individual's uniqueness. We embrace diversity as a catalyst for creativity, innovation, and organizational excellence. Our goal is to create an inclusive culture permeating every aspect of our organization, where all members feel valued, respected, and empowered to be their authentic selves. We vehemently oppose discrimination based on any characteristic, including race, ethnicity, gender, sexual orientation, ability, or religion. We strive to make our resources and events accessible to all, irrespective of physical or cognitive disabilities they may face. Through collaboration with various cultural, academic, and social groups, we aim to promote understanding, respect, and solidarity among communities. Regular self-assessment and reflection are part of our commitment to improvement and progress towards our belongingness goals. We acknowledge that genuine inclusivity requires continuous adaptation and learning from experiences. Together, we endeavor to create a community where everyone feels seen, heard, and valued, celebrating diversity as a profound strength that enriches us all. As part of our commitment to complete transparency, please refer to our statement of belonging, where we articulate and expand on the values of diversity, inclusion, and equity within our organization.
