

Furman University Men's Club Soccer Constitution

I. Mission statement

1. The purpose of the Men's Club Soccer team is to promote the sport of soccer in a fun and positive way for all members of all different skill levels and abilities. Members will have the opportunity to improve their skills as soccer players and will also be able to participate in league games, practices, and scrimmages with other schools in our area.

II. Membership Composition

1. Members will achieve membership status when they have completed tryouts, and earned a spot on the team. Filled out the appropriate paper work provided by the school (Club Sports Acknowledgement and Release Form, Club Sports Acknowledgement and Release Form supplement, Club Sport Member Code of Conduct and Responsibilities Form, etc.) and any other possible supplemental forms. Members will not be recognized until all necessary forms are filled out and have been collected by the Executive Board of the club. Members can be any undergraduate members of the university.
2. Active members can also become inactive or suspended.

a. Inactive

A member will become inactive after missing 2 or more games in fall season. The member may become active again once they commit to the rest of the 6 game season. Players are expected to attend all practices and games given their academic obligations. Excused absences will be given to the Executive Board approve the absence 2 weeks before games and 1 day before practice. An inactive member may still practice with club and may wear club apparel, but will not be able to participate in games.

b. Suspended

1. A member will become suspended for improper conduct on the field during games and practices. Conduct detrimental to the club includes but is not limited to violation of Code of Conduct, showing up to club event (games or practices) under the influence, or causing issues detrimental to the atmosphere of club events. The Executive Board will notify a member of suspension if the member is determined to be at fault by the Coach and Presidents. The President and Coach will set up a meeting with the suspended individual to determine how long the suspension will last. A suspended member may not show up to club activities, practices, games, or other club events. The Executive Board also have the ability to suspend a player if deemed and found necessary for the growth and overall health of the team. In that case, the members of the Executive Board and an outstanding and respected member of the team will discuss the grounds and moral dilemma of the suspension. Once determined, the Executive Board will meet with said player. All suspensions will be conducted with moral and legal grounds and have no implicit bias. If found that a suspension of the player was determined merely by bias, those person(s) who are found guilty will be removed from the Executive Board.

III. Executive Board

a. Purpose of Executive Board

The purpose of the Executive Board is to promote, adhere, and develop Furman University Men's Club Soccer team's mission statement in order to continue the success of the program. The Executive Board will also be a resource for the players to feel welcomed into the University and the team in order to promote success.

b. Organization of the Executive Board

1. President

a. Duties

1. Serve as one of the team captains
2. Schedule team practices
3. Schedule games
4. Speak/meet with the club advisor when necessary
5. Reach out to other organizations on behalf of the club
6. Be an emissary should any conflicts arise between members on the club
7. Cancel practice if necessary
8. Make the executive decision to remove a member from the club should the removal of a club member be necessary
9. Organize any additional club activities
10. Submit any necessary travel forms to the head of Campus Recreation

b. Election Process

1. The President positions will be appointed by the current Executive Board by the beginning of the spring semester. President's term will end at the end of the Fall term. The current President can terminate their term at any point during the spring term once the new president has been appointed. The old president must stay on the team to serve in a teaching capacity for the new president. A president may step down or may be removed should he violate any of the club policies, university policies, or fail to carry out responsibilities. A president can be removed by a $\frac{3}{4}$ vote from the active members of the current team.

2. Vice President

a. Duties

1. Serve as the second team captain
 2. Schedule games
 3. Speak/meet with the club advisor when necessary
 4. Reach out to other organizations on behalf of the club
 5. Be an emissary should any conflicts arise between members on the club
6. Cancel practice if necessary
7. Fill in for the President when he is unable to perform his duties due to conflict (inherits all presidential responsibilities)

b. Election Process

1. The election process is the same as the President's. The term length is the same as the President's.

3. Treasure/Co-Captain

a. Duties

1. Responsible for proposing a budget to the Head of Campus Recreation for approval.
2. Responsible for collecting any dues that may occur
3. Responsible for filing for reimbursement for club expenses with the Head of Campus recreation as well as giving out reimbursement to members who may need reimbursing.
4. Serve as the second team captain

b. Election process

1. The election process is the same as the President's. The term length is the same as the President's.

5. Coach (If necessary)

- a. The Executive Board will decide if a coach is necessary for the team's success. If seen as necessary, then the Executive Board will decide on salary and who is the coach. If the Executive Board feels that the coach is not in the benefit of the team, then the coach will be terminated and the officers will assume responsibility for the practices.

IV. Practices/Meetings

1. Furman University Men's Club Soccer will meet three times a week. The current executive board will determine the practice times and days at the beginning of each semester. The practices must be scheduled to allow for the majority of the players be present in order for a successful practice.
2. Coach and Presidents will meet when one of which feels a matter needs to be discussed.
3. If there is a coach, he/she is responsible for running practice, drills, and conditioning.

V. Organization Advisor

1. The Director of Campus Recreation will serves as the organization advisor.
2. If there is a faculty member on campus who has soccer experience, they are also welcome to serve as a coach and supplement the captains' role during meeting or practice.

VI. Organization Funds

1. Campus Recreation serves as the primary funder for the club.
2. The Treasurer is responsible for creating a budget that is approved by the Director of Campus Recreation.
3. The Presidents can work with the Director of Campus Recreation to schedule tournaments at the school as a way of generating revenue.
4. The Presidents can collect dues should Campus Recreation not be able to supply enough money to support the needs of the club.
 - a. The price of dues will be established by the Executive Board at the beginning of each year. The dues will be calculated based on league dues, gear for practices, apparel for the team, travel expenses, and what else is deemed necessary by the Executive Board.
5. The Presidents can establish ways to fundraise inexpensively, such as GoFundMe accounts or collection jars.
6. Other Fundraisers can be done by the club in order to gain funds

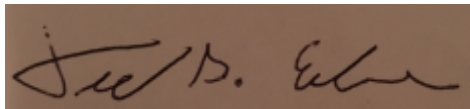

VII. Amending the Constitution

1. The Executive Board will unanimously decide if a change needs to be made and will draft an amendment.
2. 3/4 active voting members must also approve of the change.

VIII. Enabling Clause

1. With the approval of the Director of Campus Recreation, this Constitution becomes the legal governing body of the Furman University Men's Club Soccer program. Violating this constitution can result in suspension or expulsion from the Men's Club Soccer program.

XI. Signature of President(s)

A handwritten signature in dark ink on a light brown background. The signature appears to read "Tucker Erdmann" in a cursive, stylized script.

Tucker Erdmann
June 4, 2017