

The Constitution of The Order of Furman Theatre (OFT)

Preamble:

We, the members of the Order of Furman Theatre, promise to try to promote the study of theatre and its related creative communicative arts. We commit ourselves to provide opportunities for further study of the theatre arts for the members of Furman University. We also pledge ourselves to an on-going interest in the dramatic arts, and promise to share with others the knowledge gained as members of OFT, as organized under the auspices of the Furman Theatre Arts Department.

Article I. Name

This organization shall henceforth be called the Order of Furman Theatre.

Article II. Membership

- A. Declared Theatre Arts Majors are required to become members, although the organization is open to all students.
- B. New Members
 - a. All new members must join by mid-November
 - b. Members must show sufficient dedication to the organization (ie attending meetings, participating in events) before funding will be given to them. This will be determined by the officers.
 - c. Members will only receive funding for one conference (excluding SCTA). Thus, a member must choose between SETC and USITT.
 - d. All exceptions and inquiries must be brought before the exec.
- C. Spring Conventions/Workshops/Auditions
 - a. In order to receive funding, regular members must attend meetings
- D. SCTA/SETC
 - a. South Carolina Theatre Association are the preliminaries to the Southeastern Theatre Conference
 - b. SETC: Must work booth (1-2 hours of time depending on attendance #s)

Article III. Production

- A. This organization shall be the producing body for student generated productions originating within the Theatre Arts Department.
- B. Guidelines for OFT Student Directors:
 - a. OFT will produce no more than one production per year. Theatre Arts faculty will choose a production from submitted proposals if there is room for a student directed production in the calendar.
 - b. Student directors must have completed the Directing course (THA 310) and be willing to enroll in an independent study with Maegan Azar.

- c. Student directors must choose a script written between 1850 and the present. The selected script cannot have more than 6-8 actors. Would-be directors should avoid over-emphasis on technical elements.
- d. An approved production will be assigned suitable performance dates. The student directed plays will open on a Wednesday, run through the following Saturday, and complement the Furman Theatre calendar.

Article IV. Officers

- A. Officers will be elected by the members of OFT and will form the executive board.
 - a. The President shall be a declared Theatre Arts major, and shall preside at all meetings. He/she shall represent the organization at all OFT attended events or meetings unless otherwise delegated. Members must serve as an officer for at least one year prior to becoming president.
 - b. Vice President presides at meetings in the absence of the president. S/he will act as the coordinator of the chairpersons of all committees.
 - c. The Secretary will keep a record of attendance at all meetings of the executive board. S/he will also keep the minutes of all business conducted at these meetings. S/he will serve as the schedule liason.
 - d. The Treasurer will keep an accurate account of all of the organization's funds and transactions involving OFT monies. The Treasurer will serve as chairperson of any fund raising activity.
- B. Officers shall be elected at the annual Theatre Arts Picnic directly following the close of the Spring production.
- C. Officers shall serve a term of one year.

Article V. Committees

- A. Every member shall be eligible to serve on a committee.
- B. There shall be 1 standing committee: The Outreach Committee. The following committee chairpeople will be authorized to draw from the membership as needed to form a team to complete a task. At the completion of the task, the committee will be dissolved and a new committee formed for each subsequent task.
- C. The Committee Chairs will be appointed by the executive board and will be subject to approval by the membership.
- D. The Committee Chairs will be as follows:
 - a. Outreach Chairperson—will work with the Theatre Arts Department faculty to organize opportunities to make the Furman Community and the surrounding community of Greenville more aware of the Dramatic Arts, and to provide on-campus opportunities for club members to learn more about the dramatic arts. This person will stay informed about internships and job opportunities for students.
 - b. Student Performances Chairperson—will assist the company of an OFT production including, but not limited to, student directed plays and Back to Basics.

Article VI. Meetings

- A. Meetings occur twice a month in order to discuss OFT business. The meetings will be held every other Wednesday.
- B. A quorum shall consist of two thirds of the executive board and two thirds of the membership.

Article VII. Recall

Upon receipt of a recall petition signed by two-thirds of the members of the Order of Furman Theatre, and two-thirds of the executive board, the board may declare the position vacant on the executive board.

Article VIII. Amendment

This constitution is subject to amendment at any executive board meeting.