

PALACATS CONSTITUTION

ARTICLE I:

The formal name of this organization shall be PALACATS

ARTICLE II:

Palacats aims to provide an opportunity for animal lovers to bond over a shared interest and support animals in need. It seeks to benefit both Furman and its campus cats, while providing care for Furman's campus cats and also working to reduce/control Furman's cat population.

ARTICLE III:

Palacats is affiliated with the Furman Farm. We are looking at potentially partnering with the Humane Society to get donations on neutering/spaying.

This organization is a recognized organization at Furman University and adheres to all University policies as set forth in the Furman University Student Handbook.

ARTICLE IV:

Membership is open to anyone on Furman's campus who loves animals. In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

In keeping with Furman University's non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate on the basis of race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.

ARTICLE V: Officers

Any member of Palacats is eligible to run for an officer position, and officers shall be elected through an annual voting process. Should an officer drop from a position, the president has the ability to appoint members. Each member shall have one vote they can cast per position. Elected officers will serve a one-year term, but semester-long terms are allowed.

President: The president will be responsible for the executive duties necessary to run the Palacats program, such as the organization of events, outreach, fundraising, etc.

- Oversees all executive decisions
- Primary contact for communication
- General oversight and leads monthly meetings
- Responsible for going over goals of the organization

Vice President: The vice president shall assist the president with the executive duties

- Assist president and work with president on ideas
- Assist in the facilitation of monthly meetings
- Will also bring forward new ideas or goals when needed
- Secondary contact for communication

Financial Manager: Responsible for the management of Palacats funds and the organization of fundraising events and donations.

- Responsible for working with SGA on budget
- Manages the Palacats funds
- Supervise of fundraising events

Social Media Manager: The social media Manager will manage all of Palacat's social media platforms.

The responsibilities of social media manager include:

1. Posting about the program
2. Ensure a positive social media presence
3. Bolstering Palacats' social media presence

Article VI: Advisor

Bruce Adams

Article VII: Meetings

Meetings will be held monthly, every Thursday at 7 pm. This time is subject to change.

Article VIII: Finance

Palacats primarily receives funding from the SGA budget. Palacats can host fundraising events and accept donations in order to finance its operations.

BYLAWS

Article I: Membership

-Membership is open to all who join through Syncdin

-Members must be in good standing with the program and attend at least five meetings per semester to retain membership.

Article II: Selection of Officers

Officers shall be elected on an annual basis

President has the ability appoint officers should executive members drop

Each member will receive one vote per officer position

Any member is eligible for an officer position

Each officer will serve a one-year term, but is allowed to serve for shorter or longer, if they want.

A member may run for multiple officer positions and be elected into multiple positions.

Article III: Selection of Advisor

Advisor shall be selected based on executive members' decisions on who they deem fit to advise the club.

Article IV: Committees

Committees shall be established by the President and Vice President. New committees may be added, or existing ones discarded should the need arise.

There will be three committees in Palacats:

Disciplinarian committee:

The disciplinary committee will be made up of the acting officers, and will serve the role of taking the revocation of a member membership status should the need arise.

Fundraising committee:

The fundraising committee will be led by the Financial manager, and will organize fundraising events.

Communications committee:

This committee will work to sort volunteers/volunteering, will work in outreach and advertisement, and will help to make Palacats more known on campus.

Article V: Rules of Order

Any conflict, whether internal or external, shall be resolved by the officers in a manner that gives equal voice to all parties involved.

Should the need arise that a member must be removed from the program, officers shall meet with the Dean of students, or whatever authority is necessary to resolve the issue while adhering to Furman University's student conduct code.

Any member who exhibits behavior that violates Furman's student conduct code shall be reported to the university.

Organizations may not address a member's violations of university policy via internal standards boards or other accountability mechanisms without prior approval of the Dean of Students Office. Conduct expectations unique to membership in the organization and that do not overlap or otherwise interfere with university authority may be addressed with the written approval of the AVP/Dean of Students or designee. Groups affiliated with national organizations that have established guidance and procedures over disciplinary matters, may follow the directive of those national organizations with regard to member conduct but must do so with written approval of the university.

Article VI: Amendments

The process for amending bylaws is as follows:

Bylaws will be reviewed every semester and ratified at the end of each semester

Any member can present a new bylaw they wish to add to the constitution within the first four weeks of each semester. However, to ratify that bylaw, $\frac{3}{4}$ of all members must vote in favor.

A bylaw can be rejected, but a unanimous vote is required from all officers.