

Disassociating

- ★ Refrain from attending her chapter's recruitment-preparation activities and events.
- ★ Minimize Chapter Association
- ★ Avoid talking more favorably about her own chapter than others to PNMs.
- ★ Refrain from wearing jerseys/apparel on the same day as your chapter and/or to your chapter's sponsored events (this is where the Pi Chi shirts come in!)
- ★ Refrain from attending including meetings and chapters during the formal recruitment period. (i.e. No recruitment counselor should be present during voting or when deciding who to offer bids to.)
- ★ Avoid stereotyping chapters on campus; instead, be able to provide accurate, unbiased information.
- ★ Respect all decisions that PNMs make regarding their choices, even if she has a different opinion from you
- ★ In a one-on-one conversation, if a PNM asks you what you are you MAY share if you would like. You may also decline. This is the only instance where you should state your affiliation.

NPC Expectations

- ★ Provide support, friendship and individual guidance to women participating in the recruitment process by sorority members who are educated to represent panhellenic attitudes and ideals.
- ★ Provide objective and impartial counselors.
- ★ Promote an understanding of the mutual selection process.
- ★ Promote an understanding of the benefits of sorority affiliation and emphasize the similarities in ideals and goals of all sororities.
- ★ Provide encouragement to PNMs to accept the maximum number of invitations possible during each round of recruitment and to complete the recruitment process.
- ★ Promote membership recruitment, retention and pledging by communicating realistic expectations of the recruitment process.

My Expectations

- ★ I want our team to be cohesive, communicative, and collaborative.
- ★ Pi Chi Bonding
- ★ Building a united front in order to BE a united front!
- ★ Realizing that this role is not about you, it's about the PNMs
- ★ Being present, engaged, and open during trainings, Pi Chi pop-ins, etc.
- ★ Abiding by all rules we discuss
- ★ Not a competition, not about your group or my group being the best group.
- ★ This will be very discussion-based training for the most part, so try to participate!

Dismissals

- ★ Directly coaching or advising a PNM

- ★ Bid promising on behalf of a chapter
- ★ Sharing info. back with your chapter
- ★ Violating PNM's confidence
- ★ Abusing your position
- ★ Crying over nonsense (i.e. if you cry over not feeling useful - it was a problem last year. But if you're emotionally overwhelmed THAT'S DIFFERENT and totally fine)
- ★ Other things can be subject to your dismissal, it is circumstantial

Recruitment Related

- ★ Send in your excuses for Recruitment Workshops, you will not be attending.
- ★ Pop-ins, no
- ★ Philanthropy events you may attend, but wear your Pi Chi shirt
- ★ Social events for your chapter you may attend, but do not post from it or any other sororities functions
- ★ You can do meal dates when you are hosting a Pi Chi Picnic or hanging out with a PNM you met, but NO forms for your chapter may be filled out.
- ★ Remember, you all took this role to help the PNMs, not to recruit.

Social Media

- ★ Taking letters out of bios/archiving sorority-related posts on your personal accounts
- ★ PNMs can follow you & vice-versa, they can know your affiliation if they ask in an individual setting (one-on-one).
- ★ You can make the choice if you would rather them not know your affiliation/follow you/etc.
- ★ Conscious about what you put on your stories
- ★ Follow all Panhellenic Chapters
- ★ Your chapter must unfollow you
- ★ Your chapter may not post about you starting FDOC to the end of Bid Day
- ★ Your chapter does not need to archive posts of you as long as they were posted post-FDOC.
