

RECRUITMENT RULES OF THE FURMAN UNIVERSITY PANAHELLENIC ASSOCIATION

Code of Ethics

As women with the National Panhellenic Conference and the Fraternity and Sorority Community at Furman University, we strive to promote an attitude of understanding, mutual respect, and pride both through our individual chapters and the Panhellenic Council of Furman University. We encourage and support our Fraternity and Sorority community, but aspire to positively impact all University women through our programs and activities. It is imperative that the basic values and morals we uphold in our own lives are also apparent through our interaction with the Panhellenic Council and Furman University. By adhering to these ideals, we can make our Fraternity and Sorority community a stronger and more viable force.

The mission of our organization shall be the advancement of her members in the most delicate yet strong friendships; mental assistance in all matters; endeavoring to enrich the lives of those around us; to further the cause of humanitarianism by exerting an influence of virtue and charity throughout all interaction; and to enable any member to follow the dictates of her own conscience, knowing that she will be upheld and encouraged in her independence. Anything within the bounds of ethical conduct shall receive commendation of her sisters and peers.

I. Statement of Positive Panhellenic Contact

We, the College Panhellenic members of Furman University, will promote Panhellenic spirited contact with all potential new members throughout the year. Strict silence will begin the night before the first round and last until Bid Day. No sorority member, including alumnae and new members, may communicate with potential new members during this period. Strict silence is defined as oral, nonverbal, written, printed, text message and electronic communication or communicating through a third party about the recruitment process. If a potential new member lives or interacts with sorority members, only casual greetings and contact are permitted.

II. Statement of Adherence to NPC Unanimous Agreements and Policies Regarding Recruitment

All NPC member organizations represented at Furman University adhere to NPC Unanimous Agreements and policies. All organizations will follow these valued and non negotiable policies during the recruitment process.

III. Statement of Membership Recruitment Procedures

- A. The Full Structured Recruitment system shall be used during Formal recruitment, incorporating the NPC release figure method and quota-range.
 1. Formal Recruitment will consist of three rounds with maximum invitations of five, three, and two in subsequent rounds.
 2. Chapters are required to provide negative flex lists and strongly encouraged to provide positive flex lists in order to have the maximum number of PNMs attend each round.
- B. Round schedules, logistics, deadlines, and infraction guidelines will be coordinated in advance by the Vice President of Recruitment and presented to all chapters. All chapters are expected to adhere to policies and procedures, and violations will result in infractions and judicial proceedings as appropriate.

- C. The Vice President of Recruitment will establish and communicate guidelines annually for membership recruitment budgets and set a cap on membership recruitment expenses, including the value of all donated goods and services.
- D. The Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement (MRABA) shall be upheld and used for each PNM interested in joining a sorority, whether during formal recruitment or continuous open bidding. We agree to all policies and steps pertaining to the MRABA.
- E. The affiliation of the Panhellenic Executive Board and recruitment counselors should be withheld from PNMs. All pictures, slides shows, or videos of these women must be appropriately covered. No chapters may reveal the affiliation of any of the aforementioned disaffiliated persons.

IV. Statement of Potential New Member Eligibility Eligibility

- A. A potential new member is any woman who is unaffiliated that has completed a minimum of 12 Furman University credit hours. Chapters shall not extend bids to first-year students during the fall semester.
- B. Women who have previously signed the MRABA and were matched are not eligible for bidding to another NPC organization per the one calendar year rule.
- C. A PNM shall not be, or ever have been, an initiated member of a NPC group.

V. Statement of Values-Based Recruitment

The purpose of values-based recruitment is to focus on meaningful conversations with potential new members and recruiting/pledging potential new members who will have a positive impact on chapters and the Panhellenic community. All NPC member organizations represented at Furman University will engage in the following practices that align with the Values-Based Recruitment:

- A. All sorority women are expected to abide by the Code of Ethics and Positive Panhellenic Contact in thought, word, and action, focusing conversation on organizational values and member organizations. At no time shall Panhellenic women say anything negative or disparaging about any other Greek-letter organization. This includes rumors, stereotypes, or other harmful information regardless of the method of communication (e.g. printed, spoken, or electronic). Additionally, all marketing for recruitment purposes should represent Panhellenic values.
- B. Contact with PNMs on social media must reflect the Code of Ethics and promote positive Panhellenic contact.
- C. Interactions with PNMs in campus residences are discouraged with the exception of academic reasons, student organization business/programs, or non-alcoholic social interactions. Recruitment events shall consist of maximum conversation times as well as tables with appropriate educational and informative displays that are relevant to the event.
- D. Each chapter will be assigned at random an academic space to host PNMs during Formal Recruitment. Each chapter is responsible for treating recruitment spaces with the utmost respect and care. This includes removing all decorations and trash at the close of the round as well as being courteous to those working in nearby office spaces and classrooms.
- E. Chapters are expected to keep decorations to a minimum and confined to the - interior space used for recruitment rounds.

- F. Chapters are expected to determine recruitment event attire for chapter members that reduces individual financial burden and eliminates costuming.
 - G. Chapters should eliminate gifts, favors, letters and notes for potential new members.
 - H. Chapters should eliminate all forms of bid promising, oral or written, to join a certain sorority before bids are distributed by Panhellenic.
 - I. There will be a period of strict silence for all sorority members beginning the night before the first round of formal recruitment and ending at Bid Day. Sorority women are not allowed to have lengthy conversations with Potential New Members at any time during the strict silence period, including but not limited to visiting, entertaining, or contacting through social media.

VI. Statement of Automatic Reset of Total

- A. To allow groups to achieve parity as quickly as possible, total will be automatically adjusted at the conclusion of primary recruitment and within one week from the start of the fall semester using the following method: Average or median chapter size (whichever is larger).
- B. Vacancies in Total
 - 1. When a woman negates her signed Membership Recruitment Acceptance Binding Agreement (MRABA), refuses to accept her matched bid at the conclusion of formal recruitment and does not participate in a ribbon or formal new member ceremony, this space in the chapter's pledge quota was not filled.
 - 2. The chapter may immediately bid and pledge another woman, even if the chapter is over total. However, if the chapter has received quota additions, the chapter may only pledge additional women to the established quota and not to the quota plus quota additions.

VII. Statement of Continuous Open Bidding Guidelines

- A. Continuous Open Bidding of upper-class women occurs outside of Formal Recruitment and is subject to total.
- B. Unrestricted Continuous Open Bidding begins immediately following Bid Day in the spring semester and is open to all chapters not reaching and/or maintaining total throughout the academic year.
- C. Chapters shall not recruit and/or extend bids through Continuous Open Bidding to first-year students during the fall semester.
