Article VI. The Panhellenic Council Code of Ethics

As women with the National Panhellenic Conference and the Fraternity and Sorority Community at Furman University, we strive to promote an attitude of understanding, mutual respect, and pride both through our individual chapters and the Panhellenic Council of Furman University. We encourage and support our Fraternity and Sorority community, but aspire to positively impact all University women through our programs and activities. It is imperative that the basic values and morals we uphold in our own lives are also apparent through our interaction with the Panhellenic Council and Furman University. By adhering to these ideals, we can make our Fraternity and Sorority community a stronger and more viable force.

The mission of our organization shall be the advancement of her members in the most delicate yet strong friendships; mental assistance in all matters; endeavoring to enrich the lives of those around us; to further the cause of humanitarianism by exerting an influence of virtue and charity throughout all interaction; and to enable any member to follow the dictates of her own conscience, knowing that she will be upheld and encouraged in her independence. Anything within the bounds of ethical conduct shall receive commendation of her sisters and peers.

Article VII. The Panhellenic Creed

The purpose of the Furman Panhellenic Council shall be to foster high ideals of friendship, promote educational and cultural interests, and create a true sense of social responsibility, find satisfaction in being, rather than seeming, thus strengthening in us the higher qualities of the spirit; to prepare for service and learn the nobility of serving, to live constantly above snobbery of word or deed; to place scholarship before social obligations and character before appearances, develop qualities of unselfish leadership among our members, and to encourage them to assume, with integrity and devotion to moral and democratic principles, the highest responsibilities of college women.

Our members will strive to form life bonds of friendship, mutual support, opportunities for self-growth, and respect for intellectual development. We believe in holding ourselves to the responsibility of doing our best in whatever we undertake, always remembering that leadership requires confidence tempered with humility and courage blended with tolerance.

May we each day through love of those within our circle, learn to know and understand better those outside our circle. We as a Panhellenic community strive to promote these ideals to all women on campus both collectively and individually.

Article VIII. The Panhellenic Recruitment Rules

Furman University Panhellenic Formal and Informal Recruitment rules are intended to help guide sorority women and potential new members throughout the membership selection process and formal recruitment period. The purpose of a structured recruitment system is two-fold:
