

Bylaws of Furman University Panhellenic Association
Last Revised on October 11, 2023

Article I. Name

The name of this organization shall be the Furman University Panhellenic Association.

Article II. Object

The object of the Panhellenic Association shall be to develop and maintain women's fraternity life and interfraternity relations at a high level of accomplishment and in so doing to:

- A. Consider the goals and ideals of member groups as continually applicable to campus and personal life.
- B. Promote superior scholarship and basic intellectual development.
- C. Cooperate with member women's fraternities and the university/college administration in concern for and maintenance of high social and moral standards.
- D. Act in accordance with National Panhellenic Conference (NPC) Unanimous Agreements, resolutions and policies.
- E. Act in accordance with such rules established by the Panhellenic Council as to not violate the sovereignty, rights and privileges of member women's fraternities.

Article III. Membership

Section 1. Membership Classes

There shall be three classes of membership: regular, provisional and associate.

1. Regular membership. The regular membership of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all chapters of NPC fraternities at Furman University. Regular members of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall pay dues as determined by the Furman University Panhellenic Association. Each regular member shall have a voice and one vote on all matters.

2. Provisional membership. The provisional membership of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall be composed of all established chapters of NPC fraternities at Furman University. Provisional members shall pay no dues and shall have voice but no vote on all matters.
3. A provisional member shall automatically become a regular member upon being installed as a chapter of an NPC fraternity.
4. Associate membership. Local sororities or national or regional non-NPC member groups may apply for associate membership of the Furman University Panhellenic Association. The membership eligibility requirements and the process for submitting an application and approval of the application shall be determined by the Panhellenic Council. Associate members shall pay dues as determined by the College Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall have voice and one vote on all matters, except extension-related matters and, if they are not participating in the formal recruitment process, they shall not have a vote on recruitment rules and establishment or modification of Panhellenic total. An associate member may be expelled for cause by a majority vote of the Panhellenic Council. An associate member shall not be entitled to vote on the question of its expulsion.

Section 2. Privileges and Responsibilities of Membership

1. Duty of compliance. All members, without regard to membership class, shall comply with all NPC Unanimous Agreements and be subject to these Furman University Panhellenic Association Bylaws, Code of Ethics and any additional rules this Panhellenic Association may adopt unless otherwise prescribed in these bylaws. Any rules adopted by this Panhellenic Association in conflict with the NPC Unanimous Agreements shall be void.

Article IV. Officers and Duties

Section 1. Officers

The officers of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall be President, Vice President of Recruitment, Director of Recruitment Councilors, Vice President of Administration, Vice President of Communications and Public Relations, Vice President of Social Standards, Vice President of Service and Philanthropy, Vice President of Programming and Community Engagement, Vice President of Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion, Director of Greek Week, and Director of Scholarship.

Article V. The Panhellenic Council

Section 1. Authority

The governing body of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall be the Panhellenic Council. It shall be the duty of the Panhellenic Council to conduct all business related to the overall welfare of the Furman University Panhellenic Association including, but not limited to: annually review and adjust total as needed; determine dues; approve the annual budget; consider extension; set a calendar of events; determine programming; and establish recruitment rules and recruitment style. The Panhellenic Council shall also have the authority to adopt rules governing the Panhellenic Association that do not violate the sovereignty, rights and privileges of member women's fraternities.

Section 2. Composition and Privileges

The Furman University Panhellenic Council shall be composed of one delegate and one alternate delegate from each regular, provisional and associate member group at Furman University as identified in Article III. The delegates shall be the voting members of the Panhellenic Council except as otherwise provided in Article III of these bylaws. The alternate delegates shall have voice but no vote. The alternate delegate shall act and vote in the place of the delegate when the delegate is absent. If both delegate and alternate are absent, the vote may be cast by a member of the fraternity, providing her credentials have been presented to the association president.

Section 3. Selection of Delegates and Alternates

Delegates and alternates to the Panhellenic Council shall be selected by their respective women's fraternity chapters to serve for a term of one year commencing upon selection by the chapter. The Panhellenic Delegate for each chapter shall be required to attend the weekly Panhellenic meetings as set by the Panhellenic Council each new officer term.

Section 4. Delegate Vacancies

When a delegate vacancy occurs, it shall be the responsibility of the fraternity affected to select a replacement within 2 weeks and to notify the Panhellenic Association Vice President of Administration of her name, e-mail address and telephone number.

Section 5. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the Panhellenic Council shall be held at a designated time selected by the executive officers each week. The Executive officers should meet at a delegated time, and the Panhellenic delegates will come at a designated time determined by the executive officers.

Section 6. Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Panhellenic Slating Committee shall be held during the month of November. The purpose of the annual meeting shall be for the election of officers and any other business that may properly come before the delegates.

Section 7. Special Meetings

Special meetings of the Panhellenic Council may be called by the president when necessary and shall be called by her upon the written request of no fewer than one-fourth of the member women's fraternities of the Furman University Panhellenic Association. Notice of each special meeting of the Panhellenic Council shall be sent to each member of the Panhellenic Council at least 24 hours prior to convening the meeting; however, such notice may be waived, and attendance at such meeting shall constitute waiver of said notice.

Section 8. Chapter Member Attendance

Chapters will be notified at least two weeks prior to an event if chapter member attendance is required. Notification is needed for any required participation.

Section 9. Means of Communication

The Panhellenic Council may conduct business at any meeting (regular or special) through the use of any means of communication by which all delegates participating may simultaneously hear one another and participate in the proceedings during the meeting.

Section 10. Quorum

Two-thirds of the delegates from the member fraternities of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Section 11. Vote Requirements

1. Proposed motions on issues that impact a chapter as a whole must be announced at a previous meeting to allow opportunity for chapter input before a vote may be taken on the issue.
2. A two-thirds vote of the Panhellenic Council shall be required to approve a recolonization plan and for all extension-related votes. All other votes, unless specified in these bylaws, shall require a majority vote for adoption. (See the Article on Amendment of Bylaws for specific voting requirements for the amendment of these bylaws.)

Section 12. Attendance Policy

Delegates and Executive Officers who plan to miss a Panhellenic meeting need to email the VP of Administration at least 24 hours in advance of the planned absence with an excuse.

1. Acceptable excuses shall include:

1. Classes scheduled during rescheduled Panhellenic Meetings or extenuating class circumstance (Panhellenic Delegates and members of the Panhellenic Executive Council are only eligible to be slated for positions on Panhellenic Council if they are able to attend the scheduled day and times of the Panhellenic Council meetings.
 2. Night Exams/Night Classes
 3. Illness
 4. Formal Initiation or Rituals
 5. Funeral or Formal Family Event
 6. All excuses, including those listed above, shall fall under the discretion of the Greek Life Advisor, Panhellenic Council President and Vice President of Administration
2. Limitations on Absences
 1. Panhellenic Delegates and Executive Council members are allowed one unexcused absence. If a delegate has more than two unexcused absences, the Panhellenic Council will ask the delegate's chapter to replace the delegate.
 2. If a delegate must miss a meeting, her chapter must send a replacement delegate. Chapters without a representative shall have no voice or vote in meetings.
 3. If a chapter delegate is absent for more than 25% meetings (excused or unexcused), the chapter will be advised to replace that member.
 4. In the absence of extenuating circumstances, if an Executive Board member exceeds two unexcused absences during her term, her position will be opened up to Panhellenic and voted on according to the bylaws and policies of the Furman Panhellenic Council.
3. Officer Requirements
 1. Either the President or the Vice President of Administration must be present at the Panhellenic Meetings each week. It is preferred that both officers are present.
4. Meeting Times and Requirements
 1. Meetings will be scheduled at the incoming council's discretion. Requests to be excused from the Council meeting must be communicated in writing to the Vice President of Administration at least 24 hours with notice and excuse.
 2. Each semester, Council meeting times will be designated by the Panhellenic President and Panhellenic Council Advisor.

Article VI. The Panhellenic Council Code of Ethics

As women with the National Panhellenic Conference and the Fraternity and Sorority Community at Furman University, we strive to promote an attitude of understanding, mutual respect, and pride both through our individual chapters and the Panhellenic Council of Furman University. We encourage and support our Fraternity and Sorority community, but aspire to positively impact all University women through our programs and activities. It is imperative that the basic values and morals we uphold in our own lives are also apparent through our interaction with the Panhellenic Council and Furman University. By adhering to these ideals, we can make our Fraternity and Sorority community a stronger and more viable force.

The mission of our organization shall be the advancement of her members in the most delicate yet strong friendships; mental assistance in all matters; endeavoring to enrich the lives of those around us; to further the cause of humanitarianism by exerting an influence of virtue and charity throughout all interaction; and to enable any member to follow the dictates of her own conscience, knowing that she will be upheld and encouraged in her independence. Anything within the bounds of ethical conduct shall receive commendation of her sisters and peers.

Article VII. The Panhellenic Creed

“We, as Undergraduate Members of women’s fraternities, stand for good scholarship, for guarding of good health, for maintenance of fine standards, and for serving, to the best of our ability, our college community. Cooperation for furthering fraternity life, in harmony with its best possibilities, is the ideal that shall guide our fraternity activities.

We as Fraternity Women, stand for service through the development of character inspired by the close contact and deep friendship of individual fraternity and Panhellenic life. The opportunity for wide and wise human service, through mutual respect and helpfulness, is the tenet by which we strive to live.”

Article VIII. The Panhellenic Recruitment Rules

Furman University Panhellenic Formal and Informal Recruitment rules are intended to help guide sorority women and potential new members throughout the membership selection process and formal recruitment period. As part of its commitment to scholarship, the Panhellenic Council has determined that students must have earned at least a 2.30 GPA by the start of recruitment to be eligible to participate in recruitment and join a sorority (however, exceptions may be reviewed on a case-by-case basis). The purpose of a structured recruitment system is two-fold:

1. To ensure that sororities have equal opportunities for recruitment and membership selection within the Panhellenic community.
2. To provide potential new members every possible opportunity to become acquainted with all sororities, so that they may make wise, unbiased decisions concerning membership.

Article IX. The Panhellenic Recruitment Leadership

Section 1. Selection

The Panhellenic Counselors of the Furman University Panhellenic Association shall be selected through an application and interview process by the outgoing and incoming Director of Recruitment Councilors and the incoming Panhellenic President.

The Social Standards Committee shall meet when deemed necessary by the VP of Social Standards.

Section 7. Finance Committee

The Finance Committee shall be chaired by the Panhellenic Vice President of Administration. The Finance Committee shall consist of the Treasurers of each chapter. The Finance Committee shall be responsible for collaboration and conversations regarding all matters of finance that affect Panhellenic sororities collectively. The Finance Committee shall meet when deemed necessary by the VP of Administration.

Section 8. Public Relations Committee

The Public Relations Committee shall be chaired by the Panhellenic Vice President of Public Relations. The members of the Public Relations Committee shall consist of the Public Relations Chairs of each chapter. The Public Relations Committee shall be responsible for all forms of publicity dealing with the Furman University Panhellenic Association. This committee shall work closely with all committees to make certain that the media is kept informed of the positive events of the Panhellenic Association and its member women fraternities. The Public Relations Committee shall meet when deemed necessary by the VP of Public Relations.

Section 9. Community Service/Philanthropy Committee

The Community Service/Philanthropy Committee shall be chaired by the Panhellenic Vice President of Service and Philanthropy. The members of the Community Service/Philanthropy Committee shall consist of the Service/Philanthropy Chairs of each chapter. The Community Service/Philanthropy Committee shall be responsible for all matters pertaining to the promotion of chapter-wide and Panhellenic community service/philanthropy. The Community Service/Philanthropy Committee shall meet when deemed necessary by the VP of Service and Philanthropy.

Section 10. Academic Excellence Committee

The Academic Excellence Committee shall be chaired by the Vice President of Programming and Community Engagement, who will appoint a Director of Scholarship if deemed necessary. The members of the Academic Excellence Committee shall consist of the Scholarship Chairs of each Panhellenic chapter. The Academic Excellence Committee shall be responsible for all matters pertaining to the promotion of superior scholarship as basic to intellectual achievement. The Academic Excellence Committee shall meet when deemed necessary by the VP of Programming and Community Engagement.

Section 11. Other Committees

Other such committees, standing or special, shall be appointed as deemed necessary by the Panhellenic Council.

Article XII. Finances

Section 1. Fiscal Year

The fiscal year of the Furman University Panhellenic Council shall be from January 1 to December 31 inclusive.

Section 2. Contracts

Dual signatures of the President and an authorized Furman University staff member shall be required to bind the Furman University Panhellenic Council to any contract.

Section 3. Checks

The following shall be authorized to be one of the required signatures: President, Vice President of Administration, or the Greek advisor.

Section 4. Payments

All payments due to the Furman University Panhellenic Council shall be received by the Vice President of Administration, who shall record them. Checks for payments shall be made payable to the Furman University Panhellenic Council.

Section 5. Dues

A. NPC College Panhellenic dues shall be paid yearly as invoiced by the NPC office.

B. Panhellenic Council membership dues shall be an assessment per member and new member.

1. The amount of such dues for the next academic year shall be determined by the Panhellenic Council no later than April of that year.

2. The dues of each Panhellenic Council member fraternity shall be payable on or before May 5.

C. All membership dues for members shall be due no later than the end of September for members at $15 per member annually.

D. All new member dues shall be due by the end of February for new members at $15 per member. If new members join in the fall, they will be responsible for both the new member and member dues that semester, due two weeks after accepting a COB.

Section 6. Fees and Assessments

The Panhellenic Council shall have the authority to determine fees and assessments as necessary.

Article XIII. Extension

Section 1. Extension is the process of adding an NPC women's fraternity.

The Furman University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements and NPC extension guidelines found on the NPC website and in the Manual of Information.

Section 2. Voting rights

Only Chapter Delegates of the Panhellenic Council shall vote on extension matters.

Article XIV. Violation Resolution

Section 1. Other violations not under the jurisdiction of the university

Chapters shall be held accountable for the conduct of their individual collegiate and alumnae members. Conduct contrary to the NPC Unanimous Agreements, Panhellenic code of ethics, the Furman University Panhellenic constitution and bylaws, and the standing rules and/or membership recruitment regulations of the Furman University Panhellenic shall be considered a violation.

Section 2. Informal resolution for violations not involving the university

Members are encouraged to resolve alleged violations through informal discussion with the involved parties.

Section 3. Panhellenic judicial process for violations not involving the university

If informal discussions are unsuccessful, the judicial process will be set in motion by filing a report of the alleged violation. The Furman University Panhellenic Association shall follow all mediation guidelines found in the Manual of Information.

A. Mediation. Mediation is the first step of the judicial process. The Furman University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements concerning the judicial process found in the Manual of Information.

B. Judicial Board hearing. When a violation is not settled informally or through mediation, the Judicial Board shall resolve the issue in a Judicial Board hearing. The Panhellenic Council shall adopt procedures in the standing rules for this purpose that are consistent with the NPC Unanimous Agreements.

C. Appeal of Judicial Board decision. A decision of the Judicial Board may be appealed by any involved party to the NPC College Panhellenics Judicial Appeal Committee. The Furman University Panhellenic Association shall follow all NPC Unanimous Agreements concerning the appeals process found in the Manual of Information.
