

Constitution of the Pre-Law Society

Mission Statement:

The mission of the Pre-Law Society is to be group of students that is composed of Furman's undergraduate student population interested in legal studies or the legal profession.

Values Statement:

We recognize the importance of transparency, credibility, integrity, and civic engagement in the Furman and Greenville communities. We seek to embody these values in our efforts to better both the Pre-Law Society and Furman University.

Vision Statement:

The Pre-Law Society seeks to become a group that is highly regarded on campus. The Pre-Law Society will work collaboratively with the students, administrators, faculty, and all guests to enhance the mission of the Pre-Law Society.

Article I. Name of Organization

The name of this organization will be the Pre-Law Society.

Article II. Membership

All students who have an interest in this society are guaranteed membership. All members are subject to this constitution.

Article III. Government of the Pre-Law Society

Two branches will govern the Pre-Law Society: the Executive Council and all Pre-Law Society Advisors.

Article IV. The Executive Council

Section I. Purpose

The Executive Council will be the legislative body of the association.

Section II. Membership of the Executive Council

A. The voting membership of the Executive Council will include:

The prior term's Pre-Law Society President
All advisors of the Pre-Law Society

Section III. Term of Office

- A. The term of office for all members of the Executive Council will be for as many years as they are undergraduates at Furman.
- B. Elections for the Executive Council will take place in the spring term of the academic year prior to their elected term.
- C. Their term will last until the last Pre-Law Society meeting of the following academic year.

Section IV. Powers and Duties

- A. The Executive Council will represent the society in all matters affecting member interest.
- B. The Executive Council will exercise general supervision over all member activities and events.
- C. The Executive Council will enact and revise laws of this constitution.

Section V. Meetings, Quorums, and Procedures

The meetings of the Pre-Law Society will be open to all members the society, or all students wishing to join the society.

- A. The Executive Council may schedule up to two (2) mandatory Executive Council educational activities.
- B. The Executive Council must notify council members of the activity dates at least two weeks in advance.
- C. One of the two sessions may occur before Executive Council members' terms of office begins.
- D. The Executive Council will meet once each month during the academic year while classes are in session, however the President may schedule more than one meeting per month.
- E. The Executive Council will have the authority to make decisions and rule on behalf of the Pre-Law society during the summer session.
- F. Attendance
- G. Members of the Executive Council are encouraged to attend all events, along with all the members of the society.

Section VI. Elections

- A. Executive Council officers will be elected no later than one month prior to the end of the spring semester.
- B. The current President will administer the following oath of office to the prior year's president and all Pre-Law advisors: "I do solemnly swear that I will faithfully execute the duties of my office and will to the best of my ability uphold the constitution and laws of the Student Government Association."

C. Eligibility

1. In order for a candidate to be listed on the ballot, he/she must be recommended by a Pre-Law Society advisor or prior year's president.
2. Each candidate for the Executive Council must have an overall grade point average of at least two (2.0) as determined by the university registrar and be in good standing with the University as determined by the Dean of Students.
3. Candidates for office must plan to be enrolled in classes held on Furman's campus for the entire term of office (with the exception of summer session).
4. Candidates for Executive Council must be a rising sophomores, juniors, or seniors.

In order to be eligible to run for an office, candidates must have a recommendation from the prior year's Pre-Law Society President, and be in good standing with the society and all of its advisors.

D. Vacancy

1. A member of the Executive Council who chooses to resign will submit his/her resignation to the President. A President who chooses to resign will submit his/her resignation to the Pre-Law Advisor.
2. A vacancy in the office of the President will be filled by the Vice President.

Article V. Amendments

Any member of the Pre-Law Society may propose amendments to this constitution. Amendments become part of the constitution with the approval of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the society. If an amendment meets these requirements, it will be considered passed.

Article VIII. By-laws

Section I. Name

The legislative laws of the Pre-Law Society will be known as the Bylaws.

Section II. Amendments

Any member of the Pre-Law Society can propose amendments to the by-laws of the Pre-Law Society. Amendments will become part of the by-laws on approval by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote.