

Furman University Psychology Club Constitution

Article I. Name

The formal name of this organization is the Furman University Psychology Club.

Article II. Purpose

This club exists to bring students and faculty together in the Psychology department and to foster a feeling of community and unity among the Psychology majors. Also, the Psychology Club provides educational and service opportunities to members to further their academic and vocational interests.

Article III. Membership Composition

Membership is tracked through those on syncDIN. Anybody is welcome to join, and there are a few recruiting events throughout the year where names of people interested in joining the club will be added to the syncDIN page (student activities fair, Psychology department meeting in the fall, etc). Any member or Psychology faculty member may attend general meetings and special events. However, officer meetings, which happen every few months, will consist of just the club's officers; the advisors may attend the officer meetings if they want to, but it is not required.

Article IV. Organization Officers & Duties

President:

- In charge of overseeing all other officers and operations of the Psychology Club
- Coordinates the provisions for the colloquium speaker hosted by the club (CLP)
- Sets agenda and goals for the year
- Keeps the constitution updated
- Keeps SyncDin updated

Vice President:

- In charge of a faculty-student dinner for the Psychology department once every semester
- In charge of coordinating the Lib Nanney Service Project in the spring semester.
- Acts as president in the absence of the President

Treasurer:

- In charge of keeping track of all of the money spent by the Psychology Club.

- Consults with other officers on budget availability
- Makes budget requests to SGA, checks out the SGA credit card for purchases, meets with SGA Treasurer for meetings
- Creates and sends the following year's budget to the SGA Treasurer in the Spring for approval

Event Coordinator:

- In charge of planning and executing monthly events for all Psychology Club members to attend, such as monthly meetings, study halls, movie nights, and a holiday party.
- The Event Coordinator may create an Events Committee of club members to assist in planning and executing events

Public Relations:

- Responsible for advertising the club, club events (e.g., making posters and announcements, sharing information, etc.)
- Posts events on SyncDin to share with the student body
- Runs the Instagram and Groupme
- Organizes the table/materials and attends the Spring and Fall Student Organization Fair
- Designs and orders merchandise as necessary
- Communicates with the Psych department faculty and staff and with other clubs with whom we collaborate (Neuroscience, Paladin Peer Support, PHOKUS, etc.)

Secretary: (to be appointed by the President, Vice President, and Advisors in the Fall Semester)

- Keeps minutes for officer meetings and club business meetings
- Assists the President with keeping the constitution and SyncDin updated
- Assists the other Public Relations and Event Coordinator as necessary.

*All Officers are expected to attend all meetings and events, including both Student Organization Fairs, Officer and General Club meetings, and meetings with advisors.

*All Officers are expected to regularly check e-mail, GroupMe, and Slack for communications from other Officers, Advisors, and club members

*The Advisors have the right to remove and replace Officers as needed contingent on Officer's diligence to their duties.

Article V. Meetings

Regular meetings of the club shall be held once a month, in an event created by the Event Coordinator. All members are welcome to these meetings. These monthly meetings may consist of business meetings or events. Officer meetings of the organization shall be held as needed and will consist of only the officers (and the advisors, if deemed necessary). Any officer has the right to call an officer meeting, but the President will organize the time and place of these meetings.

Article VI. Organization Advisors

The Advisor's duties shall include:

- A. Meeting with the organization officers as needed.
- B. Organizing nominations and elections of officers every spring semester.
- C. Making sure that the club represents Furman University & the Psychology department and follows all university policies.

Article VII. Officer Elections

Early in the Spring Semester, a form for nominations for Officer positions will be sent out. Club members will be able to nominate current club members for the above 4 positions. During the February or March full club meeting, nominees can accept their nominations, introduce themselves to the club, and elections for Officer positions will be voted on. Voting will take place using an online survey tool such as Qualtrics. Elections will be made by the last day of March so that the old officers can meet the new officers, assisting them in becoming acquainted with their new positions.

Article VIII. Organization Funds

Means of acquiring funds will include funding from the Student Government Association (SGA).

Article IX. Amendments

These bylaws may be amended by a 2/3 vote of the officer team and advisors.

Changes to this constitution were voted on by 2/3 of the 2023-2024 Officers on March 12th, 2024
