
Sink or Swim Constitution

Preamble

This club will be formally referred to as “Sink or Swim”. It is the sole club on Furman campus centered around the cue sport, pool. The mission, motivation and foundation of this club is to promote, cultivate and nurture an amicable environment for Furman students to share in the joy and excitement of playing pool. Our primary affiliation is with the Trone Student Center for the use of its resources and pool table.

Article I. Membership

1. In keeping with Furman University’s non-discrimination policies, membership shall be open to all undergraduate, day students. Our organization will not discriminate based on race, sex, handicap, age, sexual orientation, political affiliation, or religious affiliation.
2. All club members must be undergraduate, day students. Membership is defined as active participation in club meetings, competitions, fundraisers and/or promotional events.

Article II. Executive Council

1. The club’s governing body is the Executive Council, who will serve as the managers, strategists, and figureheads of all club activities.
2. The Executive Council will be comprised of the Club President and the other officers of the club: the Vice President, Secretary, Treasurer, Archivist, and Social Media Manager.
3. Duties of Executive Council members:
 - a. Responsibilities of the President include acting as the main ambassador of the club, initializing and hosting periodic meetings of the Council, facilitating an inclusive environment for student members, establishing relationships with other on-campus organizations, and orchestrating club tournaments.
 - b. Responsibilities of the Vice President include ensuring the standards and bylaws set forth by the club are upheld by all members, communicating expected tasks to other Council members, assisting the President in the planning of club events, and assisting in any and/or all facets of club activities at the President's discretion.
 - c. Responsibilities of the Secretary include organizing meeting agendas, providing documentation of each periodic meeting, ensuring Executive Council members meet timely deliverables, and maintaining an updated list of active club members.
 - d. Responsibilities of the Treasurer include managing the club budget and expenses, maintaining records of financial transactions, and finalizing financial decisions by the club.
 - e. Responsibilities of the Archivist include maintaining records of Council meetings and all other club gatherings, collecting photographs of gatherings, and working jointly with the Treasurer to maintain records of fiscal transactions.

- f. Responsibilities of the Social Media Manager include maintaining the club's social media accounts and social media footprint, promoting club events, taking photographs of club gatherings, and advertising club merchandise.
4. In the event that a new seat on the Executive Council must be added, the President will be responsible for determining the responsibilities associated with the new position before putting the addition of this position to a vote of the Executive Council (see "Powers" below for more on votes of the Executive Council).

Article III. Funding

1. The main funding will be provided by the Furman Student Government Association (SGA), and additional funds will be accumulated through fundraising, event holding, and sponsorship agreements.
2. All fiscal transactions must be reviewed and approved by the Treasurer.

Article IV. Meetings

1. Meetings of the Executive Council will be held in order to plan, discuss and vote on matters of club business.
2. All meetings will be open-door so that anyone may attend. All club members are welcome and encouraged to attend meetings at their own leisure.
3. Meetings of the Executive Council will be organized at the President's discretion, and the President is required to communicate meeting dates, times and locations to officers and club members.
4. Agendas of each Executive Council meeting will be created before each meeting. All club members may request to see the meeting agenda before or after any meeting.
5. All officers of the Executive Council are required to attend meetings organized by the President, barring extenuating circumstances that hinder their ability to attend. Should an officer be unable to attend a Council meeting, it is incumbent upon them to alert the President beforehand and receive information about the meeting agenda and any tasks expected of them after the conclusion of the meeting.
6. Each club meeting will have an open forum so that the Executive Council may hear any comments, questions, ideas and/or grievances from club members in attendance.

Article V. Appointing Executive Council Members

1. Each officer will serve a one-year term lasting the entirety of the academic year. There will be no limits on the number of terms an officer can serve during their time spent as a member.
2. Officers will be appointed and announced to the club by the President at the beginning of each academic year.
3. Should an officer be unable and/or unfit to fulfill their duties at any point during their term, the President will either:
 - a. Appoint a non-Council club member to serve as interim of the vacant Council position for the remainder of the term
 - b. Task another Council member with fulfilling the duties of the vacant Council position for the remainder of the term
 - c. Or divide the duties of the vacant Council position amongst the other members of the Council as best fits for the remainder of the term

4. In the event that a new President must be elected, the Executive Council will convene to elect a member of the club as President. In the event that there is a tie in this vote of the Executive Council, a general election will be held for all club members to vote on the candidates already proposed by the Executive Council.

Article VI. Powers

1. The club should act as a self-sustaining, not-for-profit organization in which no member can accrue any personal monetary profit.
2. Any member found to be using their position for personal gain will be subject to a vote to void their membership and/or position within the club. Decisions to remove members will be put to a vote by the Executive Council, with a simple majority necessary for the removal of a member.
3. Decisions of the club will be made via votes of the Executive Council, with a simple majority necessary in order to pass any decision put to a vote.
4. In the event of a tie in any vote of the Executive Council other than the election of a new President, the President will have the tie-breaking vote.

Article VII. Amendments to the Constitution

1. Amendments of the Club Constitution may be proposed at any time by any member of the club.
2. Any proposed amendment must be submitted to the President in writing. Upon receiving a proposed amendment, the President must consult the Constitution and communicate with the club's officers to discuss the proposed amendment.
3. Within three weeks of an amendment being proposed, the Executive Council must have a meeting in which they discuss and vote on the amendment.
4. Should a proposed amendment be ratified by a vote of the Executive Council, the duty of redrafting the amended Constitution will be assigned to any Council member(s) at the President's discretion.
